

Another Pioneer Gone.

Death of Rufus T. Rainey.

Rufus T. Rainey, one of the oldest settlers of Nemaha county, died at his home in Brownville at 6 o'clock p. m. Sunday, June 14, 1908, from paralysis.

Mr. Rainey had been living alone for some time, in his beautiful home two blocks south of the business part of town. Saturday, about one o'clock, one of his neighbors wondered why Mr. Rainey had not been seen about the yards, and went over to his place to see if he was at home. He was found in an outbuilding, helpless from a stroke of paralysis. He was not entirely unconscious, and managed to tell them that he had received the stroke of paralysis about two o'clock Friday afternoon, and had lain there for twenty-three hours. He had called as well as he could, and beat on the side of the building, but could not make noise enough to attract the attention of any one. He was carried to the house and physicians called, but nothing could be done except to make him as comfortable as possible. He lingered until Sunday evening.

Rufus T. Rainey was born January 31, 1833, and at his death was 75 years, 4 months and 14 days old. He came to Nebraska in 1855, and in 1858 was united to the wife who was his faithful companion until her death about six years ago. Mr. Rainey made his home in Brownville from the time he came to the state until his death, with the exception of about a year when he was a resident of the Republican valley. He was in business much of the time, although in early days he followed freighting for awhile. He was postmaster at Brownville for four years, deputy county treasurer for four years, and held other positions of honor.

Mr. Rainey was a member of the Presbyterian church, having joined in 1876. He was a good man and highly respected.

Mr. Rainey had been a member of Nemaha Valley Lodge, No. 4, A. F. & A. M., having been a member of that lodge over fifty years. He was the first man initiated after its organization.

The funeral services were held at the Methodist church at two o'clock p. m. Wednesday. Rev. G. W. Ayers preached the sermon. The music was especially good. Besides the singing by the choir there was a duet by D. S. Weimer and daughter, Miss Jessie Weimer, and a solo by Miss Perle Minick. The Masonic lodge had charge at the cemetery.

Mr. Rainey leaves four sons to mourn the loss of a loving father—J. D. of Auburn, H. E. of Denver, Frank of Lead, South Dakota, and Ralph of Omaha. All were present at the funeral services.

Miss Nora Aynes, who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. F. K. Skeen, near Ord, Nebr., for several weeks, returned home Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Lowe came in from DeWitt last Saturday. They will probably spend most of the summer in Nemaha.

The Moro wears hardly any clothes at all. I have saw them come through the post without anything on going to market. They smell about like a skunk; only get a bunch together and you will soon move; it is a fact you can smell them twenty feet. They all chew bettle nut for tobacco, it makes the teeth as black as coal.

When the women want to get married they paint their lips red, and the men paint their fingernails red; but I am color-blind and am in no danger at all. All the moros on this side of the lake are fugaree, or friends, but you cannot trust them behind your back, several of the dattos here are secret service men for the government; but when you go across the lake you will get a fight, for they are bad Umbries over there.

We were across the other day with some nigger scouts that are stationed across the river, but did not see much service, firing a few shots; about twenty moros were killed. I do not know how many were wounded for you can never find any but what are dead. They only stand for about two or three volleys then you have to run them. It is lots of fun to get a nigger on the end of an eighteen inch bayonet and watch him kick, the first thing he does is to take hold of the gun barrel. One fellow right by my side was mixed up with a nigger who had a bolo about four feet long, and say, he could swing that knife to a frazzle but the kid was too much for him, he ran under his bolo and stuck his bayonet into him, wasn't satisfied with this so he just threw a shell into his gun and pulled it off, tearing a hole in that umbrie that you could put your fist in, he had his bullet dumed, a cross filed in the nose of it. Each company has their turn of going across the lake, I will be glad when we go over again for it is lots of fun and a fellow gets tired of staying in camp all the time.

The civil governor always calls the datto in and tells him to be good or he will send the troops out after him and if the nigger isn't good out you go and there is always some fun. The constabulary kill more than anyone else, they are moros themselves and know where to find the outlaws, as we call them.

We are not supposed to fire until we are fired upon, but you don't more than land until bang goes some one's gun, and if it gets started once you can't stop it.

I would send home some bolos but don't know whether they charge duty on them or not, but intend to bring some home with me when I come home.

You can tell all the boys for me that they had better stay where they are because hard-tack and bacon isn't like beef-steak and biscuits for breakfast, when you can sit around the fire instead of cutting your way through a jungle expecting to stop a slug any time

A while back we expected to go to the field for three months but I guess it has quieted down now; the longest we have ever been out was three days, but that is long enough in mud and water up to your waist and about fifty pounds on your back.

Well, Mr. Sanders, I am getting sleepy but will try and write you something that is interesting if we take the 27 day hike that everybody is talking about. I hope we do for it will be something new, for if you are busy over here the time will pass quicker, so good night, and give my love and best wishes to all my friends and tell them to write me.

As ever, yours

Richard Scott.

Our merchants have a troublesome problem. The food commission have ruled that eggs come under the provisions of the pure food law. A farmer who sells bad eggs to the merchant or any one else or a merchant who sells to a patron or dealer an egg that is bad lays himself liable to a fine of from $10 to $100. What is troubling the merchants is how to make themselves safe without too much work. If they candle the eggs and pay the farmers for the good ones only it will cause lots of work. The farmers should be very careful not to try to market bad eggs. If they do they will probably be confronted with a heavy fine some day.

If one feels dull and spiritless, in the spring or early summer, they call it "Spring Fever." But there is no fever—usually. It is the after effects of our winter habits. The nerves are mostly at fault. Tired, worn-out nerves leave us languid, lifeless, and without spirit or ambition. A few doses of Dr. Shoop's Restorative will absolutely and quickly change all of these depressing symptoms. The Restorative of course won't bring you back to full health in a day or two, but it will do enough in 48 hours to satisfy you that the remedy is reaching that "tired spot." Druggists everywhere are advising its use as a splendid and prompt general tonic. It gives more vim and more spirit to the spoonful than any other known nerve or constitutional tonic. It sharpens a failing appetite, aids digestion, frees sluggish livers and kidneys, and brings new life, strength and ambition. Test it a few days and be convinced. Dr. W. W. Keeling.

Women as Well as Men Are Made Miserable by Kidney and Bladder Trouble.

Kidney trouble preys upon the mind, discourages and lessens ambition; beauty, vigor and cheerfulness soon disappear when the kidneys are out of order or diseased.

Kidney trouble has become so prevalent that it is not uncommon for a child to be born afflicted with weak kidneys. If the child urinates too often, if the urine scalds the flesh, or if, when the child reaches an age when it should be able to control the passage, it is yet afflicted with bed-wetting, depend upon it, the cause of the difficulty is kidney trouble, and the first step should be towards the treatment of these important organs. This unpleasant trouble is due to a diseased condition of the kidneys and bladder and not to a habit as most people suppose.

Women as well as men are made miserable with kidney and bladder trouble, and both need the same great remedy. The mild and the immediate effect of Swamp-Root is soon realized. It is sold by druggists, in fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles. You may have a sample bottle by mail free, also a Home of Swamp-Root pamphlet telling all about Swamp-Root, including many of the thousands of testimonial letters received from sufferers cured. In writing Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., be sure and mention this paper. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Heart Strength

Heart Strength, or Heart Weakness, means Nerve Strength, or Nerve Weakness—nothing more. Potentially not one weak heart in a hundred is, in itself, actually diseased. It is almost always a hidden tiny little nerve that really is all at fault. This obscure nerve—the Cardiac, or Heart Nerve—simply needs, and must have, more power, more stability, more controlling, more governing strength. Without that the Heart must continue to fail, and the stomach and kidneys also have these same controlling nerves.

This clearly explains why, as a medicine, Dr. Shoop's Restorative has in the past done so much for weak and ailing hearts. Dr. Shoop first sought the cause of all this painful, palpitating, suffocating heart distress. Dr. Shoop's Restorative—this popular prescription—is alone directed to these weak and wasting nerve centers. It builds; it strengthens; it offers real, genuine heart help. If you would have strong hearts, strong digestion, strengthen these nerves—re-establish them as needed, with
