

Local News in Brief.

DR. F. W. MILLER, GRADUATE DENTIST
Office over Streitz's Drug Store.

A boy baby was born to Rev. and Mrs. Geo. A. Beecher Saturday night.

The annual election of officers of the Methodist Sunday-school will be held tomorrow evening.

T. C. Northey of Peckham precinct will auction off his personal property today and shortly leave for Oregon.

F. D. Wright, formerly of this city, has leased the Madison Chronicle and is conducting the paper on his own responsibility.

Claude Weingand will assume ownership of the Model Clothing House about March 8th. His stock of spring goods is now arriving.

Rev. W. J. Crusen of this city will begin revival services at Hershey next Sunday evening. He will be assisted by Rev. Derreberry.

The Brady Review says Fred Peckham cured a horse of the corn-stalk disease by drenching the animal with five quarts of hot water. This is a simple remedy.

The Nebraska Long Distance Telephone Co., which runs as far west as Lexington, is arranging to continue the line to this city and incidentally connect with Cozad, Gothenburg and Brady.

District Court Clerk Elder is very busy this week getting ready for March term of district court which convenes next Monday. The jury will be called Tuesday afternoon or Wednesday morning.

From a resident of Cottonwood precinct we learn that a petition is being circulated which asks the secretary of the interior to set aside the appraisement which was made of lands embraced in the McPherson reservation.

R. R. Hine was in Brady last week and offered to negotiate a loan of $15,000 to complete the South Side ditch if the farmers along the ditch would give land security for three times the sum of the loan. This the farmers refused to do.

Mrs. N. H. McCorkle has on exhibition at Warner's three pictures—two of oil and a pastel—that certainly reflect creditably upon her skill as an artist. Her work has been viewed by many and all have words of commendation.

THE TRIBUNE extends tardy, but sincere, congratulations to John Redmond, the ball player, who was married at Hanover, Kans., ten days ago, to a very pleasant young lady of that place. Mrs. Redmond will remain in Hanover until about the first of April.

While in Lexington last Thursday Game Warden Carter indulged in a live bird shooting contest with County Clerk Costin and won the match by killing twenty seven out of twenty-nine. The birds were good flyers and strong on the wing.

Prof. Worrell of the Ogalalla schools believes in conducting his work along practical lines. J. W. Welpton recently delivered an instructive address on banking before the high school, and it is the purpose to have other business men follow with practical talks on their line of work.

Buchanan & Patterson have about closed a deal for the sale of the Blake estate land and the McCaw land southwest of town to eastern parties for a consideration of $7,000 cash. There are something over 2,100 acres in the two tracts, 1,600 acres of which is grazing land. This is one of the largest cash land deals that has taken place in the county for a number of years. It is understood that the purchasers will improve the property.

Very little talk is heard relative to the approaching city election. There are a few rumors floating around, one of which is that the temperance people will put a ticket in the field but this cannot be verified.

A large audience attended the Francis E. Willard memorial services held at the Methodist church Sunday under the auspices of the local W. C. T. U. Addresses were delivered by Revs. Daly and Wimberly and Mrs. Ritner. A portrait of Francis E. Willard was presented to the high school by Mrs. Polis, president of the Union and accepted by J. C. Orr on behalf of the school.

Quarterly services will be held at the Methodist church next Sunday.

The fifteenth series of the Mutual Building and Loan Association will begin next month. The indications are that a large number of shares will be taken.

The boiler-makers are making extensive arrangements for their annual ball to be held March 31st, the evening following Easter Sunday.

Two members of the school board to succeed Sorenson and Rincker will be elected at the spring election. We are not informed whether these gentlemen will be candidates for re-election.

The congregation at the Methodist church Sunday evening was treated to two fine solos by W. A. Taylor, a traveling man of Lincoln, who sang "Unanswered Yet" and "Diamonds in the Rough."

The high-school auditorium was filled with an audience Friday evening which gathered to hear a program rendered by pupils of the high school. The subjects of the papers and readings were of a patriotic nature and were creditably rendered.
