 auction according to law. And all who are delinquent for personal property tax for the year 1896 and for years will receive notice hereof in the near future, and any who do not pay said delinquent taxes within 30 days of date of notice, or come to this office and fix some date when they will pay within a reasonable time, may expect to pay sheriff's fee for collection. Respectfully,

Local News.

Considerable sickness.

Last Sunday was Woodman day in Nemaha.

Andrew Aynes visited Auburn Wednesday.

Wm. Fuller, of Tecumseh, is visiting his brother-in-law, R. G. Emery.

Green Burgess visited friends in Missouri from Saturday until Monday.

Those parties who have promised to bring us wood are requested to bring in the same, as we need it.

Morg Frazier, heretofore a mossback rock ribbed democrat, was wearing a McKinley badge Thursday.

James A. Titus, Frank Woodward and V. P. Peabody attended the float convention at Tecumseh Monday.

Verne Robotham, of Julian, who has been visiting his friend James Gilmore for several days, returned home Tuesday.

We failed last week to notice the arrival of Grandma Elliott, who arrived from North Platte Tuesday evening of last week.

Geo Burgess has bought the William Dreury house, north of the park, and moved in this week. Mr. Dreury has moved to Johnson county.

Minor Taylor went to Holt county, Mo., Monday, to look after his farm.
 Charley Zook looked after the drug store during Minor's absence.

Chas. Galbraith no longer represents Uncle Sam, as he has quit carrying the star route mail. Geo. Chapman has taken his place. He moved to town this week.

On Wednesday Miss Sallie Coon brought us in some fine peaches. As most of the peaches are gone now, and these were especially good, they were quite a treat.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles M. Welton, of Hutchinson, Kansas, arrived in Nemaha Tuesday night, called here by the sickness and death of Mrs. Welton's father, John Barnes.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Argabright are rejoicing over the arrival of a little daughter, who was born Monday morning. Rape Elliott says he doesn't feel a bit older, even if he is grandpa.

PLASTERING.—I am now ready to do all kinds of plastering. Patching done neatly. Prices reasonable. Satisfaction guaranteed. Patronage solicited.
 GEO. BURGESS.

Tuesday of this week Stephen Cooper sold the residence where he has been living to Rev. J. W. Taylor, and the same day bought the house where Dr.
 Gaither formerly lived. He moved Wednesday.

Wm. Eagle brought in a load of watermelons Wednesday and made us present of a thirty-three pound one.
 We like watermelon, and it takes a big one to appease our appetite, but this one satisfied it to the fullest extent.

At the republican float convention held at Tecumseh Monday Hon. Church Howe was nominated for state senator from Nemaha and Johnson county.
 Hon. O. A. Corbin, of Johnson county, was nominated for float representative.
 Both were nominated by acclamation.

The republican county ticket is a good one. It is a winner. Compare the candidates on this ticket with the opposing candidates and you must admit that the republican candidates are the better fitted to do good service for the people. We will have more to say of the candidates hereafter.

REPUBLICAN CLUB MEETING.

The Nemaha McKinley club will meet next Monday night at 7:30 in the west room of the opera house building—the lower room. All republicans are invited.

Rev. J. W. Taylor has bought property in Nemaha, and will make his home here. We are very glad to have Father Taylor and his wife locate with us. He has been preaching in this section for forty years, and we would like to have him stay with us for forty years longer.

We witnessed a surgical operation on one of Chas. Stillwell's horses Wednesday forenoon, by H. A. Kyle, the veterinarian. The horse was suffering from an ulceration below one eye. The doctor trepanned the skull and took out a large quantity of matter. He seems to thoroughly understand his business.

Pres Barker brought us in some samples of corn Monday. He says Mart May had been bragging about his big corn, so he wanted to show us what good corn was. He says he has made Mart an exceedingly liberal offer, as he offered to take a load of Mart's corn (which Pres says is just the size to feed to calves without breaking the ears), and give in exchange a load of his good corn. Pres certainly has good corn.

Rev. George E. Price, of Elk Creek, preached at the Methodist church last Sunday morning, preaching an excellent sermon. In the evening the presiding elder, Rev. Peter Van Fleet, held the fourth quarterly meeting. After the sermon by the elder the sacrament of the Lord's Supper was administered Monday morning the quarterly conference was held. By a vote of every member of the quarterly conference it was requested that Rev. C. H. Gilmore be returned to this charge. He is more universally liked and respected than any pastor we ever had, and all hope he will be returned.

At the republican primaries in Nemaha precinct last Friday a motion was made that Seymour Howe, Dr. J.
 L. Melvin and M. H. Taylor be appointed a committee to report a list of delegates. The motion was carried and also a motion instructing the delegation to use all honorable means to secure the nomination of Seymour Howe as representative. The committee reported the following list of delegates: W. T. Russell, J. P. Hoover, W. Sanders, O. K. Fisher, John E. Crother, James A. Stephenson, James F. Drain, Wm. G. Maxwell, James A. Titus, I. P.
 Barnes, William H. Rider. These delegates were all elected. Forty nine votes were cast.

The members of the McKinley club met at THE ADVERTISER office last Friday afternoon and organized by electing the following officers: President—Stephen Gilbert.
 Vice President—V. P. Peabody.
 Secretary—W. W. Sanders.
 Assistant Secretary—Harry K. Mc-Candless.

Treasurer—James A. Titus.
 Executive Committee—Robert Frost, W. T. Russell, Seymour Howe.
 The first regular meeting of the club was held Monday night, in the lower west room of the opera house building.
 At least forty members were present, although very short notice had been given. Arrangements were made for regular weekly meetings on Monday night. Committees were appointed on speakers, music, constitution, etc., and arrangements made for a banner to be stretched across the street.

There are now 182 members on the club list.

We would suggest to our delinquent subscribers that a little money would come very handy these days.

AN OLD CITIZEN GONE.

John Barnes died Tuesday, Sept. 8th, 1896, at the residence of his son, L. H.
 Barnes, at the old home farm, northwest of Nemaha.

On the 28th of May, 1893, while at the Christian church, Mr. Barnes had a stroke of paralysis. For some time one side was almost completely paral-yzed, but he gradually grew better, but never recovered from the effects of this stroke. Last Sunday afternoon, while sitting in the house talking with a neighbor, he had another stroke of paralysis. From this he never rallied, lying in an apparently unconscious state until he passed away Tuesday afternoon, between 4 and 5 o'clock.

The funeral services were held at the Cumberland Presbyterian church, three miles northwest of Nemaha, to which the deceased belonged for many years. Rev. B. J. Johnston preached the funeral sermon. The remains were laid at rest in the Nemaha cemetery.

The deceased was seventy-five years of age last June. He was one of the Nemaha county pioneers, coming here in 1856. He was one of our most intellectual citizens, and his influence was always for good. He will be greatly missed.

The deceased leaves nine children to mourn his departure—Casner Barnes, Luther H. Barnes and Mrs. James F.
 Drain, of Nemaha precinct, Miss Lydia Barnes, of Peru, Isham B. Barnes, of Cowdridge, Kansas, Samuel Barnes, of Smith county, Kansas, David Barnes, of Grenada, Colorado, Mrs. Charles M.
 Welton, of Hutchinson, Kansas, and Mrs. B. L. Shellhorn, of Delphus, Kas.
 Mrs. Welton was the only one of the children living outside of the county who was able to be present.

A good man is gone.

Services will be held at the Episcopal church in Nemaha on the following dates:

Tuesday evening, Sept 15, by Rev J
 C Gardner.

Tuesday evening, Sept 22, by Rev I P Johnson.

Tuesday evening, Sept 29, by Rev J
 C Gardner.

 curately. Legal documents drawn up.
 All business given prompt and careful attention.

Last Sunday the Woodmen of the World unveiled the monument erected to the memory of Sovereign Charles A.

 Titus. This order erects a monument costing $100 over the grave of each deceased sovereign. The deceased was a member of the Beatrice camp, but the ceremonies were conducted by the Nemaha camp. We are informed that 573 members of this organization were present. The camps at Auburn, Howe, Stella, Shubert, Verdon, Salem and Barada were out in force.

At 2 o'clock the procession was formed at the park, headed by the Stella band, and marched to the cemetery. About 350 Woodmen were in the procession, besides many others.

At the cemetery, after the ritualistic ceremonies and the unveiling of the monument, the large crowd was addressed by Rev. Geo. E. Price, of Elk Creek, who gave a splendid address on the principles of woodcraft. Hon.
 Church Howe also made a brief but good talk eulogizing the good qualities of the deceased.

The monument erected is a handsome one of dark granite. It was made by Charles Neidhart, of Beatrice.

BOLD BURGLARY.

Last Wednesday evening Mrs. S. A.
 Scovill invited Mrs. J. W. Taylor down to her house to tea, as Mrs. Taylor was going home next morning. About 5 p. m., while she was entertaining her guest, some burglars stole down the ally, came through the back way, got in through the south window, took possession of the dining room, and proceeded to make themselves very much at home. When Mrs. Scovill discovered them she was very much alarmed, for she thought they wanted her money or her life. They told her if she would go back in the other room and not make an alarm or call the police they would do her no harm. Then they went to work and unpacked several baskets, and in a very short time the table fairly groaned under the weight of good things to eat. Then invited Mrs. Scovill and Mrs. Taylor out to supper. They were compelled to do this, as it was the only way they could get a chance to eat with Mrs. Taylor.
 Mrs. Taylor says Nemaha beats any place for good things to eat. After about three hours of fun they went home, all agreeing it was the most delightful surprise party they were ever at.

The ladies present were Mrs. Scovill, Mrs. J. W. Taylor, Mrs. Brimble, Mrs. Dr.
 Kay, Mrs. Morton, Mrs. Dr. Keeling, Mrs.
 Hartwick, Mrs. M. H. Taylor and little Gladys Taylor. ONE OF THEM.
