PAINTS AND OILS

If you want anything in our line call and see us. Prices

The protracted meeting at the Methodist church closed Sunday night. Mrs. W. E. Seid joined by letter from the Christian church, making sixteen additions to the membership during the meetings. Much good was accomplished.

J. W. Weeber has bought a five-acre tract southeast of the Catholic church in South Auburn, paying $2,300 for it. It is a nice home, and the price paid shows that Wallace is enjoying some of the fruits of prosperity even under the gold standard and horrid republican rule.

Kemp Colerick came back from Iowa Tuesday. His wife came back Thursday, driving in from Auburn, and had Kemp arrested charged with stealing some money from her while they were in Iowa. Kemp was taken to Auburn by the deputy sheriff. A compromise was effected, however, and Kemp and his wife returned to Nemaha Friday.

Luther H. Barnes and Henry Van Meter, who have been searching for a new location in southwestern Missouri and southeastern Kansas, returned home Wednesday without deciding on a location. The trouble with the boys is that they want to find a country as good as Nemaha county, and they can't find it. They were gone about three weeks.

We have had a "spell of weather" this week. Wednesday evening it began to sleet and kept it up with intervals of snow all night. The ground is covered with sleet and snow, and where the wind had a chance it blew off all the loose snow, leaving the balance as hard and almost as slick as ice. The boys were skating through the streets Thursday and Friday.

Harness Shop Wanted.

Nemaha needs a harness shop and the man who puts one in here could soon work up a good business. Who will be the man?

Call on us for job work.

Ben Parker, the Singer sewing machine man at Auburn, has engaged the services of C. W. Norton, an expert machinist, and is prepared to clean and repair sewing machines of all kinds. If you have a machine you want cleaned or repaired write to Mr. Parker or send him the machine. Second hand machines for sale.

J. E. Conley, the Brownville jeweler, will make regular trips to Nemaha Tuesdays and Wednesdays of each week, prepared to do all kinds of fine watch, clock and jewelry repairing. Nothing but first class work will be done. All work warranted. He also carries a fine line of jewelry. Leave work or orders at the Park hotel.

Lagrippe, with its after effects, annually destroys thousands of people. It may be quickly cured by One Minute Cough Cure, the only remedy that produces immediate results in coughs, colds, croup, bronchitis, pneumonia and throat and lung troubles. It will prevent consumption. Keeling

Millions Given Away

It is certainly gratifying to the public to know of one concern in the land who are not afraid to be generous to the needy and suffering. The proprietors of Dr King's New Discovery for Consumption, Coughs and Colds have given away over ten million trial bottles of this great medicine; and have the satisfaction of knowing it has absolutely cured thousands of hopeless cases. Asthma, Bronchitis, Hoarseness and all diseases of the Throat, Chest and Lungs are surely cured by it. Call on Keeling the druggist and get a free trial bottle. Regular size 50c and $1. Every bottle guaranteed or price refunded.

J D Bridges, editor Democrat, Lancaster, N H, says: One Minute Cough Cure is the best remedy for croup I ever used. It immediately relieves and cures coughs, colds, croup, asthma, pneumonia, bronchitis, grippe and all throat and lung troubles. It prevents consumption. Keeling.

Mrs. Nancy Worrell died Sunday, February 4th, at the residence of her son-in-law, Marshal Webb. The funeral services, conducted by Rev. J. E. Wallace, of Tecumseh, were held Monday, at the Christian church, of which deceased was a member. Mrs. Worrell was born June 12th, 1825, in Floyd county, Virginia. At the age of 20 she was united in marriage to Fleming Worrell. To this union were born eight children, only two of whom are living. Her husband died Dec. 7th, 1864.

Mrs. Worrell united with the Christian church at Nemaha about twelve years ago, and has lived a faithful Christian life. She was 74 years, one month and 22 days old at her death.

The deceased was the mother of Mrs. Morg Frazier of this place.
