Six weeks ago I suffered with a very severe cold; was almost unable to speak. My friends all advised me to consult a physician. Noticing Chamberlain's Cough Remedy advertised in the St. Paul Volks Zeitung I procured a bottle, and after taking it a short while was entirely well. I now most heartily recommend this remedy to anyone suffering with a cold. Wm. Keil, 678 Selby Ave., St. Paul, Minn. For sale by Taylor, the druggist.

Since 1878 there have been nine epidemics of dysentery in different parts of the country in which Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy was used with perfect success. Dysentery, when epidemic, is almost as severe and dangerous as Asiatic cholera. Heretofore the best efforts of the most skilled physicians have failed to check its ravages, this remedy, however, has cured the most malignant cases, both of children and adults, and under the most trying conditions, which proves it to be the best medicine in the world for bowel complaints. For sale by Taylor the druggist.

Minor Taylor has some new badges that take the cake.

Mrs. S. Brimble has the thanks of the editorial family for some fine sweet potatoes.

The ministers of the Church of God moved the tabernacle to Glen Rock the first of the week.

Geo. E. Dye brought us in a basket of delicious grapes last Saturday, for which he has our thanks.

Mrs. R. J. Duff returned home Thursday night of this week, after a visit of three or four weeks with her sister at Horton, Kansas.

Rev. M. M. Goode, of St. Joe, will preach at the Christian church at this place one week from next Sunday—Aug. 23d, at 11 o'clock a. m.

George Yackley received the sad news the first of this week of the death of his father, who passed away August 4th, at his home in Biggs, Illinois. He died from a cancer in the mouth.

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Titus and Joe started for Jewell county, Kansas Monday, to visit John F. Titus and family. Nat and Albert are baching, which accounts for their lean, lank and hungry looks.

A. V. Farson, sr., brought us in three ears of field corn Thursday that beats any we have seen this year. The ears measure 12, 13 and 14 inches in length and are 2 1/2 inches in diameter. That is certainly good corn for this time of the year.

Mr. Scarlett, of White Cloud, Kas., is visiting his father, Stephen Scarlett, and his sister, Mrs. J. D. Drumm, this week. We acknowledge a pleasant call from Mr. Scarlett Thursday. He says McKinley will have a big majority at White Cloud.

The Northwestern Yeast Co.'s agent is around again with samples of the wonderful Yeast Foam which is better than ever this year, owing to new machinery being used for pressing out the cakes; no excuse for having poor bread when you can get Yeast Foam, good flour and a hot oven.

Geo. N. Sanders brings us in some samples of what is called "cow corn." Each grain of corn has a husk on. It is raised considerably in some sections of the country to feed to stock, but is quite a curiosity here. Mrs. M. H. Crother brought the seed with her when she returned from California.

Will Russell brought in some potatoes Tuesday that are ahead of anything we have seen yet. There were ten large potatoes, the shortest being six inches in length and the longest seven and three-fourths inches, and all ten potatoes were dug from one hill. There were no small potatoes in the hill. Will says they are KeKinley potatoes. Who can beat them?

J. H. BROADY FOR CONGRESS.

Judge J. H. Broady, of Lincoln, was nominated for congressman from the First district Wednesday morning, by the combined democratic-populist-free silver party. There was quite a strife before the nomination was made, the judge winning on the twenty-first ballot.

DIARRHEA AND DYSENTERY are dangerous, and you should not be without a bottle of Beggs' Diarrhea Balsam in the house at this season of the year, as it relieves at once. No bad results follow. Sold by Taylor.

W. W. Sanders, Notary Public. Pensions papers of all kinds made out accurately. Legal documents drawn up. All business given prompt and careful attention.

THE LOG CABIN.

The committee on the log cabin inform us that arrangements have been made to raise the cabin Saturday of this week. The logs are about all on the ground, the clapboards are ready, and work will begin in the morning.

Arrangements are being made for a big Woodman of the World picnic at Nemaha in the near future, on the occasion of the unveiling of the monument erected by this order at the grave of Charles A. Titus. It is probable excursion trains will be run. The Beatrice camp, to which the deceased belonged, and the camps at Falls City, Shubert, Stella, Howe, Auburn and Nemaha will assist in the exercises. After the unveiling of the monument a basket picnic will be held in the park.

Annual Meeting of Picnic of the Old Settlers' Association.

Arrangements are being made for the best celebration ever held in Nemaha at the annual meeting and picnic of the Old Settlers' Association, on Saturday, August 22nd. Hon. M. L. Hayward, of Nebraska City, Hon. A. J. Weaver, of Falls City, Hon. T. J. Majors, Hon. Church Howe, and probably other speakers will be present. The Brownville and Stella brass bands have been engaged. Arrangements will be made for base ball, foot races, etc.

I am willing to investigate the aforementioned question with any man of the so-called Christian faith, who has respectable attainment in the arena of public discussion, having been challenged by E. S. Chamberlain of Brownville, Neb., to investigate some questions and the aforesaid would not affirm that the so-called Christian Church was Apostolic in organization, doctrine and practice, I now am willing to meet any man of the so-called Christian faith who wants to oppose the afore mentioned questions.

I remain an humble servant of Jesus Christ, contending for the faith that was once delivered to the Saints.

A DELIGHTFUL TIME.

This week while a school mistress and a lady of Nemaha were visiting at Mr. Howe's, Eugene, who by the way, is a friend to the ladies, desiring to insure them a good time, became so enthusiastic as to propose a buggy ride, and the girls like most other girls, consented.

Eugene proceeded to harness his driving team, known as Dick and Frank, and hitched them to his father's carriage, better known as binder trucks, with some boards attached on which they had been hauling dirt, in consequence one might know them to be very clean.

After seated they proceeded to wend their weary way to a village known as Nemaha, which they surprised, paraded and saluted. All the people of the village were in the streets thinking them to be the advance guard of some political organization, but Eugene by exhibiting his badge, assured them that he was for Brian. After the storm had subsided and they had called at one of the young ladies' homes they started westward and drew rein at Mr. Nat Titus', who supposed them to be his wife's folks from Arkansas, but after being assured that they were citizens, he gave them a hearty welcome and they spent a pleasant evening with Nat.

At a late hour they turned their weary steps homeward, but lo and behold the old team struck a mud hole and the mud struck the girls who proceeded to scream, just as all girls do when frightened, but Eugene, by his presence of mind, assured them that all was well for the boards were flexible and the remainder of the roads good, but just at that moment they came in contact with a small culvert and owing to the recent rains the dirt on the sides was heaving the result was that the trucks struck the bridge and the girls cried, oh! They reached home without serious damage.

The next morning the girls, better known as Nora and May, declined when asked to take another ride.

My little boy, when two years of age, was taken ill with bloody flux. I was advised to use Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy, and luckily procured part of a bottle. I carefully read the directions and gave it accordingly. He was very low, but slowly and surely he began to improve, gradually recovered, and is now as stout and strong as ever. I feel sure it saved his life. I never can praise the Remedy half its worth. I am sorry every one in the world does not know how it is, as I do.—Mrs. Lina S. Hinton, Grahamsville, Marion Co., Florida. For sale by Taylor, the druggist.
