G. N. Titus and E. J. Maxwell went to Lincoln Thursday morning.

Mrs. M. A. Curtis went to Peru Wednesday to visit relatives.

M. H. Taylor of Shubert was a Nemaha visitor Tuesday afternoon.

Mrs. W. F. Keeling is looking after the store during Will's absence.

Mrs. C. P. Barker went to Shubert Monday evening, returning Thursday morning.

Mrs. W. W. Keeling went to Omaha Tuesday to visit her daughter, Mrs. Culver.

Miss Mary Steuteville of Brownville called on Nemaha friends Saturday forenoon.

W. W. Seid went to Lincoln Tuesday morning, on business, returning Wednesday evening.

We have shoved all our advertising off the first page this week, just to see how it will look.

Mrs. M. J. Hoover, who has been visiting in Nemaha for some time, returned to Auburn Sunday.

Mrs. Harry Harrington and three younger children came in from Crab Orchard Monday afternoon.

Fortis Harrington came in from Crab Orchard last Saturday to be with his father, Harry Harrington.

Miss Elizabeth Hawxby started for Chicago last Friday morning, where she will attend a summer school.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Harrington went to Peru Thursday morning, to visit relatives, returning in the evening.

Clyde Harford starts today for New York City, where he will join the United States Navy, and become a sailor bold.

Curt Brown has been all swelled up—not because he feels proud but because he has had a bad case of poisoning.

Mrs. H. A. Brand, who has been staying with her son, Dr. J. W. Bourne, at Auburn, came in to Nemaha Sunday.

Little Helen Knapp, daughter of Eli Knapp of Stella, fell out of a hammock Tuesday, badly bruising her shoulder.

Miss Myra Minick, daughter of O. L. Minick of Auburn, came in last Friday and is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Elmer E. Allen.

Miss Ella Bellas, who is attending summer school at Peru, came to Nemaha Friday evening, going on to Auburn the next day.

Mrs. G. W. Cummings and Miss Mable Sutton drove over from Howe last Friday to attend the Sunday school convention.

Miss Gertrude Glenn, who had been visiting her brother, C. V. Glenn, for a week, returned to her home in Table Rock last Saturday.

Rural Carriers Barker and Knapp have received their new uniforms and will hereafter present a handsome and dignified appearance.

There will be no preaching services at the Methodist church next Sunday, as the pastor is attending the holiness camp meeting at Lincoln.

Elmer E. Allen was at Bracken Wednesday helping his father get some hogs ready to ship. They shipped a car load to Nebraska City that afternoon.

The Missouri river is booming again. It is now higher than before this spring and is still raising. It is over the low farm lands northeast of Nemaha.

Grandma Culp went to Lincoln Tuesday morning and will make her home for awhile at least with her son, John Culp. Mrs. J. H. Littrell went with her.

W. B. Norval, who has been driving a mule and a horse to his dray wagon, has traded for another mule, and now has a "yaller" mule and a white one.

Rev. G. W. Ayers and family went to Lincoln Wednesday morning to attend the holiness camp meeting. They will not return until the first of next week.

Miss Minnie May went to Hastings, Nebr., Monday, to attend the state Sunday school convention. She was the delegate from the Christian Sunday school.

G. N. Titus has been circulating a petition to raise money to get a first class band for the old settler's picnic. The business men and others are responding very liberally.

Miss Cora E. Webber of Auburn attended the district Sunday school convention at Nemaha last Friday. Miss Webber is secretary of the county Sunday school association.

Mrs. A. F. Walsh of McCook, Nebr., arrived in Nemaha last Friday on a visit to her mother, Mrs. Wm. H. Hoover, and her sisters, Miss Marie Hoover and Mrs. A. Matthews.

The school board held a meeting Tuesday night and elected Miss Bunn of Brock as teacher of the primary department. Miss Bunn comes highly recommended as a successful teacher.

Invitations are out for the marriage of Willard H. Dressler and Miss Rosa Munn, which will take place next Wednesday evening, June 26, at 7 o'clock, at the home of John I. Dressler, in Nemaha.

F. L. Woodward had a hay shed that stood near the Missouri river bank east of Nemaha, moved back out of danger Tuesday. The river has taken in considerable meadow land, including some of the alfalfa.

Dr. J. E. Keeling of Shelbyville, Ind., who visited his parents, Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Keeling, for a few days, went to Kansas City Monday and from there was going back home.

Robert Holdinge returned to his home at Arnold, Nebr., Monday. He says he will always remember the people of Nemaha with gratitude for their thoughtful care of his mother, Mrs. Louisa Sowles, during her last sickness.

June Titus, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Titus, was seven years old last Saturday, and gave a party to some of her playmates that afternoon. Twelve of her little friends were present. June received a number of nice presents.

Mrs. I. N. Cooper went to Kansas City Tuesday, to be treated for cancer. She returned from there a few weeks ago, and it was hoped was cured, but recently it has been troubling her again and she went back to take additional treatment.

Miss Jessie Smith, who taught the Maple Grove school last year, went to Peru Wednesday afternoon, where she will visit for a couple of days and then go on to her home at Dorchester, Nebr. She will probably teach the Maple Grove school again next year.

John Temple Graves, the Georgia orator who advised Col. Bryan to place Roosevelt in nomination for president at the national democratic convention, visited the president at Oyster Bay last Friday, being the president's first visitor at Sagamore hill this summer.

Will F. Keeling, Marshall Webb, F. E. Hoover and George Keith started for Billings, Montana, Tuesday morning, to take part in the great drawing for government land. They expect to return next Monday. Of course each one will be greatly disappointed if he doesn't get a good piece of land.

Married—At the home of the bride, in Brownville, Nebr., at noon Sunday, June 16, 1907, by Rev. J. W. Sapp, Mr. Geo. H. Griffith and Mrs. H. L. Caldwell, both of Brownville. The wedding was a very quiet one, only a few relatives being present. The bride is a sister of Mrs. Sapp.

Last Saturday forenoon Mrs. Alf Rowen stepped on a rusty nail, running it through her shoe and into her foot about three-quarters of an inch. It made a very painful wound. She put turpentine on it and then carbolic acid, and in the afternoon came in town and had Dr. Frazier dress it. Her foot was badly swollen for a couple of days, but the swelling has gone down and the wound is fast healing.

John M. Clark got stung by a bee Wednesday, the fellow striking him between the eyes. In a very short time John's eyes were swollen shut and his head was greatly enlarged—more so than it would be if he was elected to the best office in the gift of the people. The sting caused him great pain.

Remember the annual school meeting for next Monday evening. Three directors are to be elected, one for two years to fill a vacancy, and two for three years, the terms of John M. Clark and C. L. Russell expiring. Several interesting questions will be brought before the meeting for discussion.

Cards have been received by Nemaha friends announcing the marriage on Thursday, June 13, 1907, at the home of her parents, near Broken Arrow, Indian Territory, of Miss Blanche E. Lytle to Mr. Parmer LeRoy Wilson. "At home after June 20, near Broken Arrow." The many friends of the bride in Nemaha and vicinity extend best wishes.

Judge J. H. Broady of Lincoln came up from Falls City on the early train Monday morning, stopping over here until the next morning. He was accompanied by Col. Sandusky of St. Joe, and R. S. Maloney of Humboldt. These gentlemen took the 7 o'clock train Monday evening. Mr. Maloney was formerly a frequent visitor to Nemaha but hasn't been here for about 25 years. He is well known to our older citizens.

OBITUARY

Miss Lousia Hadlock was born in the state of Pennsylvania Aug. 2, 1831, died at Nemaha, Nebr., June 13, 1907, aged 75 years, 10 months and 11 days. At the age of 19 she moved with her parents to Iowa, when she was married to Emmet Holding about 1854. To this union three children were born, two sons and one daughter, the daughter dying in childhood. After the death of Mr. Holding she came with her family to Richardson county, Neb., after the close of the war, when about the year 1869 she was married to Elias Sowles, an old soldier, who died in November, 1887.

About 1864, in the state of Iowa, the deceased united with the Baptist church, transferring her membership to the Christian church in Nebraska about 1872. Sister Sowles was a woman of deep pity and great religious zeal, was steadfast, immovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord.

She leaves two sons, one brother, and a host of friends to mourn her loss.

J. W. S.

Conductor Cronkhite, who has been on trains 97 and 98, from Nebraska City to Holdrege, for so many years, has been transferred at his request to the passenger and mixed train running from Lincoln to Falls City via Nebraska City. This gives him a longer lay-off at home and pays about the same as the other run. Conductor Carson takes his place on the Nebraska City-Holdrege trains.

District Sunday

School Convention

The district Sunday school convention held here last Friday was a great success, if we may judge from the expression heard from those in attendance. The church was well filled at all the sessions and there was not a dull moment from the opening in the forenoon until the close at night. The papers read were full of interest and the discussions brief and to the point. The Sunday school workers were enthused and encouraged by the convention.

It was decided without dissenting to organize a district association, composed of the Sunday schools of Nemaha, Aspinwall, and St. Deroin precincts, and a constitution and by-laws were adopted. The by-laws provide for conventions to be held in January, May and September of each year. Officers were elected as follows:

President, W. W. Sanders.
Vice president, Miss Elsie Copeland.
Secretary-treasurer, Miss Minnie May.

Superintendent of department work, Miss Grace Peabody.

The above named officers compose the executive committee.

One of the interesting features in the afternoon was a recitation by Grandma Slagle, who is years old, but who is yet an active member of the St. Deroin Sunday school.

Champion and St. Deroin Sunday schools were well represented. Rosefield school also had representatives present.

Prof. F. M. Gregg of Peru, president of the county association, was present during the entire convention and rendered valuable aid. Miss Grace Hale, county superintendent of primary work, was present in the evening. Both made addresses at the evening session.

Old Settler's Picnic

Friday, Aug. 2

A meeting of the executive committee of the old settlers association was held Saturday afternoon. It was decided to hold the annual picnic on Friday, August 2. The following committees were appointed:

Railroad excursions and accommodations—F. L. Woodward.

Sports—Ralph Ritchey, W. F. Keeling, Will J. Cummings.

Water—I. N. Cooper.

Seating park—V. P. Peabody.
President of the day—Walter Hadlock.

Speakers—G. N. Titus, W. W. Sanders, Ben T. Skeen and C. W. Roberts.

Stand Rights—Elmer E. Allen and Frank Titus.

Joe Littrell caught a nice catfish Thursday which Hilt Stanley had sent out to Lew Argabright at Auburn. Lew is in a very bad condition of health, and has a poor appetite, but can eat fresh fish when nothing else appeals to him.

E. W. Cliff of Humboldt and Fred Cliff of Salt Lake City, Utah, were calling on Nemaha friends Wednesday.
