Death of Mrs. Whalen.

Mrs. Chas. T. Whalen died at her home on west Fourth street Sunday morning at 2:30 from Bright's disease, which developed a number of months ago. The disease reached an acute stage several weeks ago, and Mrs. Whalen was taken to a Denver hospital for treatment. It was found however, that the advanced stage of the disease precluded any hope of recovery, and after remaining there for two weeks she was brought home, and for the last ten days her condition had been such as to indicate dissolution at any time. The early part of the week brothers, sisters and other relatives living at a distance were summoned and remained continuously at the home, as did the resident relatives. Those present from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Will Jeffers, of Ogden, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cary, of Omaha, and Mrs. Maggie Fisher, Anthony Jeffers and Miss Celia Quirk, of Green River, Wyo. Though in a comatose condition the major part of the time for a week preceding death, she was conscious just before the end came and realizing that the spirit was soon to take flight, bade the assembled relatives good bye.

Mrs. Whalen, who had reached the age of thirty-nine years, came to North Platte with her parents in 1875, and had since been a continuous resident. In May, 1899, she was united in marriage to Mr. Whalen, and to this union a son, Kenneth, now aged six, was born.

The funeral will be held from St. Patrick's church tomorrow morning at 9:30. High mass will be said by the officiating priest.

Widely known by reason of her long residence, endeared to all friends by her kindness, sunshine and sociability, admired for her sincere devotion to husband and son and commended for her devout allegiance to her church, the passing away of Mrs. Whalen is mourned by friends and regretted by acquaintances. With the companionship of one whose aim was to live for her—to give her every possible pleasure—her life was sweet, the future bright; and yet in her last consciousness when she knew the summons had come, she accepted the will of her maker with resignation and in the night of death—to use the words of one eloquent—"hope saw a star and list'ning faith could hear the rustle of a wing." And thus she passed to the beyond, leaving to take up the broken thread of life as best he can one whose devotion was to her absolute and whose hope of her recovery—or at least of prolonged life—ended only when the spirit of his loved one took its flight.

Clyde Lake, of North Platte, was in this vicinity the latter part of last week. Seth Ogan and wife left last week for Elwood, where they will make their home.

Jim Henry went to Callaway Saturday and returned Sunday.

Mrs. A. J. Smith is dangerously ill at this writing with a complication of diseases. Dr. McLeay was out to see her every day last week, and on Friday held a consultation with Dr. Robinson of Arno.

Henry Harvey, Ike Smith, and A. L. Auble, were Maxwell visitors Tuesday. A crowd of young people and some older ones serenaded Mr. and Mrs. Fox. Mr. Miles, who has been on the Sant Bowman place the past year, moved Tuesday to the Gill farm.

Miss Helmcamp closed a term of school in Logan county last week.

Have Your Easter

Suits Tailored to Order in Chicago or New York.

We have just received a letter from President Vehon of The Royal Tailors, Chicago and New York, that you ought to read carefully before purchasing your Easter suit.

The President writes:—"What is it about a man that makes you instantly recognize whether or not he is well dressed?"

"I'll tell you. It's the 'cut' of his clothes. Only a clever tailor knows how to properly drape the figure. Such tailors are all in the large cities and if they do a small business, they are extremely high priced.

My head designers in New York and Chicago are two of the highest priced and cleverest men in the country and my business is so systematized that every garment tailored in my two establishments is cut under their personal supervision.

If I did a small business, I would have to charge $75 to $100 for my clothes; yet the cloth and the tailoring would be exactly the same as I now use in my $25 to $40 suits. I tailor a thousand suits to the small tailor's ten.

Of course the best tailoring in the world is useless if it is put into cloth adulterated with cotton. That's why I test with chemicals, every piece of cloth I use and why I can guarantee all of my 500 spring and summer patterns to be every thread pure Wool. Yes, my tailoring is guaranteed not to shrink, but to hold its good "cut" and style until worn out.

Now here's my proposition. I will agree to make and ship within six full working days the swiftest suit of clothes any customer of yours ever wore. Attached to this suit will be a Guarantee Card which says, "This suit is guaranteed to fit you perfectly; if you are not pleased in every respect, I ask you not to accept it, not to pay one cent."

That is the President's proposition to you and we stand back of it. Come in and let us show you the 500 All Pure Wool Royal Spring Patterns. We stand ready with tape line and willingness to show you.
