me from the district court of Nemaha county the district court of Nemaha county, Neb., on the 15th day of November, 1898, in a cer-

A. F. Walsh enjoyed a visit from

The republican candidates on the county ticket held a meeting at the Champion school house Friday night, Shockey school house Monday night, Hillsdale Tuesday night and St. De-good audiences at each place.

Bena lodge of Rebekahs had an especial good meeting Wednesday night, when Mr. and Mrs. Charley Howe and Miss May Kerker were intiated. After the meeting a nice sup-work in the initiatory ceremony. This lodge is rapidly growing.

took a long walk over the ground they used to play on when boys. It is now built up in many places with fine residences, and very few of the old landmarks are left.

He Learned a Great Truth.
It is said of John Wesley that he once said to Mistress Wesley, "Why do you tell that child the same thing over and over again?" "John Wesley, because once telling is not enough." It is for the same reason that you are told again and again that Chamberlain's Cough Remedy cures colds and grip; that it counteracts any tendency of these diseases to result in pneumonia, and that it is pleasant and safe to take. For sale by W. W. Keeling

Tuesday night Abe Lawrence left a laprobe, whip and revolver in his buggy at Hillsdale while he was at the republican meeting. After the meeting the above articles were missing. The next morning, by doing a little detective work, he discovered his whip at the home of a Mr. Stokes, a young man living on the county line, and on Abe's accusing the fellow of the theft he owned up and returned the stolen articles. The next day he was arrested and taken to Auburn for trial.

The culinary pages of the Delineator for November breathe the spirit of the Thanksgiving feast, but they are not filled with the trite recipes that it is customary in many publications to reusitate at this season. And the title of the paper in the "Carlotta and I," series, An Old-fashioned Thanksgiving," might suggest the contrary. but the dishes therein explained are of such an age that they are disregarded in this day, to the great loss of modern gourmands, and well merit retelling.
Likewise the wording of "A Colonial Dinner for Thanksgiving" is misleading, for it is not the New England dinner enjoyed by our forefathers, with which every one is familiar, but a more elaborate affair, denominated a la Russe and, doubtless, as delectable. A Witch's supper for Hallowe'en and some Sweet Sauces are both enticing, and Mushrooms in Delicious Forms contains some worthy suggestions for the housewife. Two illustrated pages of cakes for special occasions are an attractive feature.

Catarrh of the Stomach.
When the stomach is overloaded; when food is taken into it that fails to digest, it decays and inflames the mucous membrane, exposing the nerves, and causes the glands to secrete mucus instead of the natural juices of digestion. This is called catarrh of the stomach, caused by indigestion. Doctors and medicines failed to benefit me until I used Kodol Dyspepsia Cure.—

While driving in the vicinity of Howe, Sunday afternoon, Rev. D. B.
Lake was the victim of an exciting runaway that threatened serious results. The centerpiece of the neck-yoke became unbolted, letting the carriage tongue down. The horses became frightened at the accident and started to run away. Before they were checked they broke a wheel of the vehicle so badly that it cannot be repaired. The wagon tongue was broken in two. Rev. Lake was in a position during the runaway that he could not jump from the vehicle on account of the hood being up. It was miraculous that he escaped personal injury as it looked for a time as if he would be killed or seriously hurt.
