

The North Platte Semi-Weekly Tribune.

TWENTY-SIXTH YEAR.

NORTH PLATTE, NEBRASKA, FEBRUARY 14, 1911.

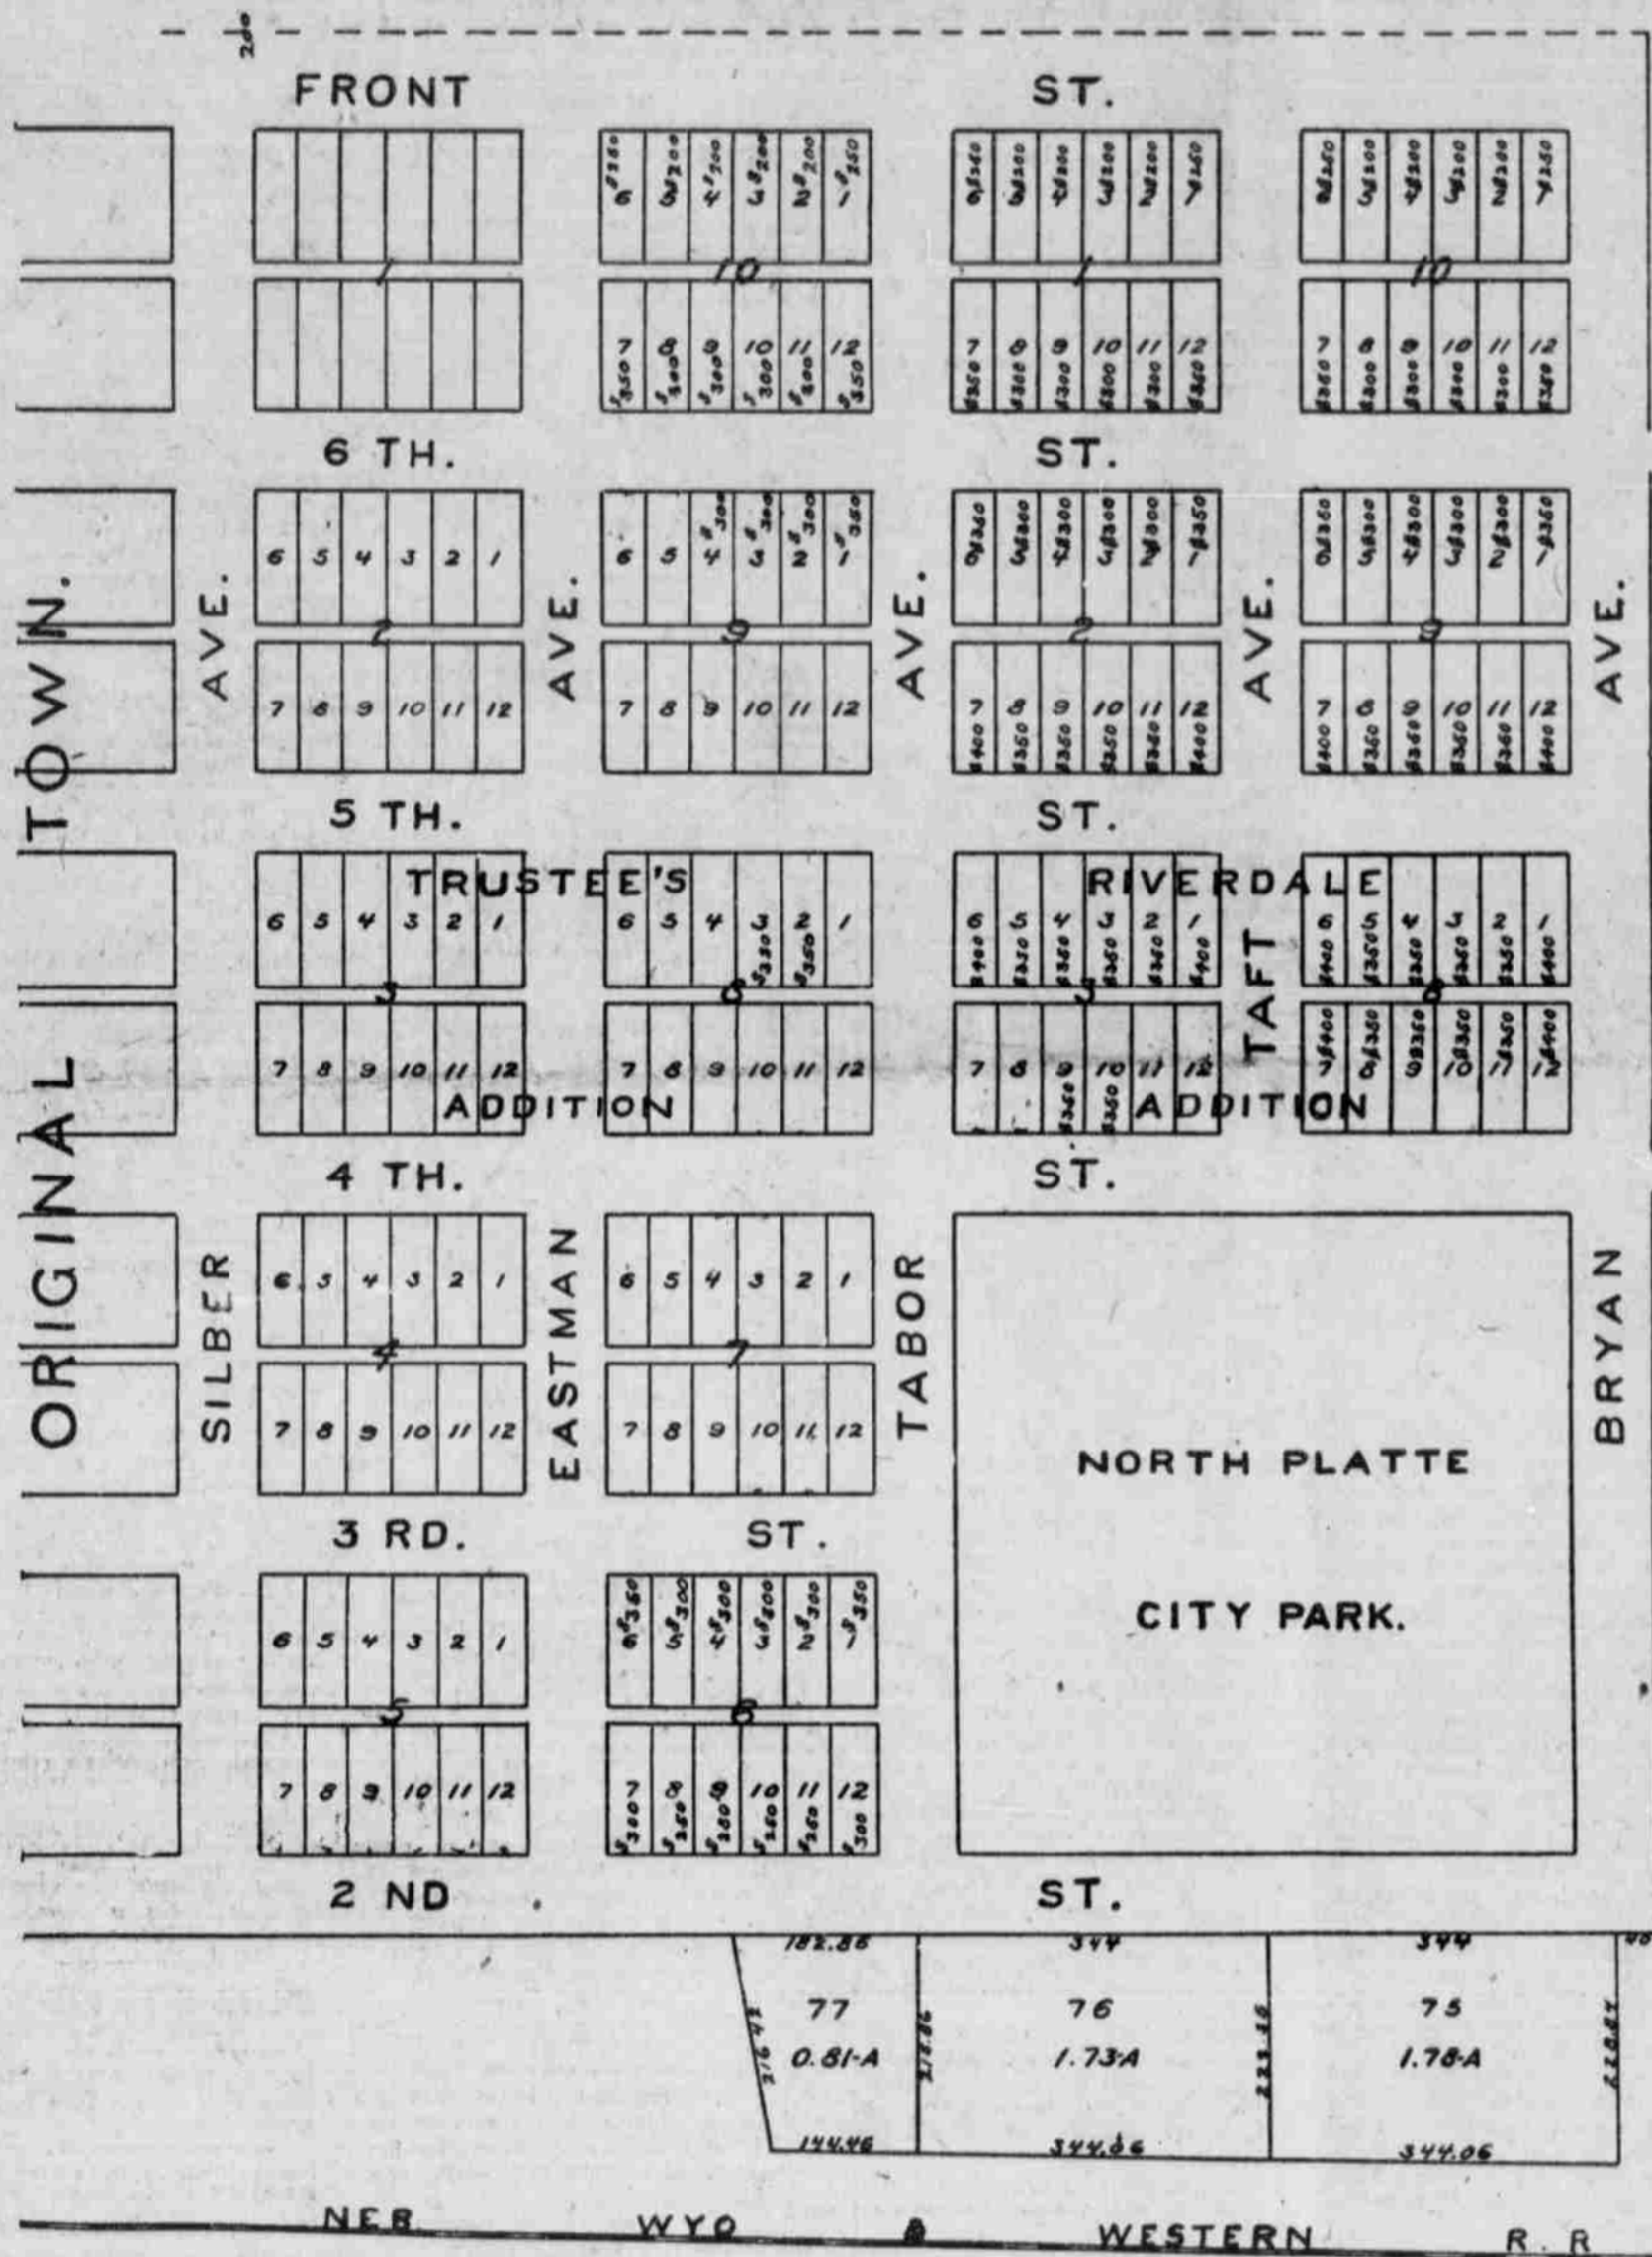

NO 7

98 Residence Lots For Sale 98

IN

TRUSTEES AND RIVERDALE ADDITIONS.

UNION PACIFIC R. R.

All above lots which have prices marked thereon are for sale at said prices; all other lots have been sold. Each lot is improved with cement sidewalks and crossings five feet wide, sewer, city water and graded streets. A five per cent discount is given for cash or the lots will be sold upon the installment plan of one-tenth of the purchase price down and one-tenth every three months.

FOR SALE BY

WM. E. SHUMAN.

TOWN AND COUNTY NEWS

Mrs. Albert Muldon will entertain the Harmony Club Friday evening.

The ladies of the Methodist aid society will meet with Mrs. Henderson on west Fourth street Thursday afternoon.

Rev. Herbert Covell will return to New York City tomorrow after a two weeks' visit with his parents, north of the river.

District Manager Wilson, of the Nebraska Telephone Co., came up from Grand Island yesterday and is inspecting the local exchange today.

Merrill Fristo was in town yesterday visiting his brother Clyde. He now holds a clerical position in the Burlington railroad office at Hastings.

The village of Brady has received a fire pump which will get its water supply from drive wells located at intervals of half a block. The first test of the pump was pronounced satisfactory.

New Wool Dress Goods at Wilcox Department Store.

Charley Pass says if any one doubts that North Platte is not in the banana belt they are invited to his residence and see the orange tree in bloom. The tree has a profusion of blossoms.

Derryberry & Forbes, generally distributors for the big four manufacturers of agricultural implements, have up to date received seven cars of implements and will receive eight or ten more cars.

Fire last Wednesday destroyed the dwelling on the George place east of Brady. It was occupied by Wm. Jensen, but the family were away at the time, and all the contents of the house were burned.

On account of prevalence of infectious diseases the Third ward school was closed Friday for an indefinite period. The Second ward school, which has been closed for two weeks, will not open for another week.

New Spring Dresses are beginning to arrive at Wilcox Department Store.

The Dunbar Co. rendered a fine concert program Saturday evening at the Keith to a large and appreciative audience. Each number was heartily applauded. Particularly fine was "The Rosary" rendered by the celloist.

Arrangements have been made for a special train to Brady this evening for the accommodation of those who desire to attend the boxing contest at that village. The train will leave this terminal at 8:10 and returning will leave Brady shortly after midnight.

A cattleman remarked the other day that he could not recall, during his thirty years residence in Lincoln county, a winter more favorable for stock. While the pastures were not very heavy, they furnished a fair supply of feed, and the absence of stormy and cold weather called for but light feeding of hay.

A car load of oranges and a car of apples will arrive tomorrow for the local dealers. This fruit is shipped in by Dolan Fruit Co., of Grand Island and distributed by T. M. Cohagen in quantities to suit. Mr. Cohagen has acted as distributing agent for the Dolan company for several years past.

A man named Watkins, a horse buyer and seller by occupation, was taken ill and fainted in the telephone exchange at noon yesterday. Dr. Dent was summoned and found him in rather bad condition, and he was taken to the Pulver hospital. Watkins had but recently been released from quarantine after having an infectious disease.

Red Seal book-fold French Gingham 36-inches wide, the best to stand wear and wash in the country. The Leader is the only house that has the agency for this gingham. Price 12 1/2 cents per yard.

The Schiller & Co. drug store has been improved in convenience and appearance by the re-arrangement of the furniture and the addition of a new prescription case, additional shelving and cases. In this re-arrangement much more room is given for display and storage purpose. Further improvements will be a metal ceiling and new paper on the walls. When fully completed the store will be a top notcher.

New Spring Dress Skirts at Wilcox Department Store.

After a two years run in Chicago, New York and Boston, "A Broken Idol" one of the latest of musical comedies will be seen at the Keith Thursday evening. The piece has been termed the "play of surprises" in as much as the unexpected happens every few minutes. Among the spectacular effects introduced are a huge dragon that turns into eight dancing girls, beautiful rose vases that become animated show girls and a huge fiery silk balloon that sails over the audience. A company of sixty is carried.

Mrs. Isaman, of Aurora, arrived Saturday for a visit with her sister, Mrs. Butler Buchanan.

Felix Simon returned Sunday from Omaha, where he had been combining pleasure and business for a week.

Miss Eva Park, of Chicago, is the guest of her cousin, Mrs. Clark Buchanan, having arrived Saturday night.

The finest line of Negligé Shirts for men, with or without collars, all shades and sizes, silk included, just arrived at The Leader.

Judge Grimes is holding court in Ogallala this week. Attorneys Wilcox, Beeler, Halligan and Muldoon are in attendance.

N. B. Spurrier, of Nichols, left today for Lamoni, Iowa, where he was called by the illness of his father, who suffered a paralytic stroke a few days ago.

Len Kidwell, of Wallace, transacted business in town the latter part of last week. He expects to leave soon on a western trip that will extend to California.

A series of revival meetings will be held at the Baptist church at Maxwell beginning next Sunday. Rev. Horan, the pastor, will be assisted by Evangelist Nelson.

Hans Jorgensen, living south of Sutherland is nursing a broken arm, resulting from a fall. A little over a year ago Mr. Jorgensen met with a similar accident.

L. P. Krong, who has made Lincoln county his home since 1894, leaves this week for Lindsey, Neb., where he will engage in farming. Of late Mr. Krong has lived at Hershey.

O. H. Eyerly has purchased L. P. Jepsen's interest in the Bank of Lincoln county and becomes vice-president of the institution. Mr. Eyerly is recognized as one of the progressive business men of the Hershey section.

Gus. Sohke, the Wizard of all musical comedy producers, spent thirty days of work drilling that American beauty chorus for William F. Mann's "A Broken Idol" coming to the Keith Thursday evening.

The celebrated Sterling line of Muslin Underwear for ladies, misses and children, are now on sale at a discount of twenty per cent at The Leader.

Ed Burke, who had been at Excelsior Springs for several weeks taking treatment for rheumatism, has been visiting relatives and friends in town for a few days. When Mr. Burke first went to the springs he was practically helpless, now his condition is normal.

The latest in Wash Goods, the popular brands for 1911, silk Marquisette in all shades, Kaiko silk in all shades, Silk Foulard in all shades, are now shown at the Leader.

Julius Pizer, of the Leader, left Saturday night for the eastern markets to purchase late novelties for his store. Before leaving he instructed his clerks that on account of needed shelf room many lines of seasonal goods should be sold at a big discount. A number of these items are enumerated elsewhere in these columns.

Wanted—Man and wife to work on ranch, woman to cook and man to do work. Good wages to right parties. Inquire at Cody ranch.

Messrs. Sadler and Hooker, of Holdrege, were in town Saturday boosting for the Eastman bill in the legislature which appropriates $100,000 for an agricultural school at some point in western Nebraska. Holdrege is after the school, and is putting forth a strong effort to secure its location.

For Sale—Two high grade Red Polled Bulls for sale. First $25 takes one, $30 the other. Louis Macey, 5 miles east of North Platte at Gannett.

Members of the younger set were the guests of Miss Gladys Bird Friday evening at a masquerade party which proved a very jolly affair. Entertaining features suggestive of St. Valentine's day were introduced, and the same scheme was carried out in the refreshments served. House decorations were in blue and gold, with settings of red and white carnations and a liberal display of red hearts.

The Knights of Columbus have properly executed and placed in escrow together with an abstract of title, a warranty deed conveying to the City of North Platte the site for the public library for a consideration of $2,000.00. The title has been passed on by the attorney for the library board and found to be good. Subscriptions that have been made to the fund for the purchase of this library site are now due and payable to the secretary. As soon as the full amount of the purchase price is received the deed will be taken up and turned over to the library board for the city.

ANNIE C. KRAMPH, Sec'y.

Cards received in town the latter part of last week announced the birth of a daughter to Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Hupfer, of Ogden, on February 7th.

Don't fail to see the pretty Embroideries and Flouncing now on sale at a discount of twenty per cent at The Leader.

Timekeeper Waldo, of District Foreman Beery's office, will be transferred to Cheyenne, much to the regret of his friends. He will be succeeded in the local office by Carl Brodbeck.

Report was current yesterday that occupants of houses owned by the Burlington had been ordered to vacate, as the houses were to be removed to make way for grading operations. When the report was run down by the reporter it developed that the occupant of one house had been ordered to vacate because he did not pay rent.

Imported Tissues, sold everywhere at 35 cents per yard. The Leader opens the 1911 price at 25 cents per yard.

Members of the J. T. Club passed an enjoyable evening Friday as the guests of Mrs. J. F. Clabaugh and Mrs. C. S. Clinton at the home of the former. In the card games first prizes were won by Mrs. N. McCabe and Prof. Garlich and the consolation emblems by Mrs. Schatz and John Keilher. The refreshments were an appreciated feature of the evening.

The 1911 new styles in Ladies Tailored Suits are shown at the Leader.

County Clerk Elliott is again confined to the house, being forced to leave the office Friday noon. Rheumatism of a bad form is the trouble.

New Spring Skirts, regular and extra sizes, just arrived at the Leader.

Eight months in Chicago, seven months in Boston and six months in New York is the record of William F. Mann's offering "A Broken Idol," the original Whitney production, which is coming to the Keith Thursday evening.