

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, FEBRUARY 18, 1910.

NO 8.

SPECIAL SALE OF EMBROIDERIES

FOUR DAYS ONLY

Saturday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday,

February 19th, 21st, 22d and 23d, 1910.

On the above dates we will give you an opportunity to buy your trimmings for spring at prices that are lower than you ever saw offered before. We have divided these into three lots.

Lot 1 consisting of over two thousand yards of Cambric Embroideries running from 2 inches to 17 inches in width, Insertions from 1 1-2 to 4 inches in width, values from 10c to 25c per yard, all at one price, your choice

9½c a yard.

Lot 2 consists of one hundred yards of Corset Cover Embroideries, regular 25c value, your choice

17½c a Yard

One hundred yards of Cross-bar Corset Cover Embroideries, values 35 and 50c per yard, your choice

29c a Yard

See sample pieces in our show window.

Sale Begins Promptly at 9:30 a. m. Saturday, Feb. 19th

WILCOX DEPARTMENT STORE.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

All the new effects in Ladies' Spring Jackets and Capes are shown at The Leader.

Otto Thoelecke returned yesterday from Denver, where he spent several days looking after business connected with the ranch he recently purchased near that city.

Clinton and Harry York have leased the Stryker farm southeast of town and will remove thereto about the first of March. The boys will farm extensively and also put up the alfalfa and prairie hay on the place.

The Masonic fraternity and their families will hold a social reunion at the temple next Tuesday evening, at which a picnic supper will be served. This is in celebration of Washington's birthday and also the third anniversary of the dedication of the temple.

For Sale—Furniture of a modern up-to-date boarding house, good business, fine location. Inquire of Mrs. Willis Walker, 321 east 6th street.

H. B. Fleharty, at one time resident of this city, announces that he is a candidate for the democratic nomination for congressman in the Omaha district. For a number of years Mr. Fleharty has been practicing law in South Omaha.

Sam Richards has been in town for several days assisting Sol Hodess arrange his closing out sale. Mr. Hodess has been forced to retire from business on account of not being able to secure a room in which to move his stock, his lease on his present quarters having expired.

S. J. Falk and Oscar Nystrom, of Hershey, were in town yesterday enroute to Omaha.

Verne Langford, who is stationed at Laramie as timekeeper, has been visiting home folks for a day or two past.

Spring Shirt Waists are now on sale at The Leader.

The temperature dropped down to seven below zero Wednesday morning, thus proving the forecasted cold wave made by the weather bureau.

A. F. Beeler and W. L. Brownfield of Hershey, were in town Tuesday, coming here to attend the funeral of the late D. A. DeFord.

The new novelties in spring washable Dress Goods are shown at The Leader.

Judge H. M. Grimes and Mrs. Grimes, who were called to Indiana by the death of a relative, are expected home some time next week.

Engineer Andy Liddell returned Wednesday from Grand Island, where he attended the re-investigation of the recent wreck in which he was involved. The result of this second investigation has not yet been announced.

The announcement in The Tribune that Mrs. A. B. Hoagland had gone to St. Louis, was somewhat of a surprise to that lady. The news gathered sometimes gets his trolleys crossed.

The funeral of the late D. A. DeFord, held at the Presbyterian church Tuesday afternoon was largely attended by sympathizing friends. Rev. Williams conducted the services, and an uncle of the deceased, who is a Free Methodist minister, paid a worthy tribute to the sterling integrity of the deceased.

The Episcopal guild will hold an exchange at the electric light office tomorrow.

Ladies' Spring Tailored Suits are shown at The Leader.

A trip to "The Land of Nod," with Knox Wilson as the principal funmaker, a stage full of exceedingly clever people, surrounded by elaborate scenic and electrical effects, two score of unusually pretty girls and to the tune of those jingling, haunting melodies, is what the Keith Theatre will offer next Tuesday afternoon and night when Samuel E. Rork brings his big musical extravaganza, "The Land of Nod," here. Aside from Knox Wilson, two other prominent members of the cast are Neil McNeil and Anna McNabb.

Presbyterian Shower.

Of all new pleasures under the sun, Since ever the cycle of time begun, A chance to do good and have some fun. Is surely at a Church Shower.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid—(Of nothing on earth are they afraid.) This delightfully happy plan have made.

Of holding a Church Shower. So many things we need, you see, That quite a heavy expense would be. So we'll give you a chance to help a wee.

By coming to our Church Shower Then come with your presents large or small. Tea and welcome await you all; Or give us your number we'll gladly call.

For the good of our Church Shower, February 22nd, 3 o'clock p. m. I will sell at public sale on my farm two miles south and four miles east of Hershey (12-13-32) all of my horses, cattle, farm implements, household furniture, etc., beginning at 10 a. m. March 3d. SILAS CLARK.

R. T. Stevens has sold to Mr. Goldberry, late of Cass county, a new house he is completing in the South Park addition. Mr. Goldberry recently purchased the Gus Meyer place southwest of town.

O. A. Nystrom, son of Dr. J. O. Nystrom, who is living on the latter's farm near Hershey, left yesterday for Plattsmouth where he will wed Miss Anna Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. August Johnson. Following the ceremony they will make a trip through the west and then make their home at Hershey.

James Howard Dead.

A telegram received from Nevada yesterday announced the death of James Howard, at one time an engineer of this city. Mr. Howard came to North Platte in 1888 and began firing an engine, and two years later was promoted to engineer. He filled the latter position about ten years and then went to Carson City, Nev., and later purchased a fruit farm, upon which he was living at the time of his death. Mr. Howard retained his membership in the local division of Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers and also in the local Masonic Lodge.

McDONALD STATE BANK.

Doubles Its Paid Up Capital Stock. Notice is hereby given that on January 11th, 1910, the McDonald State Bank of North Platte, Nebraska, by a vote of all of the shares of stock cast at its regular annual meeting, increased its paid-up Capital Stock from $50,000.00 to the full $100,000.00 authorized by its Articles of Incorporation. By CHAS. McDONALD, President. Attest: W. H. McDONALD, Cashier.

Federal Court Jurors.

Deputy Clerk Prosser, of the North Platte federal court, drew the jury for the term which opens Monday, February 28th, yesterday. The names and residences of the jurors are as follows:

- W. C. Patterson, North Platte.
- Patrick J. Swan, Harrisburg
- Edward D. Harrison, Ogalalla
- William C. Plummer, Oshkosh
- Hugh Linn, Ogalalla
- A. P. VanWinkle, Kimball
- Frank Coker, Sutherland
- William G. Hicks, Farnam
- Robert J. Parish, Cozad
- Charles M. Fisher, Gandy
- W. S. Rodman, Sidney
- Walter E. Fuller, Harrisburg
- William Steinbrenk, Paxton
- E. D. Murphy, Brady
- Thomas G. Burke, Bridgeport
- Claude O. Weingand, North Platte
- W. J. Harris, Ogalalla
- Hirman W. Maxwell, Oshkosh
- John Melvich, Lewellen
- J. H. Adams, Maxwell
- Paul R. Borquist, Sidney
- John Roberson, Oshkosh
- Ora E. Huffman, Lena
- D. Eichelberger, Ogalalla
- Luther E. Prickett, Overton
- Henry Kossabaum, Lexington
- Chas. F. Dillon, Wallace
- J. M. Alexander, Gothenburg
- Henry S. Williams, Gothenburg
- Julius Hahler, North Platte
- W. M. Baskin, Gandy
- L. H. Babb, Dalton
- Wm. T. Tate, Lodge Pole
- Fred J. Diener, North Platte
- Chas. Raymond, Scotts Bluff

Miller-Rector Wedding.

George H. Miller, of Garfield, and Miss Dellena C. Rector, of this city, were united in marriage Wednesday evening at the home of the bride's parents on west Eighth street, Rev. R. B. Favoright performing the ceremony in the presence of relatives and near friends. Miss Nina Rector was maid, and Will Hounshell best man. Following the ceremony a wedding was served, and the couple left on a night train for Des Moines where they will reside, the groom intending to practice in that city as a chiropractic physician.

The bride is well known in the city and county, having made her home here since infancy, and for several years has been a successful teacher in the rural schools. The attachment which resulted in the union was formed while the bride was employed as a teacher in the north part of the county.

Mrs. Miller is a bright, pleasant young woman possessing many admirable traits. The groom is a son of ex-sheriff Jake Miller, of Garfield, and is a young man who enjoys the esteem and confidence of all acquaintances.

To Mr. and Mrs. Miller The Tribune extends congratulations.

If You Have Idle Money

and want it safely invested so as to net you 8 per cent semi-annual interest in good first mortgage loans based on 40 per cent values. See Bratt & Goodman.

Local Debate.

On Tuesday afternoon, a debate was held in the High School auditorium. The question debated was "Resolved, That Labor Unions are on the whole Beneficial." The affirmative was represented by Victor Halligan, Alice Fitzpatrick, Helen Chamberlain and Oak Ebright. The negative speakers were Ernest Casey, Bessie Smith, Ralph Alden and Elsie Johnson. The judges were Dr. Quigley, W. T. Wilcox and Supt. Snyder. The decision was unanimously in favor of the affirmative. Elsie Johnson was then chosen as representative for the high school in the Central Nebraska debate to be held at Hastings in the spring. Victor Halligan, Ernest Casey and Helen Chamberlain were selected as the team to debate with Kearney.

For Sale.

Some good houses and vacant lots at much below their value. See us before you buy. We can save you money. BRATT & GOODMAN.

Fitzgerald vs. Gilsey.

Jack Fitzgerald, of Omaha, and Kid Gilsey, of Denver, will meet in the boxing ring at the opera house next Monday evening. As this promises to be a fast exhibition of the manly art, the number of spectators promises to be large. Manager Kubik has other contests in view if the public show an inclination to liberally patronize this class of sport.

Dr. A. J. Kyle, M. D. C.

Veterinarian, Physician, Surgeon, Dentist, of Cozad, Nebraska, Graduate of Chicago Veterinary College, registered under The Nebraska State Board of Veterinary Medicine, will be in North Platte on Feb. 22d and 23d at Palaco Barn. Those who desire his services call on the above date.

Road and Shop Notes.

The wrecking crew was called to Brady Wednesday night to right an engine that had broken a pony truck wheel.

Union Pacific watchmen are on the lookout for some fellow who stole a $150 fur coat from train No. 14 at Grand Island Wednesday.

The Union Pacific has contracted with the electric light company for two arc lights at the coal chutes and about twenty incandescent lights in the interior of the chutes.

A requisition has been made for a motor to run the forced draft at the Union Pacific boiler plant, and another motor will be asked for with which to operate the turn table.

All outgoing and incoming mail is now weighed at the baggage room, and the weighing will continue for a period of ninety days. It was intended that a clerk be sent here as weighmaster, but he has so far failed to arrive.

The Omaha Bee says Edward Bignell, formerly superintendent of the Lincoln division of the Burlington, has been made general superintendent of the Nebraska district of that road. Mr. Bignell is father of Mrs. C. E. Matson of this city.

A full tonnage freight train was run from Denver to Lincoln over the Burlington in twenty hours flat, which Lincoln newspapers pronounce a very fast run. The Lincoln newspapers should examine the train sheets on the Union Pacific and get an idea of the expeditious movement of freight.

Sand for Sale.

Have opened a sand pit on the Cody ranch. This sand is full of grit and gravel. Anyone wanting sand for building or sidewalk purposes phone F. H. Garlow at Cody ranch. Price 75 cents per yard delivered, or 15 cents per load at pit.

Walker Precinct and Vicinity.

Bert Hurley had a sale Thursday and cows sold as high as $59. Horses sold reasonable.

Oscar Gewecke delivered corn Friday to Wm. Peterson.

Ralph Mitchell and B. T. Teel have finished corn husking.

W. A. Wallingford who lived in Wilber the past year moved back on his farm near Farnam last week.

James Turner is visiting at home this week.

Roy Gregory whose leg was broken a few days ago, is improving rapidly.

A basket supper will be held at the Austin school house Feb. 25th. Everybody invited.

Lafayette Calvert was a visitor in this vicinity last week.

Dick Craig is storing up ice for summer use. He is hauling it from Brady.

J. L. Rector, of Orange, Cal., is visiting old time friends this week.

E. W. Crossgrove attended the short horn sale at Holdrede last week.

M. V. Griffin and son, of Cozad, visited relatives the fore part of the week.

Mrs. J. Peterson, who has been visiting relatives in this vicinity for the past week, returned to her home in Gothenburg Monday.

Rev. Payne will speak in Reynolds' school house this week.

W. P. Austin of Farnam spent Sunday at the home of Henry Craig.

Notice for Bids.

The Board of Education will receive sealed bids until 6 p. m. March 7, 1910, for any part or all of the Third ward frame school buildings and foundation stone. Possession given when vacated. The right to reject any and all bids is reserved.

A. F. STREITZ, Secy.

Sale at E. W. Ranch.

The Lincoln Development Co. will have a sale of personal property at the E. W. ranch Wednesday, February 23. Among the property to be sold are fifteen head of horses of various ages, and a large amount of farm machinery. The sale will commence at one o'clock sharp.

Notice to Patrons of The Farmer Line of the Tri-County Telephone Co.

On and after March 1st, 1910, all parties owning phones on said line will be held responsible for all messages sent over these lines by outside parties from their phones. Rate is 25 cents for each message. All bills must be paid in full monthly.

BEHIND A FINE PAIR OF HORSES

should be hitched a stylish looking carriage. At this repository you can see a variety of vehicles whose style is undeniable. They range from the phaeton to the family coach and are the equal of any in appearance and build. They are less than equal in price to most carriages of their character.

A. M. Lock.

