Mrs. Earle Gilbert gave her Sunday school class a reception at her home Wednesday evening. An interesting part of the evening's entertainment was the reading of sketches of characters mentioned in the lessons of the preceding three months, without the name being mentioned, each member of the class having been given one person to write about, this being done several days previously. Then each one tried to guess the person so described. Misses Grace Jarvis and Mabel Hoover were tied for first place in this guessing contest, and were each given a box of bonbons.

Last week Mr. and Mrs. H. Denny presented their daughter, Miss Florence, with a fine mahogany finish Merrifield piano, as a birthday present. It was purchased of S. H. Avey & Co. of Auburn. Naturally Miss Florence is very proud of her nice present.

Uncle Henry Clark is the champion in this section on corn and potatoes. He reported on Wednesday that he had a field of corn that the corn could be seen from one end of the row to the other. He also has potatoes that are up and have been hoed over once. Uncle Henry always pays in advance for The Advertiser and therefore we will vouch for his truth and veracity.

Clyde Hill of Shubert, who has been doing the mechanical work in The Advertiser office for the past two months, went home Friday evening and will not return unless summoned to help out in an emergency, as the editor is feeling well enough to do the work again. Clyde is a good printer, steady as an old clock, and to be depended upon in any and all circumstances. We can recommend him to any one wanting a good printer.
