

Our Great Semi-Annual Sale

Copyright 1909
The House of Kuppenheimer
Chicago

Is now in full blast, but it means more than the ordinary sale this January since a dissolution of partnership will take place February 1st, 1910. We are going to make a strenuous effort to cut down our immense stock and convert our winter goods into cash in order to make a proper settlement between us. Buyers will reap a rich harvest during this great sale.

Nothing Reserved Everything Goes.

This is an extraordinary bargain opportunity for you. The cost of raw material and manufactured products is steadily advancing and we are offering you High-Grade Dependable Goods at prices that will be hard for us to duplicate at wholesale prices for our next winter line. There is many a dollar here you can make without working for it. "Wise heads" that know are taking quick advantage of these prices. Get in line with the "wise heads," and secure your share of the benefit now.

Prices reduced from 20 percent to 50 percent.

No room to quote prices here. Come to our store and see the big reductions.

Weingand & McDonald.

NORTH PLATTE, NEB.

DR. O. H. CRESSLER,
Graduate Dentist.
Office over the McDonald
State Bank.

The Oriole Concert Co. appeared before a large audience at the Keith Wednesday evening and rendered a pleasing program. The reader and the cornetist were especially good.

Call and see what Miss Beyerle offers in pyrography. New line just received. Room 3, over Schiller's drug store.

H. L. Baker, of Omaha, spent the early part of the week visiting his son Dick and inquiring into the business conditions of the C. F. Iddings Co., in which he is interested financially.

Chas. McDonald arrived in Lincoln county fifty years ago this month, and has resided in the county continuously since. In point of residence he is undoubtedly Lincoln county's oldest inhabitant.

500 men's and boys' suits and overcoats at one-fifth less than regular price. Every garment up to date. Come quick before sizes are broken.

THE HUB CLOTHING DEPT.

Members of the Harmony high five club were entertained Tuesday evening at the Clinton home and the gathering proved a most pleasant one. The successful prize winners were Mrs. Henry Waltemath and G. S. Huffman, and the consolation emblems were awarded to Mrs. Julius Pizer and Fred Waltemath. Enjoyable refreshments were served.

Woman of middle age wants work, house work or laundry. Address P. O. Box 173. North Platte.

"The Little Johnny Jones" company came in from the west this morning and will appear at the Keith this evening.

Wanted—Carpenter work in the country. Apply at this office.

The Tribune said last week that Dr. Twinem had found a case of scarlet fever at the Hershey hotel, but in a letter to this office the landlord denies that there has been any sickness at the hotel.

Wanted—A copy of The Tribune, or cutting therefrom giving an account of the fire that swept the west part of town, April 7th, 1893, when 16 houses burned.

A. R. Adamson,
Box 581, City.

Co. Supt. Ebricht is in Lincoln attending the state convention of county school superintendents. He will remain in Lincoln part of next week in order to attend the state corn show at which Lincoln county has exhibits. He will therefore not be in his office Saturday.

Ladies' Tailored suits at one-third less the regular price at The Hub's Big Sale.

Geo. L. Carter, formerly a North Platte merchant, later state game warden and now traveling for the Peters Cartridge Co., spent a couple of days in town this week visiting friends and transacting business. Last year Mr. Carter's firm shipped into Nebraska six carloads of shells, evidence that the Peters products are popular with hunters and trap shooters.

SCHILLER & CO.,
Prescription Druggists

First Door North of First National Bank

Commissioners Take Recess.

The county commissioners, who had been in session for several days, took a recess Tuesday until January 24th. Owing to the illness of his deputy in the postoffice, Commissioner Springer could not attend the sessions of the board, hence the recess.

Harold Hershey Married.

Cards received in town Tuesday announced the marriage of Harold Hershey to Miss Edna Lucile Snapp, of Kansas City, the ceremony occurring at the bride's home December 31st. Harold is employed in a bank in Olathe, Kan., which will be the future home of the couple.

Announcement.

Having just opened a job printing establishment in the Hinman Block, Dewey St. We respectfully solicit a share of your patronage. Our machinery and material are absolutely new and up-to-date and workmanship guaranteed. Phone 84. Very Respectfully,
RASMUSSEN PRINTING CO.

Complaint for Assault.

T. O. Anderson, of Spannuth, was in town Tuesday and filed a complaint for assault against Bert Newman, also of Spannuth. Anderson was attending a C. E. meeting one evening about January 1st, and was called out of the room by Newman, who proceeded to strike him, causing bodily injuries.

Holds annual Meeting.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the First National Bank was held at the bank Tuesday afternoon. The former board of directors with the exception of C. F. McGrew, of Omaha, was re-elected, M. Keith Neville being elected to succeed Mr. McGrew. Mr. Neville also succeeded Mr. McGrew as vice-president. The officers are Arthur McNamara president, E. F. Seeberger and M. Keith Neville vice-presidents and F. L. Mooney cashier.

Horse Buyers Coming.

W. A. McGuire & Co., horse and mule buyers for the eastern markets, will be in North Platte Saturday, Jan. 15th, from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. at the Besack barn. They will buy horses and mules that are fat and weigh from 900 to 2000 pounds, and from 3 years past to 20 years. Bring in your horses and mules and get the highest market price. They come to buy and not to visit. Remember the date, January 15th.

COMMISSIONERS' PROCEEDINGS.
January 10, 1910.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, present Walter and Streitz commissioners and county clerk.

Bond of G. A. Schrecongost, justice of the peace, Well precinct, not approved for reason that bond was filed too late.

Petitioners and remonstrators appearing in behalf of road No. 319½, the board being of the opinion that it is necessary to view the proposed road in order to determine parts of the road being practical, we therefore set March 2, 1910, as the day to view said road; that part of road to be viewed is found in section 26-10-27, sections 12 and 13-9-27 and sections 17 and 18-9-26. Board appoints Wm A. Holderness constable for Plant precinct, and bond of Wm A. Holderness is approved.

Ray C. Langford: You are hereby authorized to cancel tax against Eli Walker in Medicine precinct on account of double assessment for 1909, same property having been assessed in Buchanan precinct.

Claim of Lyle Harden for $106.00 as witness in case of State vs Wallingford, disallowed for $20 and allowed for $86.

Bond of McDonald State Bank as depository for county funds approved.

Board adjourned until tomorrow.

January 11, 1910.

Board met pursuant to adjournment, present Springer, Walter and Streitz, county commissioners and county clerk. Board continued checking county treasurer's books.

Board proceeded to and did select names for the March term of district court.

The North Platte Tribune and North Platte Telegraph are hereby designated as the official papers of the county for the year 1910, to receive one-third of the legal rate.

The board takes a recess until January 24th, 1910.

For Sale.

Five Jacks, from two to seven years old, and from 14½ to 16 hands high. Will price them low, quality considered. Inquire of or address, R. L. Douglas, 207 E. 11th St., North Platte, Neb.

Ladies', misses' and children's coats and jackets at 30 per cent less than the regular price at The Hub's Big Sale.

Trade on the North Side.

Announcement

Store Open Evenings.

TO THE PUBLIC.

The North Side Dry Goods in the Lamb building is open for business with a full line of dry goods, clothing, ladies' and gents' furnishings, shoes, etc. Nothing but the very best merchandise will be handled here. We respectfully solicit the trade at large, especially all those who reside on the north side, to come and patronize this store. We aim to carry a full and complete line in your wants in wearing apparel, which will be very handy for yourself and in case you wish to send your children it will not be necessary for them to incur the dangers of crossing the railroad tracks.

We respectfully call your attention to our shoe department. We will carry the most select line for men, women and children. The manager has had a life long experience in the shoe business and will take particular pains to fit the feet as nature intended. As for prices we can outsell the south side, as our expenses are small and our aim is to build up our business with the motto "Live and Let Live." Boost the North Side. We invite you to come and see the new store now open for business, whether you buy or not.

Yours for courtesy and good treatment,

H. G. FLEISHMAN, Manager.

THE First National Bank, of North Platte, Nebraska.

UNITED STATES DEPOSITORY.

Capital and Surplus $130,000.

ARTHUR McNAMARA, President,

E. F. SEEBERGER, Vice-President,

M. KEITH NEVILLE, Vice-President,

F. L. MOONEY, Cashier.