

LOCKETS

THERE is no prettier custom than the wearing of a photograph of a dear one concealed within a dainty locket. It serves the two-fold purpose of an artistic article of personal adornment and the photograph is a dear bit of refined sentiment.

At the session of the county commissioners yesterday afternoon, John Grant was appointed county judge to succeed the late Judge Elder. The appointment holds until next January, when he will be succeeded by the candidate elected this fall. Mr. Grant was the only avowed applicant for the office.

The appointee is an attorney of a number of years practice and this knowledge of the law ought to well qualify him for the position.

Give Up the Fight.
That the Union Pacific will have easier sailing than was anticipated in establishing its title to the 400-foot wide right-of-way through Nebraska, is indicated in the withdrawal of the test case not long ago brought in the district court in Merick county. A farmer of that county went into court for the purpose of legally enjoining the railroad company from setting its fences over a distance of 200 feet from either side of the tracks. The case was set for hearing for the term last week, but when the time for the trial came the plaintiff's attorneys dismissed the case.

J. M. Shiveley, of Fremont, who was in this city a few days ago, who is right-of-way agent for the Union Pacific, and has charge of the work of reclaiming the 400-foot right-of-way, says there are about half a dozen tracts of land between this city and Omaha that have not yet been settled up. With these exceptions the company has undisputed possession of its 400-foot strip.—Grand Island Independent.

"Barriers Burned Away."
"Barriers Burned Away" the story by E. P. Roe, and founded upon a great Chicago fire, has been made into a play by George Middleton and has attained immediate success.

The play like the book tells a good wholesome story, which, while it entertains it carries a great moral lesson. The story tells of the love of a poor but brilliant young man for a rich and haughty girl, who scoffs at all religion, but finally the barriers of religion and wealth are swept away in the great Chicago fire and all ends happily.

Messrs. Caskell-MacVitty & Carpenter have supplied an excellent scenic production and a splendid cast for the play, which it is said, will prove as popular as Mr. Roe's novel with its millions of readers.

This great play will be presented at the Keith next Wednesday evening.
