Frank Coker and a force of men have just completed a big job of fencing north of the river. The 21,000 acres of the Baughman land, also several other sections were fenced, making the pasture contain nearly 30,000 acres of good range. Over three thousand head of cattle and numerous horses will be ranged there for a time.—Sutherland Free Lance.

Did you get one of our hand bags last week at half price? If you did not we are sorry, but this week we are offering you an equally good proposition on Fountain Pens. See them in our show windows.

DIXON, THE JEWELER.

While running at full speed east of Alda Wednesday, Engineer Austin's watch fell from his pocket to the track below, but later it was found by the section foreman with no damage other than one of the cases being torn off. It is the watch presented George by the company for his heroism at Butter-milk hill, and is therefore highly prized.

The assessed value of cattle in Lincoln county is thirty-five cents per head higher this year than last, which is a little less than the average increase in the counties of the state. In some counties an increase of $1.00 per head was made. The average value in Lincoln county is $3.64 per head, in Logan county it is $3.73 and in Dawson the average is $4.72.

14k Solid gold fountain pens at manufacturer's prices. These are real live bargains. When they are gone we can not offer more at these prices. $1.25, 1.50, 2.00, 2.50 see them in our show windows.

DIXON, The Jeweler.

A North Side stockman went to South Omaha the early part of the week and purchased two carloads of young steers which he will place on his ranch. Shipping cattle into a cattle growing country seems like carrying coal to Newcastle, but cattle prices in South Omaha ranged very low the early part of the week, and this purchaser thought he saw money in buying.
