We don't urge you to buy expensive gifts. We have hosts of exquisite things that are all within the range of modest incomes—pins, rings, watches and pretty silver novelties by the score.

CLINTON, THE JEWELER.

The remains of Mrs. John Scheu, who died in Denver Tuesday from the result of an operation in a hospital, were brought here yesterday morning for interment. The deceased was formerly Miss Johanna McGraw, and for many years lived in this city.

Mrs. D. C. Congdon and Mrs. Thos. Hughes left for Juniata, Neb., Wednesday night in response to a message stating that Thos. Hughes Sr. had been stricken with paralysis. Mr. Hughes' entire right side is effected and at last accounts he was sinking rapidly. He is seventy-three years of age, and his recovery is therefore doubtful.

This week has been a little disappointing to Judge Baldwin who anticipated, in view of the near approach of Christmas, a strong demand for marriage licenses, but on the contrary business in that line has been extremely dull. Unless business picks up, the Judge will conclude that there are no marriageable young men in Lincoln county.

It won't cost you a fortune to get your Dental Work done at Dr. Morrill's.

R. D. Harris, register of the Sidney land office, spent part of yesterday in town visiting the family of E. A. Cary and transacting business. Mr. Harris says that during the visit of the Union Pacific officials at Sidney Wednesday they gave it out that the force at that place would be increased by the addition of seventy-five men, making a total force of 175. The officials authorized the erection of a new powerhouse and other improvements.

Furs and Skirts.

We have a great line of these goods and we are selling lots of them because the price and style sell them.

A lot of Silk and Wool Waists just arrived. They are just the proper things for Christmas presents.

Co. Supt. Neale has visited so far this fall about one-half of the schools in the county and reports them to be in excellent condition, although the attendance is light. In a number of districts the majority of the children are kept out of school to assist with farm work and in herding cattle, but this class of work will soon draw to a close and the attendance at school will then be greater.

MALE HELP—Men, our illustrated catalogue explains how we teach barber trade in short time, mailed free. Mo'ler College, Omaha, Neb.

It is probable that a union normal institute, continuing for five weeks, will be held in this city next summer. In this institute Perkins, Keith, Lincoln and perhaps Logan and McPherson counties would join and by so doing, the attendance would be sufficiently large to justify securing four or five teachers of ability. It is thought that a normal of this kind would be attended by two or three hundred teachers and prospective teachers. Arrangements would be made to have two lectures a week delivered by prominent lecturers.

THE LEADER

Buffalo Bill's Show Sails.

On the American liner St. Louis, which sailed on Wednesday, Dec. 3d, for Southampton, were 200 members of Buffalo Bill's Wild West Show, including all the cowboys and Indians. Great excitement prevailed before the sailing of the vessel and all were in excellent spirits in anticipation of the trip. A box of roses was received by Mr. Will Baker, wishing him "Bon Voyage." At ten o'clock a.m. the steamer left her dock, amid a great waving of handkerchiefs and to the strains of "Farewell, My Own True Love."

The show will make a long tour of Europe and will cover in five years the same territory visited by the Barnum & Bailey organization which returned recently. The remainder of the Wild West Show will follow later.

Our best wishes be with them and prayers for their safe return to those who love them. ANON.
