Church Howe was in from Auburn Friday.

Miss Emma Crim returned from Salem Tuesday.

Jeff Drumm brought us in some samples of Tom Thum: pop corn Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Lewis, of Brownville, visited Nemaha friends last Sunday.

Hon. T. J. Majors was one of the speakers at the darkey picnic at Falls City Tuesday.

Miss Myrtle Hall of Auburn, was the guest of her cousin, Miss Nina Moore, the first of the week.

Jim Collins, who has been stopping in Colorado for three or four years, returned to Nemaha Thursday.

Mrs. J. C. Frazell and little daughter Nannie, of Columbus, Neb., are visiting for a few days with Mrs. Galbraith.

Mrs. M. H. Taylor went to Salem Friday morning of last week, and attended the chautauqua until Sunday.

Mrs. F. L. Woodward and Charley drove to Salem last Saturday, and attended the chautauqua a couple of days.

We will allow 20 cents a bushel for corn, 45 cents a bushel for wheat and 15 cents a bushel for oats, on subscription.

R. G. Emery, who has been suffering for several years from kidney disease is in a very low condition, and it is feared can live but a short time.

Last week we began the publication of a protracted story entitled "Proposed Constitutional Amendments," which will continue until election day.

M. C. Shurtleff, of Benton precinct was in town Friday of this week, feeling the political pulse. "Clay" would not object to receiving the republican nomination for state senator this fall.

H. A. Kyle, the veterinarian, had a slight sunstroke Monday, while at Auburn. He was brought home, and was confined to the house for several days, but is able to attend to business again.

G. N. Titus was billed this week for addresses at the farmers' institutes at Johnson, Brock, Auburn and Peru, on "Third of an Acre Fruit Farms," but could not deliver them on account of being sick.

If you have anything in the way of grain, grasses, vegetables, etc., that is especially good, bring it to this office or to the Carson bank at Auburn, for exhibit at the state fair, in the Nemaha county exhibit.

Geo. Fairbrother was shaking hands with Nemaha friends Monday morning. George is now running a job office at Omaha, but says he is not accumulating enough wealth to enable him to be a rival of the Vanderbilts.

The following teachers were registered from Nemaha, who were in attendance at the county institute held at Auburn for the past two weeks: E. Delia Kempthorne, Lulu H. Clarke, Mary Tussey, May Veeder, Dora Morton, Mattie Drain, Mabel Drain, Eva Jarvis, Gertrude Smelser.

It was decided Monday night to postpone the organization of the McKinley club until some future date, when a good speaker could be secured. It is probable this will be done in a week or two. In the meantime the list of signers on the club list continues to grow, and the list now contains about 100 signatures.

A. L. Lawrence, of London precinct, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday, and added his name to our list. He informs us that his father who had a stroke of paralysis last winter is suffering from the effects again. It is hoped he will soon rally.

The populist county convention met at Auburn last Saturday and elected delegates to the state, congressional and senatorial conventions, and then adjourned until the 15th inst., when the county ticket will be nominated. John H. Dundas was endorsed as the candidate for state senator, J. E. Harris for lieutenant governor, and it is understood the congressional delegation is for G. W. Connell for congressman.

While in Auburn last Friday J. M. Burriss showed us the specimens he now has on hand for the Nemaha county exhibit. He has already collected about 125 different species of grass grown in the county, and expects to get at least 150 kinds. He has fine specimens of small grain. A few days ago he found a wild grape vine seven inches in diameter—almost large enough for a saw log. The exhibit is already a good one.

During the past few weeks we have talked with men from Nemaha, Brownville, Peru, Aspinwall, London, Douglas, Lafayette, Benton and Washington precincts in regard to Seymour Howe's candidacy for the legislature, and have heard nothing but good reports from all over the county. So far there seems to be no opposition to him. He is capable of doing good service for the county, is honest, has a good record as a citizen, and in every way will make a good candidate.

Monday evening we drove up to the Titus Nursery to investigate reports as to ripe peaches and grapes being on tap there. We found the rumors well founded as to the grapes, got all we could eat and a basketful to bring home and also found a few peaches just getting ripe enough to eat, which we also sampled, as well as a few plums. We found the nursery in fine shape, the nursery stock all growing and looking well. Preparation are being made for a big trade next spring.

Terry's Uncle Tom's Cabin Co. had the misfortune to strike Nemaha at a bad time for them, as it began to rain Wednesday evening before time for the performance to open. However, the tent was pretty well filled with people, and as the rain stopped for a while, about 8 o'clock the entertainment commenced. But in a short time the storm broke, and few in the audience could hear anything. This was to be regretted, as the company was putting up the best performance of this play ever given in Nemaha. On account of the rain the people from the country had to stop in town over night, and almost every house near the tent had company. Over thirty men and boys bunked in the livery stable, and the Odd Fellows hall accommodated a number. The hotels were filled.

A BAD ACCIDENT.

Wednesday evening as Mrs. Jas. Umland and Mrs. Wm. Umland, living on the J. R. Dye farm, about six miles southwest of Nemaha, were returning home they met with an accident that came near being fatal. Both ladies had babies with them, one being about three years old and the other probably six or eight months of age. As they drove on the crossing over the B. & M. track at J. P. Hoover's the team was struck by a train, both horses killed, and the buggy torn to pieces. The two ladies were not seriously wounded, although one of them received a severe cut on one limb below the knee, and both were bruised and otherwise injured. But the poor little babies were the worst hurt. Both of them received severe injuries, both having a leg broken in two places. The ladies and the babies were brought to town and Drs. Keeling and Kay made them as comfortable as possible.

From all accounts the engine did not whistle as it approached the crossing. The bell was ringing, but was not heard by the ladies. The engine had been to Bracken siding after stock, and had two cars in front and one behind the engine, so the view of the track was obstructed. On both sides of the wagon road at this crossing the weeds and trees hide any train coming so it cannot be seen by persons on this side of the track until it is within a few feet of the crossing.

We understand Messrs. Umland will sue the company for a good sum, in addition to the bill put in for the horses and carriage, the latter being almost new, and was quite costly. The elder child is getting along nicely as we go to press, but the baby is in a serious condition.

Last Sunday A. L. Lawrence, constable of London precinct, arrested a couple of fellows who have been stealing harness in the vicinity of Corning, Mo. The two fellows drove through Nemaha Saturday in a light rig with a cover to it, and camped near Henry Clark's farm that night. The officers from Missouri were on their track, and had been at Brownville, leaving a description of the fellows. Sunday morning the thieves drove through Brownville and then went west. Wm. Rossell and Jim Miller followed them, informed Constable Lawrence, and they were turned over to the Missouri officials.

Annual Meeting and Picnic of the Old Settlers' Association.

Arrangements are being made for the best celebration ever held in Nemaha at the annual meeting and picnic of the Old Settlers' Association, on Saturday, August 22nd. Hon. M. L. Hayward, of Nebraska City, Hon. A. J. Weaver, of Falls City, Hon. T. J. Majors, Hon. Church Howe, and probably other speakers will be present. The Brownville brass band has been engaged. Arrangements will be made for base ball, foot races, etc.

The committee on the log cabin requests all who desire to furnish a log to have the same delivered at Nemaha during the coming week, as they want to raise the cabin Saturday of next week. Every one who so desires is solicited to bring in a log 16 feet long, on which will be inscribed the name of the giver and the year he came to the state.

DISTRICT COURT.

An adjourned session of the district court was held Monday and Tuesday morning at the court house in this city. Judge Stull, presided.

William Mountz, of Aspinwall precinct, charged with stealing a pocket-book at the Woodman picnic at Howe several weeks ago, plead guilty to petit larceny and was sentenced to thirty days in the county jail.

B. G. Whittemore plead guilty to the charge of rape and was sentenced to the penitentiary for a term of ten years.

The sale of the G. H. Kimberly land in Aspinwall precinct to W. T. Boone was confirmed and a deed ordered.

In the matter of the sale of the land of the Collins estate, the referees reported that they believed there was a combination of persons to prevent honest and fair sales. The sale was thereby set aside and a new appraisalment and sale ordered.

The court adjourned until Saturday morning, at which time other law and equity cases will be heard.

The docket is pretty well cleared of all but jury cases, and today the number of cases not disposed of is less than for a number of years.
