FRIDAY, NOV. 24, 1899.

Vice President Garrett A. Hobart, who has been sick for some time, died Tuesday.

Senator Hayward remains in a critical condition and his recovery is very doubtful.

James A. Titus came down town Friday for the first time in several days, having been on the sick list.

Bishop Williams held services at the Episcopal church Thursday night. Mr. and Mrs. John Kempthorne were confirmed.

There are only eight states that grow more corn than they consume. They are Kansas, Nebraska, Iowa, Illinois, Missouri, Indiana, Texas and Ohio.

Editor Stowell and wife started last week for the old home in New York state to visit parents and friends and get away from the duties of the office for awbile.

Miss Mabel Beam, of Idaho City, Idaho, came to Nemaha Saturday to spend the winter with her uncle, E. S. Morrison. She will attend school at Maple Grove.

Nebraska's corn crop this year will of Holiday Goods. be something wonderful to contemplate. Three hundred millions of bushels of maize is the estimated crop for this state alone

The Auburn Herald, realizing that republican prosperity is here and believing that it is here to stay, has bought new body type and will come out in a new dress this week.

Lieutenant Governor Gilbert says: "In name. I am a silver republican; in substance, I am a democrat; in fact, I am a populist." Mr. Gilbert seems to be indifferent as to name -- Ex.

We are informed that some persons think the item about the fire at V. P. Peabody's recently was a reflection on the teacher or school board of the Larkin school, as the item said Mr Peabody's grandson picked up the heads of the matches from the floor of the school house. We do not see how this can be construed into a reflection on either teacher or school board. It was certainly not so intended by eithe: Mr. Peabody or the editor.
