Tom Hughes, who has been in the service of the Oregon Short Line, is home on a visit.
Walter Vroman came down from Cheyenne Saturday night and is visiting in town this week.
The Union Pacific caught only two of the special trains enroute to Los Angeles last Friday night.

Y. M. C. A. NOTES.
If it does not rain tomorrow the Y. M. C. A. base ball team will play a game with the Union Pacific. We expect a good game and a large number of people to see it.
Yesterday was the greatest Monday spent in Association work the present secretary has experienced since his taking hold of the work. Eighty-nine visits were made to the room, forty-one baths given, seventeen books loaned out, and the social room filled with young men all the evening enjoying the songs by the male quartet. Five men joined the association.
Rev. George A. Beecher addressed a fine body of men in the rooms last Sunday.

The most important lesson of the course will be taken up by the bible class next Thursday evening, to which all young men are cordially invited. Lesson begins at 8 o'clock.
At this writing the membership stands as follows: 290 railroad men and 195 town men. We want at least five new ones by tomorrow night then the coveted 400 will be reached. Who will bring one in?
Get ready for the musical romance to be given by the association at the K. P. hall May 24.

Being urged to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds, I found quick relief, and for last ten days have felt better than for two years."
