

THE WORLD AT LARGE.

Summary of the Daily News.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND on the 23d approved the joint resolution appointing Messrs. Franklin, Henderson, Deal and Estelle members of the board of managers of the national soldiers' home.

ABOUT 300 men met at Washington on the 23d for a conference to promote international arbitration. Ex-Secretary John W. Foster, the temporary chairman, made a speech in which he thought the problem not easy of solution, but that English-speaking nations ought to find a different way of settling their disputes than by the blood arbitrament of war. Andrew Carnegie sent a letter inclosing a check for $1,000 towards expenses and said that arbitration for nations was sure to come "as that the sun will continue to shine."

THE president has approved the joint resolution directing the secretary of war to submit an estimate for the improvement of the Nebraska side of the Missouri river opposite Sioux City, Ia.

A DEPUTATION of the New York State bar association presented President Cleveland on the 21st with a memorial recently adopted by that body for the creation of an international court of arbitration. There was an informal talk of half an hour on the subject.

THE house bill providing that all the public lands within the state of Missouri which have not heretofore been offered at public sale shall hereafter be subject to disposal at private sale in the manner now provided by law has passed the senate. Actual settlers are to have a preference right.

THE republicans of the United States senate caucus on the 23d decided in favor of an early adjournment after the appropriation bills are passed.

CONGRESSMAN MONEY, of Mississippi, and Congressman Hall, of Missouri, had a personal encounter in the room of the committee on naval affairs at Washington on the 23d. Mr. Money called Mr. Hall a liar when the latter struck the former and then each picked up inkstands and threw them at one another, Mr. Money being struck and having an ugly gash cut behind his ear.

THE conference for international arbitration at Washington closed on the 23d with a mass meeting at Allen's opera house, in the course of which President Elliot, of Harvard, severely arraigned the policy of President Cleveland. Carl Schurz stated if the United States wanted to be a great sea power she must establish a navy twice as large as any two European powers. Resolutions were adopted for a permanent system of arbitration and urging President Cleveland to take such steps as will best conduce to that end.

A WASHINGTON dispatch stated that the gold money democrats would work hard to capture the delegates from Iowa, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Indiana, Michigan and Ohio, which they claimed would give them control of the Chicago convention.

THE United States government has called Spain to account for the outrage committed on Dr. Jose Manuel Delgado, an American citizen, on March 4, in Cuba.

GENERAL NEWS.

THE sheriff ordered in all deputies because he expected an attack on the jail at Knoxville, Tenn., on the night of the 24th by a mob from the country, bent on lynching the murderer of Mrs. C. H. Givens. Givens was reported to have been lynched at Dondridge. All wires were cut and nothing definite could be ascertained.

THE Hotel Slooan at Denver, B. C., burned to the ground and the guests lost everything but their night clothes. Two boys, Nicholas Jungen and Oliver Bailey, of Martinsville, Ind., went fishing and a heavy thunderstorm came up and they took refuge under a tree and Jungen was killed. Bailey was not hurt.

A SKIFF containing five soldiers and a civilian was overturned on the Ohio river opposite Fort Thomas and two soldiers were drowned.

PREMIER CASTILLO, of Spain, recently declared that he would never give Cuba home rule nor a regime similar to that of Canada.

T. ESTRADA PALMA, president of the Cuban revolutionary junta, has issued an address at New York to the people of America in which he declares that all the talk about Spain giving reforms to Cuba was senseless, that the insurgents were firmly resolved to listen to no compromise and would treat with Spain only on the basis of absolute independence for Cuba.

THE 23d was the seventh anniversary of the opening of Oklahoma to settlement and was observed as a holiday generally throughout the territory. In Guthrie all business was suspended and athletic games, baseball and races were held at the state fair grounds. At the territorial college at Stillwater, normal school at Edmond and university at Norman appropriate public exercises were held and largely attended.

FAILURES for the week ended the 24th were, according to Dun's Review, 238 in the United States, against 230 last year, and 44 in Canada, against 37 last year.

THE dead bodies of Mrs. Joseph Cocking and Miss Daisy Miller, her niece, and the unconscious form of Joseph Cocking, were found early on the 24th in the village store kept by the Cockings at Hill Top, Md. Robbery had been the incentive for the murders. The women were on the upper floor of the store and were struck dead with a blunt instrument supposed to have been an iron bar. Cocking was left for dead in the cellar. He had been bound with a heavy rope and brutally treated, but will probably recover.

JOHN LOVE, of Milton, W. Va., arose from his bed and fired two shots at his wife, killing her instantly. He then entered his father-in-law's bedroom and fired two shots at him, fatally wounding him. He wound up by firing a bullet into his own brain.

At a meeting in M. A. Hanna's office at Cleveland, O., the official McKinley badge to be worn by supporters of the presidential candidate at the St. Louis convention was adopted. It is a bright red satin ribbon, four inches in length. In the center of the ribbon a photograph of McKinley will appear, and in golden letters above and below it will be the words: "Patriotism, Protection, Prosperity. William McKinley, the People's Choice."

It was reported at Louisville, Ky., that Senator George G. Vest was going to stamp Kentucky in the interest of silver.

Two empty sleepers attached to a freight train broke loose on the Pennsylvania road recently near Alleghenry, Pa., and started down the mountain, crashing into an engine drawing a freight train, demolishing it and probably fatally injuring the engineer and fireman. The sleepers afterwards took fire and were consumed.

At Sing Sing, N. Y., Louis Herrman and Charles Pustalka, both wife murderers, were killed in the electric chair.

A DISPATCH from Cleveland, O., on the 23d stated that the proposition to admit women as lay delegates to the general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church had been defeated by the narrow margin of 18 votes.

THE Presbyterian women's board of missions was in session at Oklahoma City, Ok., on the 23d delegates being in attendance from Missouri, Kansas, Texas, Arizona, New Mexico, Oklahoma and Indian territory. Prominent missionaries of the Presbyterian church from all parts of the world were also present.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND, Secretary of Agriculture Morton and Commissioner of Internal Revenue Miller spent the 23d fishing among the trout streams of Leesburg, Va.

THE returns on the 23d from the Louisiana election indicated the election of Foster, the democratic candidate for governor, by a good majority, although the populists claimed the state.

A FIRE broke out in the machine shops of the Seaboard Air Line railway at Raleigh, N. C., on the 23d and they were destroyed, throwing 125 men out of employment.

THE Eighteenth Street Baptist church at Detroit, Mich., was the scene of a fight on the night of the 23d. One man was struck across the face by a woman and raised his fist to knock her down, but was pulled away. Women screamed, men shouted and recriminations flew thick and fast. Two of the church trustees resigned and six were expelled from the church for open rebellion. It all came about because the trustees forbade the pastor taking up a collection at the door and he disobeyed orders.

THE populist state convention, held at Des Moines on the 23d, was one of the largest in the history of the party in Iowa. Chairman Taubeneck, of the national party, and Gen. J. S. Coxey, of Ohio, were present. The platform was written by Gen. Weaver, and consists of a single resolution in favor of the union of all the reform forces of the country on the Omaha platform of four years ago, together with the recognition of the initiative and referendum.

THE act granting to the Atchison & Nebraska and the Chicago & Burlington roads the right of way over the Sac and Fox and Iowa Indian reservation in Kansas and Nebraska has become a law without the president's signature.

MRS. HANNAH CHARD celebrated her 108th birthday at her home at Ferrell, N. J., on the 20th. There were present three sons, the youngest of whom was 66 years, 32 grandchildren, 82 great-grandchildren and 12 great-great-grandchildren.

THE general managers and passenger agents of the western roads were in session at Chicago on the 23d on the question of mileage tickets, and it was agreed that, beginning May 1, 1,000 mile tickets should be of the punch descriptive signature form, the same as the 2,000 mile tickets. Mileage tickets good in territory west of the Missouri are not to be honored east of the river except in specific cases, and tickets sold east of the river may not be used west of it.

THE American national bank at Denver, Col., failed to open its doors on the 23d. It was claimed depositors would be paid in full.

THE extensive saw mill and salt plant of Wall & Weber, at Saginaw, Mich., was destroyed by fire.

SIMON HASSELBACH, aged 70, and his son William engaged in a drunken quarrel at Union City, Pa., on the 24th when the son seized an ax to kill his father and the old man drew his revolver and shot his son and then sent a bullet through his own temple. Both will die.

A CYCLONE struck Salem, Va., on the 24th, blowing down houses and barns and uprooting trees. In one house demolished a woman and her five-year-old son were taken out dead from the ruins and four others were seriously hurt, one of whom will die from the injuries received.

Two young children at Evansville, Ind., found a can of insect powder and ate of it and death soon relieved their sufferings.

THE manufacturers of wire and cut nails, who recently had a conference at Chicago, have decided to raise the price of both kinds 15 per cent. on May 1.

MARSHALL ANDERSON, colored, was hanged at Malvern, Ark., yesterday. He was convicted of killing Tom Hanson, his wife's brother. Anderson declared on the gallows that his life had been sworn away. He claimed to have killed his victim in self-defense.

THE congress of bimetalists at Brussels closed by adopting M. Beernaert's proposal that the congress should be declared permanent until the question of bimetalism had been solved.

JAMES CLELLAND, cashier of the Osage Trading Co., was instantly killed at Krebs, I. T., by two colored men, who made their escape before officers could be procured. Clelland was hit on the head with a stone, which crushed his skull, killing him instantly. No motive could be assigned for the killing.

In a recent interview Grand Master Workman Sovereign, of the Knights of Labor, said that R. P. Bland would not get the united support of labor men for president.

MISS FRANCES E. WILLARD sailed for England on the 23d to attend the annual convention of the World's Women's Christian Temperance union, of which she is the president. Before sailing she issued an appeal in behalf of the persecuted and suffering people of Armenia, urging that the W. C. T. U. of the United States raise $50,000 to aid in the relief work which is being carried on through Miss Clara Barton.

THE republican state convention held at Staunton, Va., on the 23d elected delegates to the national convention at St. Louis, instructing them by strong resolutions to support McKinley.

THE Pennsylvania republicans met in state convention at Harrisburg on the 23d and formally launched the boom of United States Senator Matthew S. Quay for the presidential nomination.

THE Bourgeois cabinet resigned at Paris on the 23d.

THE whites of Opelousas, La., were determined to prevent the negroes from voting and armed bodies of regulars and anti-regulars were assembling and it was predicted that the crisis was at hand and there would be bloodshed on the 21st.

ADDITIONAL DISPATCHES.

THE greater part of Cripple Creek, Col., the famous mining town, was burned on the 25th. All the theaters, dance halls and sporting resorts were destroyed, together with the post office, the First national bank, the Midland railroad depot and trestles, the Times newspaper office and many stores. An angry woman in a dance hall threw a lamp at her lover and started the fire. The loss was roughly estimated at over $1,000,000.

PRESIDENT CLEVELAND having failed to sign the agricultural appropriation bill on the 25th it became a law without his signature.

At midnight on the 26th a mob of armed men entered the jail at McMinnville, Tenn., dragged the jailer from his bed and forced him to give up the keys. William and Victor Hillis were then taken from the jail carried on horseback five miles from McMinnville and hanged. The Hillis boys were guilty of murder and the work of the mob was the result of a feeling that the courts were too slow in disposing of the men.

THE Vieja mine in the Santa Eulalia district, Mexico, caved in a few days ago when 85 men were at work. Of these 18 escaped and 67 were buried. Thirty-seven have since been taken out, seven of whom are dead and 30 seriously crushed, and many will not live. There was very little chance of recovering the other 30 miners under the earth.

A TORNAO, accompanied by a severe rain and hailstorm, visited Clay county, Kan., and vicinity on the night of the 25th. At Clifton, Clay Center and Concordia 11 persons were reported killed and between 20 and 30 others injured. The damage to property was great, many houses and barns being blown away and a large number of cattle, horses and hogs killed.

MR. BARNEY CULLEN and his wife were burned to death in their home near Chester, N. Y., on the 26th.

JESSIE LINDLEY and Bettie Blackford, prisoners in the county jail at Oklahoma City, Ok., committed suicide by taking large quantities of cocaine.

NEARLY 100 Moplah fanatics, who had risen in rebellion, were caught by the rajah's militia in a temple at Mangeri, in Southern India, recently, like rats in a trap, and the militia fired volley after volley at them until they were nearly all down. The most revolting spectacle was to see the wounded Moplahs having their throats cut by those of their comrades who were able to stand.

NEBRASKA STATE NEWS.

Silver Democrats Meet.

The silver element of the democratic party in Nebraska met at Lincoln on the 23d. Eight hundred delegates, representing every county, were present and the gathering was marked by great unanimity on all questions discussed. J. W. Sparks was made permanent chairman. The platform declares for a direct vote on senators, income tax, revenue tariff, initiative and referendum and liberal pensions. On finance they declared for free coinage at the ratio of sixteen to one without regard to the wishes of any other nation; opposed to the retirement of the greenback and demanded that the secretary of the treasury, "instead of issuing interest-bearing bonds for the purchase of gold, shall recognize silver as money of redemption and redeem all coin obligations in silver when silver is more convenient." Ex-Congressman Bryan, C. J. Smyth, W. H. Thompson and W. D. Oldham were made delegates-at-large. The district delegates are: First, C. S. Jones and W. J. Morgan; Second, J. A. Creighton and C. H. Brown; Third, C. F. Hohenback and G. A. Lukehart; Fourth, C. J. Bolby and S. J. Seward; Fifth, D. Walsh and F. A. Thompson; Sixth, A. T. Blackburn and J. C. Dahman.

Miscellaneous.

THE people of Lyons are working to secure a beet sugar plant.

NEAR Wahoo Emil Thorson was kicked over the heart by a horse and died instantly.

THE county seat fight between Alliance and Hemingford is on again with renewed bitterness.

WILL HAND, a young married man, committed suicide at Nebraska City in a fit of despondency.

THE State Sportsman's association closed its annual meet at Omaha on the 24th. The diamond badge for the Nebraska championship was won by Duer.

DAVID NEAL was visited by whitecaps at Plattsmouth the other night and invited to leave town under threats of severe punishment. Neal's wife died recently and in what the neighbors thought an indecently short time he married again.

TWENTY-FIVE affidavits from attendants and employees of the hospital for the insane at Norfolk have been presented to Gov. Holcomb denying the charges of cruelty and immorality preferred against Dr. Mackay, superintendent of the institution.

THE recent deluge caused great loss to the B. & M. people near Moorefield. At the Plum Creek canyon steel rails were washed away and drainage piles weighing 1,000 pounds and buried 75 feet in the ground were torn up and washed 400 yards down the canyon.

JUDGE KEYSER, of the district court at Omaha, has addressed an open letter repudiating the report current that he recently rendered a decision that a mortgage bond contract with a clause requiring payment to be made in gold was illegal. No decision was rendered in the case.

THE second annual convention of the West Nebraska conference Epworth league will meet at Cozad June 25, 26 and 27. Many prominent Christian workers will be present, among them Lucy Rider Myer, of Chicago; Robert McIntyre, of Denver, and one of the bishops of the M. E. church.

THE Board of Educational Lands and Funds at a recent meeting decided not to invest any more surplus money in state warrants on the ground that they were not of sufficient security. A proposition to invest in government bonds was deferred. The surplus fund now lying idle amounts to $611,111.67.

A FEW days ago Lewis Baldwin, a farmer near Ashland, flagged a B. & M. train and saved it from being derailed and precipitated over a high embankment into the Platte river. A day or two later Baldwin was notified to appear at the company's office in Lincoln, where he was presented with a fine team of horses, a new wagon and harness and a new breaking plow.

SEVERAL years ago Stephen A. Davis, of Plattsmouth, a veteran of company H, Second Nebraska, applied for a pension. Not hearing from it he recently wrote to Washington and to his surprise discovered that Stephen A. Davis had been drawing a pension for years. It transpires that there were two Stephen A. Davises in company H, Second Nebraska, and that the one who had been drawing the pension resides at Blair.

"COIN" HARVEY lectured in Omaha the other night under the auspices of the Bimetallic league of Nebraska. He denounced the press of the state as subsidized organs of the money power. Editor Rosewater, of the Bee, was in the audience and resented the insinuation, and after defending the press challenged Harvey to a discussion of finances. Harvey was considerably disturbed and finally declined. The affair created considerable excitement.

THE county commissioners have agreed to appropriate $1,000 for the benefit of the Nebraska Irrigation fair to be held in North Platte October 13, 14 and 15. One thousand dollars in private subscriptions is already secured, and it is thought that another thousand can be raised. This assures the success of the first irrigation fair ever held in America. The district reunion of the Grand Army will be held there at the same time, and Col. Cody's wild west show will close the season at the same place October 12.

A Trinity of Evils.

Biliousness, sick headache and irregularity of the bowels accompany each other. To the removal of this trinity of evils Hostetter's Stomach Bitters is specially adapted. It also cures dyspepsia, rheumatism, malarial complaints, biliousness, nervousness and constipation. The most satisfactory results follow a fair trial. Use it daily.

WHEN a man has no longer any conception of excellence above his own, his voyage is done, he is dead.—Beecher.

THE act of worship is among all creation indigenous and peculiar to man.—Melville.

Nervous

People find just the help they so much need, in Hood's Sarsaparilla. It furnishes the desired strength by purifying, vitalizing and enriching the blood, and thus builds up the nerves, tones the stomach and regulates the whole system. Read this:

"I want to praise Hood's Sarsaparilla. My health run down, and I had the grip. After that my heart and nervous system were badly affected, so that I could not do my own work. Our physician gave me some help, but did not cure. I decided to try Hood's Sarsaparilla. Soon I could do all my own housework. I have taken

Cured

Hood's Pills with Hood's Sarsaparilla, and they have done me much good. I will not be without them. I have taken 13 bottles of Hood's Sarsaparilla, and through the blessing of God, it has cured me. I worked as hard as ever the past summer, and I am thankful to say I am well. Hood's Pills when taken with Hood's Sarsaparilla help very much." Mrs. M. M. MESSINGER, Freehold, Penn.

This and many other cures prove that

Hood's Sarsaparilla

Is the One True Blood Purifier. All druggists. $1. Prepared only by C. I. Hood & Co., Lowell, Mass.

Hood's Pills act easily, promptly and effectively. 25 cents.

The Unscrupulous Merchant

who tries to make you believe some other skirt binding is as good as

Bias Velveteen Skirt Binding should be taught a lesson—buy it elsewhere.

Look for "S. H. & M.," on the Label, and take no other.

If your dealer will not supply you we will.

Send for samples showing labels and materials, to the S. H. & M. Co., P. O. Box 699, New York City.

For your Protection

we positively state that this remedy does not contain mercury or any other injurious drug. Nasal Catarrh is a local disease and is the result of colds and sudden climatic changes.

ELY'S CREAM BALM

Opens and cleanses the Nasal Passages, Allays Pain and Inflammation, Relieves the Sore, Protects the Membrane from Colds, Restores the Senses of Taste and Smell. The Balm is quickly absorbed and gives relief at once. Price 50 cents at Druggists or by mail.

A SHINING EXAMPLE of what may be accomplished by never varying devotion to a single purpose is seen in the history of the McCormick Harvesting Machine Co., Chicago.

For 65 years they have simply been building grain and grass-cutting machinery, and while there are probably forty manufacturers in this line, it is safe to say that the McCormick Company builds one-third of all the binders, reapers and mowers used throughout the entire world.

There is just a little appetizing bite to HIRE'S Rootbeer; just a smack of life and good flavor done up in temperance style. Best by any test.

Made only by The Charles F. Hires Co., Philadelphia. A 25c. package makes 5 gallons. Sold everywhere.

THE ICELESS REFRIGERATOR

Keeps milk, butter, etc., in good condition—using nothing but water, cooling being done by evaporation. Send stamp for particulars. ICELESS REFRIGERATOR CO., ST. LOUIS, MO. Agents Wanted each WEEKLY and want men EVERYWHERE to sell GOLD ($5.00) PLAIN and ALL other STARK Trees. Outfit FREE. No Money to Invest. No Risk. STARK BROS., Louisiana, Mo., Rockport, Ill. AGENTS MAKE $200 A MONTH selling the Arctic Refrigerating Machine. Saves 25 per cent. in ice. Send stamp for particulars. ARCTIC REFRIGERATING CO., ST. LOUIS.

WE PAY