J. O. Anderson's annual sale of Poland China and Duroc Jersey Hogs will be held at Lexington March 16. They still have a few choice cockerels left and are booking orders for eggs at $1.00 per setting of 15, and $4.00 per per 100 for incubators, from stock headed by 11 lb cockerels. Also 4 Rock Polled bulls at private sale.

About the usual number of sales of horses, cattle and farm implements are being held in the county this spring, and the prices paid seem to be reasonably high. At most of the sales, two-thirds of the purchasers pay cash, evidence that money is plentiful with a majority of the farmers and stockmen.

On the occasion of her birth anniversary Friday evening, Mrs. E. A. Huntington was tendered a surprise party by two score of her relatives and friends. The evening was devoted to cards and proved a very enjoyable one. Mrs. Huntington was remembered with a number of gifts. Refreshments, prepared by the invaders, were served.

One bin full of French Valenciennes Laces, worth up to 20 cents per yard, your choice at 5 cents per yard. Look for the big sign.

The Kaufmann-Wernert Co. opened its five and ten cent store in the Elks' building Saturday and from the opening until the closing hour the room was packed with buyers. Members of J. T. club were pleasantly entertained Friday evening by Mrs. Henry Waltemath and Mrs. E. A. Garlich at the home of the former. In the card games first prizes were won by Mrs. Luke Haley and C. S. Clinton and the consolation emblems by Luke Haley and Mrs. G. F. Meyer. In serving the splendid refreshments the hostesses were assisted by Misses Helen Waltemath, Irma Huffman and Marie McCabe.

V. E. Hinman, formerly of this city, has let the contract for the erection of a nine-room modern house in Sidney, where he is now engaged in business.

The Lenten season begins tomorrow and many good people will don sackcloth and ashes for a period of forty or more days. As a result events in society will be less numerous during that period.

Grading for the Union Pacific double track between Lodge Pole and Potter is expected to begin this spring. Last week sub-contractors for Kilpatrick Bros. & Collins were looking over the work to be done.

The Carnegie library committee paid the $2,000 to the Knights of Columbus Saturday and received a deed for the library site on Locust street. Sketches for the library building are being drawn by Carl Schaffer of this city and also by a Hastings architect.

It looks as though Brady citizens were in favor of capital removal. A petition sent out by the Kearney Commercial club was circulated here the forepart of this week, and every one to whom it was shown, readily applied his signature.—Vindicator.

For a pressure tank system of plumbing see the Platte Plumbing and Heating Co.

Chas. Engman who lives north of Brady, was in town this morning exhibiting a large gray eagle which he caught in a steel trap this week. The eagle measures over six and one-half feet from tip to tip. Mr. Engman informs us that only one toe was caught in the trap, and otherwise the bird is unharmed. It is certainly a fine specimen.—Brady Vindicator.

The test well recently put down by the Union Pacific near the Locust street crossing will soon be placed in service. A sixteen thousand gallon tank will be erected for filling the locomotive tanks, and a careful test of the water used in the boilers will be made. If the water proves satisfactory a number of other wells will be put down. Foreman Murphy, of the building department, will soon begin work on the tank.

Travel and Study Club.

The Travel and Study Club met at the home of Mrs. E. R. Goodman Friday evening and held a most interesting session. On roll call the members responded by giving a quotation or current topic relative to woman, and woman was the subject for the evening. "Woman in the Home," was treated by Mrs. Roy Cummings; "Woman in Science and Arts," by Miss Annie Kramph. Each of the phases of woman's work was well handled and created animated discussion. At the close of the program a nice two course lunch was served.

The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. Wilson Tout on the evening of March 6th.

EXPERIMENTAL SUB-STATION,
W. P. Snyder, Supt.

Shop and Road News.

Fireman Mathieson was badly burned on the face Sunday afternoon while coming up on No. 109 by the draft, created by fast running, drawing hot cinders from the ash pan and throwing them in his face.

It is announced that the Union Pacific plans to equip its entire system with wireless apparatus for sending messages from moving trains to stations along the line. A wireless telephone will be used. Two stations will be established this summer, one at Sidney and the other at Cheyenne.

J. E. Rodman, the U. P. gardener, is in town today making arrangements to replant 20,000 trees on the plantation east of town. These trees will replace those which failed to live through last season. Mr. Rodman has hired a man named Clark as overseer of the plantation and will look after its cultivation during the growing season.

The Bridgeport Blade of last Thursday contained this item:

Krist Bros., contractors of Julesburg, Colo., were in Bridgeport last Monday for the purpose of figuring on a sub-contract on the Union Pacific's North Platte Valley line. This work is now being sub let, two sections of about nine miles each having already been awarded to local contractors.

Mr. Durant, who is promoting the proposed railroad from Callaway or Broken Bow to Tryon, has written the people of Bridgeport that he will shortly visit them and discuss the question of extending the road to that place and to some common point beyond. From Tryon west to Bridgeport the road would pass through a sparsely settled and not very productive country, and it is questionable if the road would pay operating expenses.

This item from the Gandy Pioneer is evidence that the proposition to raise a bonus for a railroad is not proving as popular as was anticipated:

At this writing the railroad proposition does not look as good as it should. Of the $70,000 required from Logan and Lincoln counties, $40,000 only has been raised, and while this is quite a sum of money, yet it is not sufficient to insure the building of this proposed road. Many of our citizens have donated liberally; all they could in fact, while others refuse to do anything at all, and others only a nominal sum, taking their financial condition into consideration.

A Denver dispatch dated Saturday said: Hundreds of laborers are passing through Denver on their way to various points along the Union Pacific in Wyoming. This movement indicates that the $75,000,000 improvement project recently announced by President R. S. Lovett is about to commence. Five carloads of Greeks from Kansas City passed through the city yesterday and today for points north of here.

Denver contractors understand that contracts for the construction of thirty-five miles of track on the Northport extension of the Union Pacific in Wyoming have been let to Baylan & Shirley of Omaha. The extension will cost about $1,000,000.

Shop and Road News.

Buyers Picture Show.

Irv Armstrong has purchased the Jewel picture show at Grand Island and went down Saturday to take possession as well as the management. Mr. Armstrong is a pushing young man and will no doubt make a success of the business venture at the Island.

Keefe Appointed Trustee.

J. T. Keefe has been appointed trustee of the Small bankruptcy case and will proceed to wind up the business at the earliest possible time. The stock will be sold at public auction on March 11th to the highest bidder for cash. A business man said yesterday that he doubted if the creditors would receive over a fifty per cent dividend on their claims. The indebtedness is in the neighborhood of seven thousand dollars.

Hold a Reunion.

On Washington's Birthday Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stuart, assisted by Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cryderman, gathered in all the former North Platte people residing around San Francisco bay and had a jolly reunion at the home of the former in Oakland. It will be noticed from the list of those present that the "banana belt" is fairly well represented at the "pulse" of the Pacific coast. In his letter Mr. Stuart says: "I am hoping to gather together a sufficient number of North Platte people to make an impression on the directors of the Panama-Pacific exposition in 1915 that they will consent to have a North Platte day set aside during the fair, and hope to see the entire population present."

Those present at the reunion February 23d were: Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Woods and Miss Kitten Woods, of Fruitvale, Mr. and Mrs. Will Nauman and son, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Seyferth, Mrs. Fred Baker (nee Kate Woods), Everett Dickison, Harry Ferguson and Frank Schatz, of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Trout, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Osborn, Mart Cryderman and son Arthur, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Cryderman and son, and Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Stuart of Oakland. Other former North Platte people who were unable to be present were Anthony Stolle and family of Palo Alto, Robert Phinney of Oakland and John Taft of San Francisco.

All those present said they wouldn't have missed the reunion under any consideration, and wished to be remembered to all their friends in North Platte through the columns of the Tribune.
