Thomson Gets Contract.
R. D. Thomson, of this city, has been awarded the contract for the erection of the new school building at Hershey. There were four bidders as follows: R. P. Basta $9,235, R. D. Thomson $9,600, C. W. Shane $9,735, Huntington and Baker $9,871. Donaldson & Co., $11,698. While Mr. Thomson's bid was not the lowest it was considered the best.

This building will practically be two stories, the basement having an eleven foot ceiling and the floor but six inches below ground. The main floor will have four rooms. The building will have a heating plant, and other modern conveniences. Mr. Thomson's reputation as a contractor insures a good building for the Hershey people.

A new line of solid gold stick pins, cuff buttons and brooches just received. They are the latest fall creations.

Will Have Booster Excursion.

The Chamber of Commerce has decided to have a boosters' excursion this fall, the date of which has not yet been definitely decided. The boosters will go up the North River branch as far as Scotts Bluffs one day and stopping there over night will return home via Sidney and the main line of the Union Pacific.

This would make quite a trip for our business men, and in addition to the opportunity for boosting North Platte it will prove a pleasant outing.

Requested to Close Stores.

At a meeting of the trade and commerce committee of the Chamber of Commerce held Friday evening it was the unanimous sense of the members present that all business houses close from 1:45 to 4:30 p. m. on Saturday, August 19th, so as to allow the merchants and clerks to attend the afternoon performance of the Cody show. All merchants are requested to close.

No Trickery.

I promised to file on July 1st and I did, and in as good faith as any candidate. I campaigned a month before I filed and continued to do so until stricken with fever and had I not been so handicapped I certainly would have gone to the mat with those three dubs. I decided to quit, and no one knew of my decision until it was made and then I apprised Mr. Walter of my intentions. There was no trickery about it. I did not blow my money for fun but in good faith and one who says there is or was trickery tells a falsehood. With malice towards none.

Dancing On Horseback.

Col. Wm. F. Cody (Buffalo Bill) and fine riders from his cowboy staff will perform a quadrille on horseback, with buxom Western girls, as one of the advertisements of the Wild West and Far East. It is a very pretty performance but can hardly be called a dance. How could one speak of "treading a measure"—the good old poetic phrase—when a horse does the dancing? What with the quadrille on horseback, the big Indian battle scenes, the war dances, the infantry and cavalry drills, and the wonderful shooting of Buffalo Bill and Johnny Baker, the Wild West and Far East will afford interesting and diverting entertainment.

Mrs. R. L. Douglass Dies.

Mrs. R. L. Douglass died at noon yesterday at her home in the Fourth ward of blood poison following the birth of a child. Mrs. Douglass has resided in Lincoln county for a long period of years and for three years past has made her home in this city. She was known as a highly respected, charitable woman, a loving helpmate and affectionate mother and a devoted member of the Presbyterian church. She is survived by her husband and five children to whom the blow is a crushing one.

Lizzie McNulty was born in Senville, Ia., June 27, 1870. In 1886 she came to Logan county with her parents and was married Feb. 23, 1889 to Robert L. Douglas. For a short time they resided in Oklahoma and Montana. In 1896 they located in this county and in 1908 became residents of this city. The funeral services will be held at the residence tomorrow afternoon, conducted by Rev. Favoright. To the bereaved family deep sympathy is extended by a large number of friends.

To Our Citizens.

Mayor's Office, North Platte, Neb., August 4th, 1911.
To the Property Owners and Residents of the City:—

The coming of the Wild West Show on August 19th, will result in the bringing of thousands of visitors to our city, and to the end that they will leave with a good impression of our city, I earnestly request all property owners and occupants of property, and the owners of all vacant lots to proceed at once to clean up and cut and remove all weeds growing upon their premises and adjoining sidewalk space; also to remove all ashes, garbage and manure from their premises and alleys.

I further bespeak your hearty co-operation with the public comfort committee of the Chamber of Commerce in their efforts to extend the hospitality of the city to our visitors and provide for their comfort while with us.

Praise For the Sardine.

It is encouraging in these days, when everything nice is condemned by scientific faddists as nasty, to have the high authority of the London Lancet in support of the popular theory that the sardine is of great dietetic value. The sardine is good, the Lancet tells us, because, for one thing, it encourages the consumption of oil, which tends to avoid "many ills, and especially those associated with wasting diseases and gouty dispositions." This consumption of sardine oil, it adds, "prevents the overloading of the tissues with nitrogenous waste products, and a digestible fat favors nutrition considerably. The sardine supplies also an excellent proportion (25 per cent) of nitrogenous material, and so it becomes a real and economical food. In addition to this the sardine has appetizing qualities, and where appetite serves digestion follows."

When Scotland Had a Navy.

It was James IV, who first created an effective navy for Scotland, exhausting all available timber for ship-building, so that he had to ask France and Denmark for more, and of the sixteen large and ten small ships he owned his special pride was the largest then existing. To build this Dreadnought of her day all the woods of Elfe were laid waste. She cost £30,000, an enormous value in those times; had a crew of 300 sailors, 120 gunners and 1,000 marines, with "more great ordnance in her than the French king ever had to the siege of any town," as James himself boasted.—Westminster Gazette.

Though the temperature last evening was somewhat torrid, a good sized audience attended the presentation of "Jumping Jupiter" at the Keith. With Richard Carle in the title role, and Edna Wallace Hopper as the leading lady, an amusing evening was anticipated, and the auditors were not disappointed. Carle is one of the best of the present-day comedians, and last night was at his best. Mrs. Hopper is certainly chic; a bright, sunny, petit woman, as graceful as she is enthusiastic in her work. The supporting company is good.

Arrested for Horse Stealing.

Two men giving their names as Hoy and Silver, drove into town Saturday in a single rig. Later the buggy was pawned at Echelberry's and the horse and two suit cases taken to the Iddings lumber yard, where the animal was tied and the cases deposited. The two men then went to Lock's barn and hired a team stating that they wanted to drive to Brady. Instead they started west and at the lumber yard they picked up the horse and the suit cases left there. Late in the night Mr. Lock learned of the flight of the two men, and reported the matter to Sheriff Miltenberger, who secured an automobile and started after them. He overhauled them at midnight and brought them to town and lodged them in jail. County Attorney French will file an information against the two men today.
