Nebraska Clothing and Shoe House.

SAM ROSENBERG, Prop.

Next Door to Chas. McDonald's Bank, North Platte, Neb.

Mrs. S. Grace and two sons left this morning for Kansas City, going via Denver.

Sam Grace had his injured eye removed at an Omaha hospital last Tuesday. It will be several weeks before he will be permitted to leave the hospital.

Doolittle's is not a crockery store you know, but makes a specialty of dainty odd pieces of china especially for gifts. Artistic China we keep and shall always aim to keep. Come and see.

Dave Patterson, at one time foreman of the local U. P. shops, but of late with the Gulf road, has been appointed assistant master mechanic of the Wabash with headquarters at Kansas City.

W. A. Whitney, assistant superintendent at Laramie and formerly chief dispatcher at Grand Island, shook hands with North Platte acquaintances one day this week while enroute to Omaha.

New Goods from New York and Chicago arrived yesterday for Harry Dixon's new store.

Members and friends of the Lutheran church and all interested in the cause of christian education will not forget the social tonight at the home of Mrs. Frederickson for the benefit of Midland College. Refreshments and a good time for all.

The protective boards of the O. R. C. and B. R. T. of the Union Pacific system, which have been in session in Omaha for ten days past, expect to conclude their work tomorrow. The meeting has been for the transaction of routine business: it being stated that neither order has any particular grievance.

Have you seen the Rolled Nickel Goods at Dixon's. Warranted not to tarnish. Baking Dishes, Crumb Trays, Tea and Coffee Pots, etc.

It is stated that beginning January 1st the Union Pacific will begin the use of electricity to light trains No. 1 and No. 2. This equipment will run through from Chicago to San Francisco. Twenty cars have been sent to the Pullman shops to be fitted with the new lights.

Those Church Spoons and High School Spoons at Dixon's are the heaviest and finest engraved that are in the city.

The proposition to accept the initiative and referendum clause of the state statutes was submitted at a special election yesterday and carried by a majority of fifty-four. The vote was very light, but few people taking any interest in the matter. It is questionable if the rights given the people by the adoption of the measure will ever be used.

Doolittle's Candelabra Show case is "a thing of beauty and a joy forever." Everything is Candelabra this year and Doolittle has them in all styles and prices from 15c to $5.00.

The subject of Rev. Seibert's discourse, at the Lutheran church Sunday evening will be "Gustavus Adolphus, the Lion of the North." This heroic defender of Protestantism is the pride of all Scandianavia and it is expected that all the Swedes and Danes in the city will attend church Sunday night. Morning service and Sunday school at usual hours. Everybody invited.

The fair and supper given by the Presbyterian ladies at the opera house last evening was largely patronized. The supper served was an excellent one and deserved the patronage it received. The fancy work and apron tables attracted many customers and the flower and home-made candy booths seemed to do a good business. The total receipts were two hundred and fifteen dollars.

Do not forget Doolittle's large stock of Violins, Guitars, Mandolins, Banjo, etc, when you are thinking of something for Christmas Gift.

In the district court today the case of the State against Wm. Montgomery, on the charge of cattle stealing is being heard. This is a case that has twice been in the county court, and originally started over the taking of a calf valued at about ten dollars. Thirty witnesses have been subpoenaed, nearly all of whom live from twenty-five to forty miles distant from the city. The total costs in the case will be nearly five hundred dollars which the taxpayers will pay.
