Henry Williams was up from Shubert Wednesday. Miss Emma Crim went to Syracuse Thursday, to visit her sister, Mrs. J. F. Wykes. Misses Brooks and Elliott will have a cloak sale in Nemaha, beginning Saturday, the 24th, and lasting one week. I. N. Cooper has moved down on his farm south of town, on which his son-in-law, Everett Larimore, was living. Charley Woodward went to Lincoln Wednesday, to attend business college. Frank went with him, returning the next day. We are requested to announce that Rev. E. S. Chamberlain will hold regular services in Nemaha on Sunday, October 18th. Doc Clark is feeling about as proud and happy as any one can—all on account of the birth of a handsome eight pound daughter. Mrs. Rosina Wheeler has been very sick with rheumatism for several days, but is improving under Dr. Kay's skillful treatment. The editor was unable to be out of bed Monday, but is now feeling a great deal better, and it is hoped the improvement will be permanent. Church Howe gave us a pleasant call Friday morning. Church has a walk-away this year, but is doing some hustling for the whole ticket. Go to the McKinley club meeting next Monday night, and listen to Hon. O. A. Corbin, candidate for float representative. He is a good talker. Hon. O. A. Corbin, of Johnson county, republican candidate for float representative, will address the Nemaha McKinley club next Monday night. The "Boy Tramp" made an excellent speech at the opera house last Saturday night. Although the night was quite stormy the hall was well filled. Henry C. Ferguson, republican candidate for the legislature, was getting Nemaha citizens Tuesday. Mr. Ferguson will make a good representative. Marie Tourtelot, offician, of Lincoln, will be in Nemaha Friday, October 23rd, at Taylor's drug store. Any one not suited with glasses should call on her. The new sidewalk at the Methodist church was paid for by the Methodist ladies' aid society—not by the ladies of the church, as THE ADVERTISER stated last week. Mrs. Klise, of Garnett, Kansas, is visiting her daughters, Mrs. Mattie Woodward and Mrs. Fannie Yackly, and her sisters, Mrs. Ollie Scovill and Mrs. Pres Barker. Hon. G. W. Cornell will address the people of Nemaha on the political issues of the day Saturday night of this week, at Hoover's opera house. Every body is invited to be present. Dr. John B. Jack is making friends wherever he goes. He is a good physician and a fine young man in every way. Be sure and see that his name is not missed when you go to vote. Mrs. M. C. Williams, of Orange, California, arrived in Nemaha Friday of last week, on a visit to her brother, Charley Curtright. She left for Anamosa, Iowa, on Tuesday, to visit other relatives.

WOOD AND CORN.

We wish all our delinquent subscribers who can furnish us wood or corn would bring the same in at once, as we need it. Either old or new corn will be taken.

The Bennett mill is again running, with James F. Bennett in charge. Mr. Bennett informs us he is now prepared to grind buckwheat and rye, in addition to regular grist work, and solicits patronage.

Judge S. P. Davidson, of Tecumseh, will address the Nemaha McKinley club Monday evening, October 26th. The judge is an able speaker and will make an interesting address. Euerys body is invited.

Chris Shuck has bought the Banks house in the western part of town, occupied by Green Burgess, and Jake and Phil Shuck have moved in. Mr. Burgess will occupy part of the house until after election.

Judge Stull made one of the best speeches of the county campaign at Brownville Monday night. He was the principal speaker, as Church Howe and Judge Barnham were both at another appointment.

REWARD—$25 reward will be paid for evidence that will convict the person or persons who cut the wires on the division fence between the undersigned. C. C. SEELY, GEO. E. DYE.

As Prof. J. C. Shull wanted to get out and do a little campaigning, he secured permission of the school board to have ex Superintendent Wm. M. Crichton take his place for a few days. Prof. Crichton has been teaching this week.

The republican meeting at Hillsdale Tuesday night was a good one. The house was jammed full, and big crowds stood around on the outside, at the door and windows. Church Howe, A. J. Burnham and O. A. Corbin were the principal speakers.

The members of the Nemaha McKinley glee club—Messrs. Crother, Zook, Dorram and Maxwell—are covering themselves all over with glory this campaign by their singing. At Brownville and Hillsdale their singing brought forth enthusiastic applause.

John Dorram had one of the poorest counterfeit dimes passed on him a few days ago that we have ever seen. It has the appearance of being manufactured very recently, and it would be well for all to be on their guard, as a gang of counterfeiters may be in this vicinity.

Rev. C. H. Gilmore moved to Brownville Thursday, into the M. E. parsonage recently purchased. The citizens of Nemaha regret very much to have Bro. Gilmore and family move away from Nemaha, but are glad that he will continue to preach for us the ensuing year.

A CARD OF THANKS.

The wife, parents, brothers and sister of Everett Larimore wish to return their heartfelt thanks to the Woodmen of the World and to the friends and neighbors for their valuable aid and assistance during the illness of the deceased.

At the republican caucus held last Saturday the following nominations were made for precinct officers: For assessor—James F. Drain. For justice of the peace to fill vacancy—John E. Crother. For constable to fill vacancy—D. T. Smiley. For judges of election—G. N. Titus, Wm. G. Maxwell, Walter Hadlock. For clerks of election—Chas. F. Zook, W. W. Sanders. For road overseers—Dist. 32, Robert Frost; Dist. 33, Wm. W. Seid; Dist. 34, W. T. Russell. Ripans Tabules cure biliousness. Ripans Tabules cure torpid liver.

The entertainment given by the juvenile literary society at the opera house Friday night of last week was excellent. The little folks always do well, especially when trained by Miss Brooks. As there was a drizzling rain nearly all the evening, many were kept from attending, and it was therefore decided to repeat the entertainment Friday night of this week.

Hon. O. A. Corbin, republican candidate for float representative, gave us a pleasant call Tuesday. Mr. Corbin was the float representative from Nemaha and Johnson counties during the session of 1889, and served with honor and credit to himself and the counties he represented. Nothing has ever been charged against him as an honorable man, and all admit his ability.

Nemaha precinct should give Seymour Howe a big vote. He has lived here almost ever since the town was started, and no one ever knew him to do anything mean or dishonorable. He is a man of strong convictions and is not afraid to express them; a man of unswerving integrity, whose word is as good as his bond. He will always be found voting and working on the right side.

The McKinley club "flung its banner to the breeze" last Saturday. It is 45 feet long and a yard wide, and is stretched across the street from the opera house to the flag pole. On the banner in two lines covering almost its entire length is painted in large letters, "McKinley and Hobart Club of Nemaha City, Nebr. A Sound Dollar and a Chance to Earn It." Sherm Hadlock did the painting.

There will be services in the Episcopal church at Nemaha on Thursday evening, Oct. 22nd, by Rev. Irving P. Johnson, of South Omaha, district presbyter of the Episcopal church. He is very anxious to meet all interested in the resuming of regular services in this church. He will also hold meetings at Peru Wednesday evening, and at Auburn Friday evening. A general invitation is extended the public to attend these services.

A. J. Burnham, the republican candidate for county attorney, has been making some splendid speeches during the present campaign, not only in Nemaha but in Johnson and Richardson counties. Mr. Burnham is now serving the fourth year as county attorney. During the time he has been in office he has not only conducted the criminal cases with ability, but has saved the county a great deal by his advice to the commissioners. He is deserving of re-election. He will receive more than the republican vote.

Mrs. William H. Brookover died at her residence in Brownville Thursday, October 15th, of consumption. The deceased was a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse B. Farmer. After a happy married life of only a little over two years the loving husband is called upon to bid farewell to the one whom he had chosen as his life companion, and now he is left alone. The bereaved ones have the sympathy of all in their hour of trial.

A baby girl, about one year one old is left, which the mother previous to her death gave to her sister, Mrs. Ed Fuller, of Vesta, who has had the care of the little one for several months, during the mother's sickness.

The funeral services were held at the Christian church at Nemaha Friday forenoon.
