

NEWS OF THE CITY AND COUNTY.

Will McGrath returned to Omaha Tuesday after a visit with North Platte friends.

Tom Haley has resumed business after a siege of chicken pox, a disease that seems to be no respecter of person.

For Sale—Lot 6, block 13; under good cultivation; no filling required. Inquire at 403 South Willow.

Mr. and Mrs. Butler Buchanan, who went to Lexington to attend the Kearney presbytery, are now visiting relatives in Aurora, where they will remain for a week.

Don't be fooled. There is but one American Fence handled in North Platte, and that is handled by WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE.

The next term of district court for this county will convene June 1st. As the docket was cleared at the last term and few new cases are being filed, it is probable that the docket for the June term will be rather light.

At the meeting of the Kearney presbytery Tuesday the pastoral relation of Rev. George Williams with the church at Lexington was dissolved, and Rev. Williams will hold his initial service in North Platte the first Sunday in May.

Extra engineers, both east and west, are having rather slim picking, one remarking yesterday that his earnings are only fifty or sixty dollars per month. This, however, is the quiet season on the Union Pacific, and better things may be expected soon.

Lost about two weeks ago between Garman's barn and the Doolittle farm red plaid automobile cape. Phone D 75 or leave at this office.

Mr. McCoy, of Lewellen, one of the substantial citizens of the North Platte valley, transacted business in town yesterday. Mr. McCoy is a heavy land owner, and also owns the hotel at Lewellen, a hostelry that would be a credit to a much larger place.

The machine for the Keith theatre picture show arrived yesterday and the first show will be given Monday evening April 26th, and will be a benefit for the Lowell band. The machine is of the latest Edison pattern and is warranted to produce a very clear picture. R. V. Cox will have charge of the machine.

For Sale.

The Doolittle property on West 2nd St., 3 blocks from court house. Six room cottage, outbuildings, cement walks, electric light, city water, nice large shade trees and blue grass lawn. Price cut from $2500.00 to $2100.00.

BUCHANAN & PATTERSON.

A. E. Timmerman and R. C. Hennings, of this city, were registered at Omaha hotels Tuesday.

The funeral of the late James Chambers was held from the residence at eleven o'clock this forenoon.

For Sale—House and lot on West Sixth street, four blocks from Dewey. Also cottage on same street for rent. See O. E. Elder.

The soloists with the Hallowell orchestra are Buena Atkinson vocalist, Uhl Ward, harpist and T. W. Coates, clarinetist. Hear them at the Keith next Tuesday evening.

P. H. Sullivan, J. M. Rannie, T. M. Cobagen and Syl Friend have been elected delegate to the state grand lodge of the A. O. U. W. which meets in Lincoln in May.

Mrs. W. M. Cunningham entertained the bridge club Tuesday afternoon in favor of Mrs. James Ware, who left that night with her son Paxton for Blair, after a residence of ten years on the Pawnee ranch.

In making a note of the petition for the parole of Clarence McMurray The Tribune was a little slow, for he was granted the parole the early part of last week and is now at his home south of Brady.

We write insurance at the lowest possible rates for the strongest companies. Why not get the best? TEMPLE REAL ESTATE & INSURANCE 1 and 2 McDonald Block. AGENCY.

In the police court yesterday forenoon, Audley Heather was fined $5.00 and costs for disorderly conduct while drunk. In a me'e in which he figured he received two discolored eyes. H. E. Guyer was also up before his honor on the charge of drunkenness. Having no funds, he was discharged and told to hike to his home in the north hills.

An Atchison man is now in correspondence with local parties relative to opening a wholesale grocery house in this city, and it is probable that he will come here to investigate conditions. This gentleman is an experienced grocer, and for several years was buyer for one of Omaha's largest wholesale houses. With the completion of the North River branch to Northport quite an extensive field for a North Platte wholesale house will be opened.

Up Before The Bar.

N. H. Brown, an attorney, of Pittsfield, Vt., writes: "We have used Dr. King's New Life Pills for years and find them such a good family medicine we wouldn't be without them." For chills, constipation, biliousness or sick headache, they work wonders. 25c at Stone's Drug Store.

An attractive and sanitary soda fountain has been added to the equipment of the Vienna, and hereafter patrons of that food dispensary will have choice of a long list of drinks that do not intoxicate.

C. T. Whelan and son Kenneth returned Wednesday from Omaha. Evelyn Daily who accompanied them and had an operation for an abnormal growth in the left nostril, will remain in Omaha for a few days.

For Sale—My six room house on west Fourth street. Inquire at premises or see THOS ORTON.

The Cheyenne Tribune says: Operating officials of the Wyoming division are expecting a couple of new type of engines shortly, of the articulated pattern, with seventy-one foot boilers and two sets of engines, capable of drawing twenty-five hundred tons of freight, the present maximum limit being eighteen hundred tons. The new locomotives will be served by two firemen.

Seed Speltz For Sale at 50c per bushel. Inquire of Bratt & Goodman.

Discount Sale.

Backward spring weather and an overstock of goods is responsible for a twenty per cent discount sale that will be inaugurated at The Leader beginning Monday. This opportunity to purchase reasonable goods will no doubt be readily taken advantage of by those who desire reliable merchandise at one-fifth less than regular selling prices. Full particulars of the sale will be found on the eighth page of this paper.

Thirty five ladies were present Tuesday afternoon at the celebration of Grandma Casey's eighty-eighth birthday, and the latter was delighted with this expression of kindness. She received a number of letters of congratulation, and was the recipient of several handsome bouquets. Enjoyable refreshments were served, among which was a cake with eighty-eight candles.

Do You Want to Make Money?

The only way you can get the most profit out of raising hogs is to fence your farm and let them gather up the waste for you. In fencing the only way to spend your money is to buy the best—that is American. Eighty per cent of all the woven fence made and sold in the United States is American, that should prove the quality. A SWELL SMOKE is what you will find the Forest King cigar every time. If you had a good dinner top it off with a Forest King. If you have had a poor meal you'll forget all your disappointment if you smoke a Forest King after it. Think that's a big claim for a cigar? Well, make the experiment and you'll say we are right. The Forest King only costs five cents anyway.
