Mrs. Nora Minick came in from Bracken Tuesday.
Attorney A. J. Burnham was in from Auburn Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Dalby drove up from Shubert Monday.
Wm. H. Hill, deputy sheriff, was in town Thursday afternoon.
Charley Curtright is peddling raspberries through the country.
Dr. Melvin and Elmer Rumbaugh visited Shubert Tuesday evening.
Dr. Tyler and Jas. R. Dye drove in from Auburn Thursday forenoon.
Make your preparations to attend the old settlers' picnic August 7th.
Harvey Thompson, who is now proprietor of the Shubert barber shop, was in town Monday.
Brownville will have two bands, a game of base ball and twelve races at the celebration tomorrow.
Two "cullud gemmen" and a boy gave some musical exhibitions and dancing on the streets Monday night.
D. C. Miller went to Auburn Thursday. He said he was going to apply to Church Howe for a position in the Samoan islands.
Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Berger returned home Monday, after a two weeks' visit with their daughter, Mrs. T. A. Lorraine, at Beatrice.
Mart May subscribes for another copy of THE ADVERTISER, which he orders sent to his brother, T. R. May, at Carl Junction, Mo.
John Clark returned home Monday from Beatrice, where he had been visiting his daughter and attending the chautauqua for a few days.
Elder L. P. Bush, of Tecumseh, who preached at the Christian church Saturday night and Sunday, gave us a social call Saturday afternoon.
Eighteen good sized Early Ohio potatoes were dug out of one hill in the editorial garden Thursday, and numerous small potatoes were left in the ground. Who can beat that record?
Married.—At the office of the county judge, in Beatrice, Nebraska, Wednesday, June 23rd, 1897, Mr. Jeremiah Colerick and Miss Floyd Laird, both of Nemaha. Congratulations are extended to Mr. and Mrs. Colerick.
The editor feasted on roasting ears Wednesday out of his own garden, but for the benefit of the Auburn Post the information is given that the editor is not the gardener—the credit is due to his father-in-law, J. B. Berger.
Newt Jarvis says he wants us to take out the local about his having cane seed for sale, as he has sold out long ago, and is bored by people running after him to buy cane seed. All of which shows that it pays to advertise.
Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Kindig, who have taught in the public schools at Filly for two or three years, are spending the vacation with Mrs. Kindig's parents, Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Peabody, of Aspinwall precinct. They came in Monday from Beatrice, having attended the chautauqua.

Dr. J. L. Melvin.

Office at residence, south of Minick store building.

READ OUR CONTINUED STORY.

We begin the publication this week of a continued story by Captain Charles King, called "Captain Close." It is a very interesting story, and will run fourteen weeks.

ICE CREAM SOCIABLE.

The Methodist ladies' aid society will give an ice cream sociable at the church yard on Saturday evening, July 10th. The proceeds will be used in repairing the church. Everybody is invited.

Hon. Church Howe, of Auburn, was on Tuesday nominated by the president as consul-general to Apia, in the Samoan islands. The nomination was brought about by the influence of Senator Thurston. The office will pay a salary of $3,000, with possibly an increase by reason of fees and perquisites.

Steve Cooper is accused of stealing a hen and thirteen chickens. The fact that the hen is too poor to make good eating and the chickens too small makes it hard for us to believe the report, but it may be that was the only kind he could catch, and the habits he formed while living near the Indian reservation were so strong he could not resist the temptation.

The Junior Epworth League elected the following officers last Sunday:

President—May Kerker.
First vice president—Willie Sanders.
Second V. P.—Cyrus Minick.
Third V. P.—Rosie Seabury.
Fourth V. P.—Flossie Waterman.
Secretary—Lizzie Melvin.
Treasurer—Nellie Sanders.
Organist—Lillie Minick.
Assistant organist—Flo Minick.

The annual school meeting was held Monday night. After the reading and approval of the reports of the director and moderator, two members of the school board were elected. F. L. Woodward was re-elected on the first ballot. On the second ballot Dr. W. W. Keeling was elected to take the place of Seymour Howe, who had declined to again be a candidate. A levy of 25 mills was made—10 mills for teachers fund and 15 mills for incidental expenses.

The semi-annual election of officers at the M. E. Sunday school last Sunday resulted as follows:

Superintendent—Dr. W. W. Keeling.
Assistant superintendent—Rev. J. W. Taylor.
Secretary—Veva Clark.
Assistant secretary—Trixy Seabury.
Treasurer—Mrs. Fannie Fairbank.
Organist—Mabel Brogan.
Assistant organist—Lillian Minick.
Librarian—May Kerker.
Assistant Librarian—Flossie Waterman.

Guy Bunn, an inmate of the poor house, was found dead in bed Sunday morning. Bunn was about 23 years of age and was a big, stout looking fellow but was subject to fits. He had several fits Saturday evening and told Mr. Maxwell he felt "rocky." He was advised to go to bed and did so. Early the next morning he was found dead, and had evidently been dead for some time. He had evidently died without a struggle, as he was lying on his back in a natural position with his arms folded across his breast. He was buried Monday.

Private money to loan on farm security on the best terms that were ever made in Nemaha county, by Wesley Dundas, Auburn, Nebraska.

Kansas Champion will make the season of 1897 at my farm, one mile south of Nemaha. Terms, $7.00 to insure a colt to stand and suck.

Rev. P. Van Fleet, the presiding elder of the Nebraska City district of the M. E. church, who has resided in this city for two years last past, has just been honored with the degree of D. D., Doctor of Divinity, from Taylor university, in the state of Indiana, of which university the doctor is an alumnus. This is indeed a worthy compliment to the popular reverend gentleman, and his many friends in this city and in this district will rejoice to recognize this distinction. From this time forth it is to be Dr. Van Fleet.—Nebraska City News

BERT BUCHENAU DEAD.

J. P. Hoover received a letter on Monday from the mother of Bert Buchenau, telling of his death, which occurred Tuesday, June 22nd, at Twin Bluffs, Wis. Mrs. Buchenau writes that when the doctor dressed the wound that morning Bert said he never felt better in his life. His death resulted from the effects of the wound received in Nemaha over two years ago. Only his wonderful vitality kept him alive so long. After he went to Wisconsin an operation revealed the fact that a piece of the drainage tube that was put in while Bert was in Nemaha had broken off when the tube was extracted and remained in until the last operation.

SENATOR WM. V. ALLEN MAY COME.

In response to an invitation to address the old settlers' meeting August 7th, Senator William V. Allen writes as follows:

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 28, '97.
MR. W. W. SANDERS, Nemaha, Neb.
DEAR SIR—I am in receipt of your favor of recent date and I regret that I am not yet able to say whether I can be with you or not at the annual meeting of the old settlers of Nemaha county. I would gladly do so if it were within my power, but I beg you to believe that I am worn down from hard work and am very anxious to see my family just as soon as congress adjourns. If, however, I find it possible to be with you I will wire you to that effect. Very truly yours,
WM. V. ALLEN.

Take the wagonette when in Auburn for any part of the city. Easy riding. Quick time. All trains met. John McElhaney, proprietor.

SOMETHING TO KNOW.

It may be worth something to know that the very best remedy for restoring the tired out nervous system to a healthy vigor is Electric Bitters. This remedy is purely vegetable, acts by giving tone to the nerve centers in the stomach, gently stimulates the liver and kidneys, and aids these organs in throwing off impurities in the blood. Electric Bitters improves the appetite, aids digestion, and is pronounced by those who have tried it as the very best blood purifier and nerve tonic. Try it. Sold for 50c and $1 per bottle at Taylor's drug store.

You may hunt the world over and you will not find another medicine equal to Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It is pleasant, safe and reliable. For sale by Taylor, the druggist.

STRAY OBSERVATIONS.

No appointment President McKinley has made has given such general satisfaction as that of Church Howe to be consul general to the Samoan islands. In the first place, Church's many friends are glad to see him secure an honorable and lucrative position. Then the pops are shedding no tears at the prospect of Howe being unable to help man the pumps when their prize torpedo boat, the Cornell, makes its usual attempt to knock a hole in the old republican ship this fall. And Col. Tom Majors, while regretting to see his old friend leave Nemaha county, realizing that he will no longer be able to receive invaluable advice pertaining to farm matters as of yore, yet nobly represses his grief as he reflects that Nemaha county's loss is Samoa's gain. The Samoan islands are thirteen in number, with an area of about 2,600 square miles—a population of 56,000. Ten of the islands, however, are barren, uninhabited rocks. The remaining three are very fertile and have an area of about 1,300 square miles—three times the size of Nemaha county. The islands are 400 miles from the Feejee islands and not far from Disappointment island. They are a little over 5,000 miles from San Francisco—air line—and oh, so far from Nemaha county. The islands are under a protectorate controlled by the consuls general of Great Britain, Germany and the United States. The consuls general do not always agree, so Howe is likely to see some times that will remind him of a Nemaha county republican convention. As we remarked before, Mr. Howe's appointment gives general satisfaction.

We heard a prominent Richardson county democrat say the other day, that while he believed as a general thing in party loyalty, yet as John S. Stull has made the best and most important judge the first district has ever had, he proposed to support him if he is a candidate for re-election in '99. And the same day we heard a populist who was disloyal enough to remark, "As far as I am concerned, I would just as soon hear Church Howe speak as to hear Billy Bryan." Treason, brethren, treason!

The way Billy Kelligar and Edgar Ferneau wept because Church Howe is going to leave the country is "highly ticklesome," to say the least.

NEWS FROM OUR NEIGHBORING TOWNS.

[Gleaned from our exchanges.]

W. W. James will build a handsome residence in Peru.

D. Y. Culbertson, a former citizen and old settler of Nemaha county, died last week at Maryville, Mo.

Prof. Charles Fordyce, formerly of Auburn, has been elected dean of the faculty of the Wesleyan university at Lincoln.

O. P. Dovel, a London precinct farmer, has sold forty-three bushels of cherries from sixteen trees, at five cents per quart.

Mrs. M. H. Barnes, an old resident of Peru, died in Idaho one day last week, while en route for Los Gatos, California, where she intended to spend a year for her health.

The strange man who has been in jail at Auburn for several weeks, has been identified as Wm. Elliott, an escaped patient from the insane asylum at Lincoln, and he was returned to institution.

The June term of district court commenced at Auburn last Thursday, with Judge Stull presiding. As most of the jurors were farmers, who are very much rushed with their work just now, they were excused and all jury cases continued until July 26.

C. C. Gilliland and A. P. Cathcart, while getting sand for the new dormitory at Peru, Wednesday of last week, narrowly escaped death from suffocation by a cave-in. Both men were completely buried under several feet of sand, and if it had not been for the presence of some other men, who dug them out, would have quickly perished. As it was, Mr. Cathcart escaped with a dislocated shoulder and crushed chest, and Mr. Gilliland was badly sprained about the hips. Both men are rapidly recovering from their injuries.
