Dr. Callison, the dentist, was over from Stella Monday.

Hon. T. J. Majors was in town a few hours Saturday evening.

Ed M. and Robt. C. Beyd, of Auburn, were in town a few hours Sunday, the guests of F. L. Woodward.

Jim Titus thought we needed something to freshen us up, so he brought us a big bunch of pie plant Saturday.

Considerable fall wheat has been plowed up and the ground planted in corn, as the wheat badly winter killed.

Stephen Cooper was sworn in as marshal of Nemaha Monday night. Let offenders against the law look out.

We acknowledge the receipt of the program of the commencement exercises of the Odell high school, of which Prof. J. H. Veeder is principal.

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Shubert, of Aspinwall precinct, died Thursday of last week, of whooping cough. The bereaved parents have our sympathy.

M. T. Hill was over from Stella Monday talking fire insurance to the Nemaha people. Mart is agent for the German mutual fire insurance company, of Omaha.

The third quarterly conference of the M. E. church will be held at Nemaha Saturday, May 29th, at 3 o'clock p. m. All official members are requested to be present.

Wray Taylor bought a new buggy of G. F. Leming on Saturday and drove overland to Lincoln, where he will visit his family for a week.—Stella Press.

This must account for the burning on Sunday night of the drug store where Wray has been clerking.

Last year Wm Anderson raised considerable broom corn and has been manufacturing the same into brooms. He makes a first class article and is selling them as fast as he makes them. He will raise more broom corn this year and go into the business more extensively.

Stella is having bad luck lately. Two or three weeks ago fire destroyed three stores, and Sunday night Galush Melvin's drug store was burned. The fire started in the rear room and burned or ruined all the contents. The building was brick and the walls were left standing. The stock was insured.

Mr. and Mrs. Hannibal Bennett were the victims of a runaway Sunday night. They had been to church in Nemaha and when they started home the mules became frightened and ran away. They ran into the barb wire fence in the east part of town, breaking the tongue and upsetting the buggy. Mr. and Mrs. Bennett were thrown out but fortunately not injured, except for the jarring they received. The mules escaped with a few scratches.

J.

Mrs. Fairbank for fine millinery.

The ladies of the M. E. church will serve ice cream and cake every Saturday afternoon at the millinery parlors of Mrs. Fanny Fairbank. The proceeds will go toward repairing the church—putting on a hard coat of plaster, and other needed repairs. The Methodist ladies have the reputation of serving good ice cream and cake, and deserve the patronage of the public.

The Nemaha schools closed last Friday. During the past two years the school has been laboring under the serious disadvantage of having only two teachers, while teaching nine grades, and of course the teachers could not do themselves nor the pupils justice. Nevertheless the school during the past year has been an excellent one, and will compare favorably with any other school of like size in the county.

Miss May Brooks, who has taught the primary department of our school for the past five years—the longest term any one teacher ever held a position in the Nemaha school—will retire from the school room and undertake the training of one pupil. Miss Brooks has gained the love of her pupils and the respect of the parents during her residence among us, and we are glad to know that she will not leave Nemaha.

The body of Sam Honk, who was drowned at St. Deroin two weeks ago, was found floating in the Missouri river, three miles below Corning, Mo., Tuesday, by some men who were fishing. After the coroner's inquest was held by the Missouri coroner, the body was put in a coffin, brought to Hillsdale, and buried Wednesday morning. The body had been in the water eleven of twelve days.

The fifth annual commencement of the Nemaha high school was held at Hoover's opera house Friday night of last week. The orations of Miss Annie Frost, Mr. Leslie Woodward, Miss Florence Minick, Mr. Robert P. Frost and Miss Hattie Burgess, the graduates, were all excellent, the thoughts expressed and language chosen were good, and they were delivered in clear tones, so all could be heard in all parts of the opera house, which was crowded. The graduates were the recipients of a profusion of handsome baskets of flowers, bouquets, etc. The class address of Rev. W. Dieffenbach, of Auburn, was one of the best ever given in Nemaha. The music was fine, the singing of the male quartet, composed of Messrs. J. L. Melvin, E. J. Maxwell, John Derram and E. E. Rumbaugh being especially well received. Taken altogether, it was one of the best commencements the Nemaha school has ever had.

For a number of years the farmers of Nemaha county have had a mutual fire insurance company, and it has saved them thousands of dollars that would otherwise have been paid to old line companies. The German Mutual Fire Insurance company of Omaha is a mutual company that has been tested and proven all right. This company sustained three or four losses in the fire three or four weeks ago at Stella, and they were promptly paid. M. T. Hill, of Stella, is agent for this company. If you want insurance that is cheap, safe and reliable, see him.

L. H. Barnes has received some samples of his wheel wrench, and was exhibiting one on the streets Wednesday. Every one who examined it said it was a fine thing. It seems to fill a long felt want.

Mrs. Anna Shaw, an old settler of this county, who came to Nemaha in 1858, afterward moved to Aspinwall, and went to Wyoming a few years ago, died at Tie Sididg, in that state, recently. Mr. Shaw died over a year ago.

The new school house at Hillsdale was completed last week, seats put in, and is now ready to be occupied. It is a good house and cost complete about $600. The district got about $550 insurance on the old house when it burned down.

Alf Kinton says he has corn to spare as his corn has come up so well he will have to thin it out some. He says those of his neighbors who are having to replant can have about one-fourth of his corn to transplant if they will come over and get it.

Mrs. R. T. Devorss, of Aspinwall precinct, was called to Missouri two weeks ago by the sickness and death of an uncle. She returned to Nemaha Wednesday evening, and on account of the rain remained here until the next day.

Nellie Sanders invited a number of her friends to assist her in celebrating in a fitting manner her twelfth birthday anniversary Tuesday, and twenty of her school mates and friends (including her teacher, Miss May Brooks), had a joyful time from four until eight p. m. Ice cream, cake and strawberries were served.

The unveiling will take place one week from next Sunday, at Prairie Union. Rev. Chas. H. Gilmore will make the address. The sovereigns will meet at their hall in Nemaha at 10 a. m. All neighboring camps are invited to be present and assist on this occasion.

EDITOR ADVERTISER:—Our public schools closed at the opera house Friday night, May 21. A class of five graduated. The Nemaha quartet furnished the music. Rev. Dieffenbach gave the class address and Robert Frost presented the diplomas to the class in a graceful manner. Our patrons are proud of the class, as they made the following good average: Annie Frost, 88; Robert Frost, 86; Hattie Burgess, 85; Leslie Woodward, 85; Flo Minick, 92. It is to be hoped that our school board will employ three teachers next year, as our school has been too much crowded for two teachers. A TAX PAYER.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.
