Warner-Crosby Wedding.

At the Presbyterian church in Sutherland Wednesday evening occurred the wedding of Mr. Eben D. Warner, of this city to Miss Mary Belle Crosby, an event in which North Platte people entertained so little interest, both young people being well and favorably known here.

Promptly at six o'clock to the Mendocino wedding march played by Mrs. George White, twelve young ladies entered the church, scattering flowers and bearing ribbons which formed an aisle for the bridal party. They were the Misses Little White, Cora and Flora Fitzgerald, Nell Latta, Eva Cox, Lillian Cornshaw, Blanche Rollings, Gerse Fox, Anna Weston, Alta Bottum, Gianna Stoup and Mrs. Warren Kelly. Daintily gowned in white and wearing wreaths of pink flowers they formed a very pretty effect, standing on each side of the aisle. Next came the groom attended by his brother Lewis Warner, of Lexington, both in full evening dress suit, followed by the maid of honor Miss Anita Hunter who wore cream silk and carried pink roses. Last came the bride on the arm of her father. She wore a beautiful gown of white mull with veil and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses. At the chancel they were met by the groom and advancing to the foot of the altar stood in an arch of pink and white streamers from which suspended a wedding bell of pink and white roses and evergreen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. George F. Williams, pastor of the Presbyterian church of this city, assisted by Rev. Rogers of the Presbyterian church of Sutherland. Over one hundred guests were present and witnessed the very pretty and impressive ceremony. The church was decorated in pink and white. Elmer and Maynard E. Crosby, brothers of the bride, acted as ushers. Immediately after the ceremony, a reception was held at the Crosby residence, the color scheme of the church was further carried out in the rooms by the use of pink and white streamers and cut flowers, giving the rooms a very charming effect. At the reception sixty-five guests were present, those present being relatives and the more intimate friends.

The gifts received were as beautiful as they were numerous, including cut glass, silver, china and linen, making a grand display and attesting the esteem in which the bride and groom are held both here and in Sutherland.

The young couple left on No. 4 for New York, Washington and other eastern cities expecting to be absent four or five weeks. Upon their return they will make their home in this city.

Out of town guests were Mrs. Julia Crosby and George Crosby, grandmother and uncle of the bride from Cherry Valley, Ill., W. C. Blackmore, of Pomona, Cal., Mrs. Warner, Lewis and Willard Warner, mother and brothers of the groom, from Lexington, Miss Laura Rhodes, of Kimball, Ira St. Clair, of Ogallala, Mr. Coy, of Paxton, and Mr. and Mrs. Chas. F. Temple, Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Crosby, Prof. E. A. Garlich, Mrs. Warren Kelly and Miss Laura White, of this city.

The bride is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Crosby, who have been residents of Sutherland for a long period of years, a young lady of charming personality and pleasant disposition; an active worker in church circles, she has long been a favorite by all at that place.

A manager of the North Platte Telephone company for the past four years, Mr. Warner needs no introduction to our readers. Both in business and socially he has won the friendship and esteem with all whom he met. Uniting with a host of friends The Tribune extends their congratulations to the young couple.

YOUR LAST CHANCE.

Maurice Fowler has consented to leave his place on the market for only a few days longer and made the give-away price of $4,600.00 in order to sell quick. Do you realize what a bargain this is? A lot that will bring at the present time without a building on it $3,000.00 and at a low estimate will be worth $5,000.00 inside of five years. A house worth $2,500 and a barn that with about $100 repairs is worth $500. A place worth fully $6,000.00 at the present time. You can figure the future on it.

Let us show you this place at once.

Insurance Gambling.

The Britisher's favorite gambling is insurance gambling. He will take out a policy against anything, from the death of the king to the loss of a horse race by a thoroughbred. Marine insurance gambling by those who have no direct interest in the safety of a ship or its cargo grew into such abuses that parliament was compelled to pass a drastic act to prevent such gambling on marine accidents and losses by those not otherwise concerned.

Social Sights.

"Mrs. Jangle says she can remember when that fashionable Cumrox family didn't know where the next meal was coming from."

"Well," replied Miss Cayenne, "it's evident she didn't invite them to dine with her then, so there's no reason why they should invite her now."—Washington Star.

Audible Sleep.

"Is Mrs. Schnorer in?" asked the caller.
"Yes, ma'am," answered the maid of all work in the boarding house. "She's at present in her room."
"Are you sure?"
"Yes, ma'am. I just overheard her tucking a nap."

"I vehemently called the man who had brought the charges a liar."—Chicago Record-Herald.

The Holland Primrose.

There is a plant in Holland known as the evening primrose, which grows to a height of five or six feet and bears a profusion of large yellow flowers so brilliant that they attract immediate attention, even at a great distance, but the chief peculiarity about the plant is the fact that the flowers, which open just before sunset, burst into bloom so suddenly that they give one the impression of some magical agency. A man who has seen this sudden blooming says it is just as if some one had touched the land with a wand and thus covered it all at once with a golden sheet.

A Reflection on the Horse.

"My husband," bragged Mrs. Jones, "was a famous long distance runner in his day. He once outran a horse in a twenty mile race."

"Isn't that funny?" answered Mrs. Smith. "We once had a horse like that."

Now Jones and Smith wonder why their wives don't speak.—Buffalo Express.

Gossard Corsets
Now $350

You need no longer consider Gossard grace and symmetry as an unattainable luxury—you can hereafter afford it for yourself.

The $3.50 Gossard illustrated above is made to excel every other corset at anything near the price—in style, workmanship and quality. It embodies all the important essentials of Gossard construction—the graceful Gossard lines—the popular front-lace feature—the celebrated non-rustable Electrobone—the dainty Gossard workmanship—all of which have only been obtainable heretofore at prices ranging from $5.00 to $25.00

THE GOSSARD CORSETS
They Lace in Front

—give the true line of beauty to the figure, following the perfect curve of the back—permit a suppleness entirely lacking in back-laced corsets properly support the spine and abdomen—insure perfect and permanent ease—secure the correct new figure by suppressing superfluous fullness—contribute wonderfully to the elegance of the new gown—and are far easier to put on and take off than the back-laced corsets.

Gossard Corsets have revolutionized erroneous methods of corseting. As a result, better health, correct posture of body, and more solid comfort have come to the women who wear them.
