THE COURIER.

A Popular Paper of Modern Times.

Saturday Evening, April 21, 1888.

The Courier Can be Found At Windsor Hotel News Stand, Capital Hotel News Stand, Odell's Dining Hall News Stand, Clason & Fietcher's, 110 O Street, A. T. Leming & Co's., 1106 O Street, The Gotham News Stand, 118 South 11th St. Keith Bros., 111 North 11th Street. Ed. Young, 1020 O Street.

NOTICE TO ADVERTISERS.

Advertisers are requested to send in their favors as early as possible, not later than four o'clock Friday afternoon, as the COURIER goes to press that evening. When ordering your advertisement out drop the business manager a card. The collector is apt to forget such orders, and compliance with this request will save us trouble and yourself annoyance We are daily adding to our list of subscribers, employing a man especially for that sole pure,and claim that as an advertising medium he COURIER is unexcelled,

Children and Boy's Straw Hats. NOW OPEN. W.R. DENNIS. Hatter and Furnisher.

Whitebreast Coal and Lime Company. Springtime at last is here. Tans, fans, fans at Oakley & Co's Delicious lunches at Brown's Café. Call on Fred Schmidt for Dry Goods. Oysters, fresh, fat and fine at Brown's. Ask your grocer for home made bread. Emoke Club Room cigar. Burr block. Novelties in dress silks at Oakley & Co's. Mitts and party gloves at Oakley & Co's. Trickey & Co., wholesale and retail jewelers. Kern & Roberts, dentist 23 Alexander Bik. Don Cameron, 1026 O strest, for lunches Kid gloves, latest novelties, at Oakley &

Surah silks, 40 cents a yard. Ashby 8 mand mile tickets for sale at 115 South

Pure, first-class goods at Betts & Sewell's, .20 O street.

An Enjoyable Occasion.

A most delightful party was given at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Outcalt last evening, to which the following ladies and gentlemen were invited:

Mr. and Mrs. Zehrung, Mr. and Mrs. Burn ham, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. and Mrs. ham, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Funke, Mr. and Mrs. Heiskell, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Burr, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Oakley, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Oak-ley, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Lewis, Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Holmes, Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Little, Mr. and Mrs. S. E. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Appleget, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cass, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Mosher, Mr. and Mrs. Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. Hayden, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Harley, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Brock, Dr. and Mrs. Bailey, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barnard, Mr, and Mrs. Mason Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. W. Albert Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Barnard, Mr. and Mrs. Mason Gregg, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Leonard, and Messrs. Houtz, Frank Lewis, Geo. Wing and D. E. Thompson. Cards were the feature of the evening's en tertainment, and elegant refreshme nts wer

Hon. G. M. Lambertson has been appointed city attorn The Rapid Transit is employing large-sized nules as motors H. H. Wilson left Thursday evening on a business trip to Ohio Miss Nellie Baum spent the week very pleasantly in Omaha

Mr. and Mrs. Leland are making a short trip through the state,

Dr. Grimes is out again after a ten days truggle with pleurisy.

Mr. E. I. Trickey is in Colorado looking after his mining interests.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Chapman will make Lincoln their home hereafter.

All the nobbiest shades in silks and satins are now shown at J. E. Miller's. Mr. J. C. McBride returned Wednesday rom a business trip to Chicago. Mrs. George A. Camp and daughter, Miss Lucy, are visiting Mrs. J. F. Barnard.

Many Lincoln ladies are taking lessons the violin. This is quite the craze now Wait Mason of the Journal returned Tues-day from a two weeks' visit to Kansas.

Mrs. Myron Wheeler and Miss May Stou ontemplate a visit to Omaha next week. Mrs H. D. Hathaway and daughter, Miss Lillie, paid Omaha a short visit this week. The stock of I. Frieud & Son was sold Monday to Mr. S. Deutsch of Atchison for

Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Lauck of Bird City, Kannas are visiting the family of Major Bo-

Mr. and Mrs. D. H. Wheeler of Omaha spent Saturday and Sunday with friends in the city. Miss Hattle Leland was at home to a few friends, at her home on F street, on Thursday

Miss Pearl Dement left Friday afternoon for Beatrice to spend Sunday with Miss Kit-tse Weston. 1137 O Street

Miss Cochran entertained a few intimate riends at her home, Lodwith block Thursday evening.

We notice many ladies participating in horseback riding. Lincoln should organize an equestrian club.

Take your lunches at Brown's restaurant, in Windsor block, North Eleventh street. Service unequalicd.

Rev. Alex Allen and wife returned this week from Bloomington, Net., accompanied by Miss Francklyn.

Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Marquette leave to-morrow for the east for the benefit of Mr. Marquette's health.

John R. Clark and family arrived home Thursday morning from an all winter's so-journ in California.

Several hundred young people enjoyed an evening's roller skating in Bohanan's hall Wednesday evening.

RETURN OF JACOB MAHLER.

Classes Open About Friday, May 10,

At the urgent request of over fifty ladies and gentlemen Mr. Mahler has consented to forgotten) that that was their crystal return te Lincoln, and open a class in daning and deportment, to begin about Friday. May 10. The term will consist of twelve lessons, at $19 per pupil, per term, the sixth lesson to consist of a party, while Mr. Mahler will give an extra grand party, independent of the twelve lessons at the close of the term.

Progressive Euchre.

Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Raymond entertained a number of friends very elegantly at their home on last Saturday evening. The time was spent in card playing, and it is unneces-sary for us to say that all had a most delightful evening, knowing what a perfect hostess Mrs. Raymond is. The names of the guests are as follows: Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Richards, Mr. and Mrs. S. Dorr, Mrs. and Mrs. Barton Green, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hargraves, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Cass, Mr. and Mrs. Dr. F. B. Righter, Mr. and Mr. A. E. Hargraves, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Green, Mr. and Mrs. Cari Funke, Mr. and Mrs. Will Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. John Zehrung, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Zehrung, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Burnham, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Ziemer, Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Hall, John Doolittle, Mr. and Mrs. I. M. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. P. V. M. Raymond.

Surprise Party.

Miss Jennie Chioman was very pleasantly surprised Thursday evening by a number of er young friends, who embraced the opportunity of calling upon her at her residence, 1020 T street. The evening was very enjoy-ably spent at games and kindred amusements, refreshments being served at half-past ten. Those present were: Misses Nellie New-Nellie Hyde, Jennie Stewart, Stella man, Hoyt, May Kimmerer, Emma McWhinnie Josie Loughrige, Sarah Graham, Minnie Hale, May Lansing, Maggie Farquhar, and Messrs. Reid Kent, Will Kimmerer, Arthur Ryons, Will Sawyer, Bert Davis, Charley Miller, Will McWhinnie, George Wright and Clem Kimerer.

A Pleasant Party.

Wednesday evening a merry gathering of young folks enjoyed a party given in honor of Miss Anna Randall of Sutton by Mrs E. A. Hubbard, 1329 P street. The entertain-ment of the evening consisted of playing-several games, listening to musical selections and partaking of a very elegant repast. The following were present: Misses Corbin, Randall, Auckerman, Browning, Veeder, Wat-kins, Allie Belle and Viola Hubbard, Mesors, Littlefield, Blackburn, Codington, W. B. and E. F. Reddish, W. E. Leach and others.

New Social Club.

The Irish American literary club is the title of a new club just organized in this city for social, literary, artistic and national purposes, and has for its special objects the adancement of knowledge of Irish literature and affairs in this community and the propagation of national sentiment. All men of Irish birth or descent who believe in the fnndemental principle of the club, an immutable belief in Ireland's right to be governed by and for her own people as an independent na-tion. Also any American citizen of good tion. Also any American citizen of good character who substantial who subscribes to that belief. The club will shortly occupy permanent quarters, establish a library, read-ing rooms, billiard rooms, etc., making a permanent resort for members. The officers of the club are: President, John Fitzgerald; first vice president, J. J. Butler; second vice. president, Malachi Grace; recording secreta-ry, George E. Kidd; financial secretary, Thomas Berry; corresponding secretary, E. J. McVann; treasurer, James O'Neill, ex-ecutive committee, Patrick Egan, Judge Morecutive committee, Patrick Egan, Judge Mor-ris of Crete, John P. Sutton, James Farrell, Wm. O'Shea, P. M. Hayden, Ed Cagney, C. McGlave, Ed Coyle.

We understand that there is to be theatre party this evening in honor of Miss Dickey, who leaves soon for her home in Greenville, Ohio

Crystal Wedding.

Mr. and Mrs. O. N. Humphrey were very agreeably surprised Monday evening by a number of friends dropping in on them and informing them of the fact (which they had wedding, and that they had come to see that it was properly observed. Refreshments were soon brought out and after a few hours passed in pleasant conversation the company departed, wishing Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey many such enjoyable anniversaries. present were: Messrs. and Messlames Paul Holm, C. E. Yates, Myron Wheeler, Humphrey, C. C. Pace, Dan Lauer, Chas. Herrick, Lieutenant and Mrs. Dudley, W. J. Turner, Ed Saulsbury, H. H. Dean and son, Charles Heffley, C. H. Carter, Miss Jessie Morton of Nebraska City, Messrs. D. B. Miller, E. Ellsworth and Norris Humphrey, jr. Some very elegant presents were received, and Mr. and Mrs. Humphrey have good reason te long remember the occasion.

Talmage's Last Sermon. In today's paper will be found Dr. DeWitt Talmage's sermon, delivered last Sunday at the Tabernacle in Brooklyn. It is entitled "Jealousy," and on reading will be found an excellent sermon, full of brilliant thought and sound sense. These sermons are pub-lished regularly in the COURIER each Saturtay, after their delivery by the great divine.

Chunks of Wisdom. Wisdom is happiness

Prejudiced opinion is fatal to judgment. Call him not the happiest who is the richest. A liar is not to be belie . ed, though he speak the truth Deliberate long upon that which you can do but once

A fool thinks nothing is right but what he does himself.

Street Cars. How pleasant it is to stand on the corner and see the car go by. And how easy it would be for one of half dozen men who chanced to be standing on the platform to stop the car for you. We noticed a few days ago a lady running for a car, unobserved by the driver. A young lady noticing the position quickly rung the bell and stopped the car. We are positive three gentlemen saw the lady but got rattled and forgot where the bell rope

Leap year sure enough !

From "One of the Girls." LINCOLN, NEB., April 17th. K. G. C. will please accept many thanks for her kind article written in response to one by "One of the Girls." In regard to the present state of society, you are perfectly right.

Base Ball Sure.

J. A. Keith has returned from a meeting Western league men at which the of of Western league men at which the schedule for the season was made up. Capt. Sylvester is already here, and other players are expected the first of the week. The easou opens here on May 5.

The Lincoln Newspaper union will shortly move into Bohanan's block, where they have ecured rooms.

The Capital City Chautanquan circle held their regular meeting Tuesday evening, and discussed the topic of public morals.

Rev. E. M. Lewis, one of the principal tockholders in the Nebraska Savings bank, who has resided in Denver the past year, is in the city.

East Lincoln people had the pleasure last evening of listening to a very pleasant enter-tuinment by the Q Street Loyal Legion at Grace M. E. church.

Catering to Private Families. Mr. F. C. Pray, the St. Cloud caterer, dedres to announce to the ladies of Lincoln that he is prepared to do all kinds of catering, supplying any and all kinds of dishes, promptly in the finest style of the art. Would also be pleased to furnish estimates for priopers, banquets, etc., at residences

With Sash Curtains to match. The Nobbiest Line of Curtains of all kinds in both American and Foreign Textures.

CURTAIN POLES AND RINGS In the Latest Novelties of Wood and Metal. Prices Rock Bottom A. M. Davis & Son.

SPRING SEASON 1888.

Globe One-Price Clothing House.

Is now showing an elegant line of

----IN-

New Spring Styles

Mens, Youths, Boys and Children's Fine Suits.

All the Latest Novelties and Nobby Designs are included in our Complete Assortment, to which we invite an early inspection.

THE GLOBE One-Price Clothing House.

E. M. EISFELD & CO., Proprs.

COR. O AND TENTH STS.

Holbrook & Bonbright BOOKS, STATIONERY,

Special Attention given to Designing, which we do Free.

Paper & Window Shades, Wall

ks, silks, silks, 49 cents a yard. Ashby Canon City Coal at the Whitebreast Coal nd Lime Co.

stors in every style, fine and fresh, a

Our May Lee 5c cigar is the best in the city. Try it. Burr block.

Canon City Coal again at the Whitebreast Coal and Lime Co.

Take the Elkhorn lines, Omaha train leaving Lincoln at 6:55 a. m.

After the club parties, go to Brown's new

Canned goods of every description at Bette

See three bargains in silks - 49 cents a yard at Ashby & Millspaugh. Betts & Sewell are headquarters for fine receries, at 1190 O street.

Ladies should call and see Fred Schmidt's w dress goods, 917 O street.

Smoke the Club Room eigar made by Ha anah eigar factory, Burr block.

Before insuring look up the Mutual Life murance Company of New York. The Missouri Pacific railroad run free reclining chair cars on all through trains.

ast Turkey, Goose and all kinds of me at Don Cameron's every day for dinner.

Parasols, sun umbrellas, gold and silver andles, lowest prices, at Oakley & Co's. Finest line of smokers' meerschaum articles t the Havana cigar factory, Burr block.

Monarch and Lincoln brands of canned oods at Betts & Sewell's, 1120 O street.

Doctor B. F. Bailey, office and residence or. of Thirteenth and G streets. Tel. 617. Hayden is now making cabinet photographs for $3.00 a dozen. They are the finest in the nable fruits of all kinds are specia tion at Betts & Sewell's, grocers, 1120 O

Special sale of jerseys next week, the best bargains ever offered at Ashby & Millspaugh's.

Imported smoking tobaccos, finest made, to be had only at Havana cigar factory, Burr

When in pred of Ladies Furnishing Goods, Fine Shoes, etc., give Fred Schmidt a call 917 O street.

Tickets to points in Kansas, Missouri and tickets via Omaha on sale at Elkhorn office, 115 So. 10th St.

The Mutual Life Insurance Co. of New York. W. B. Hastings, District Agent, room 53, Burr block.

India silks make the coolest possible sum-ter dress, and are shown in entirely new and soutiful designs by Ashby & Millspaugh.

Peculiar in medicinal merit and wonderful cures-Hood's Sarsaparilla. Now is the time to take it, for now it will do the most good.

Dr. Creighton is in New York on business connected with the Wesleyan University, and will also attend the general conference of the M. E. church next month in that city.

Mr. T. N. Cunningham arrived yesterday rom Detriot, and will enter the employ of Gennard & Riggs. Mr. Cunningham is a na-ive of Ohio, and as there are many others rom that state now resident in Lincoln he rill find a bearty welcome.

Prof. N. P. Curtice has been secured to play the magnificent new pipe organ at the resbyterian church

Brown's restaurant, in Windsor block North Eleventh street, is the neatest and nobpiest resort in the city.

Mrs. E. L. Saxon lectured Monday evening on woman's suffrage to a good audience at St. Paul's M. E. church.

The Journal base ball nine will afford musement for the university club at Athtic park this afternoon.

Mrs. Morton, the aged mother of Hon. J Sterling Morton, was the guest this week of Hayor and Mrs. Sawyer.

Miss Gertrude Marquette, will intertain the Pleasant Hour Juniors at her home on Tuesiny evening of next week. The ladies of the Baptist church will give a supper Tuesday next in the storeroom recent-ly vacated by A. D. Guile.

Mr. Arthur B. Smith, chier clerk to Super-intendent Calvert, has returned home from a very pleasant trip in the east.

Miss Lydia O'Neill, of the Gypsy Baron opera house company was a guest of Mr. and Mrs. Huffman while in this city.

Mrs. Henry E. Bailey, who has been visit-ing the family of Dr. B. F. Bailey, returned to her home in Boston this week.

Mr. N. C. Abbott raturned home Sunday from Rochester, N. Y., where he had been called to the bedside of his sick father.

Maj. A. G. Hastings and wife were called to Independence, Iowa, Wednesday, by a telegram announcing the death of a brothe

Mr. and Mrs. Harris (nee Hattie Funke) of Ord, accompanied by their little daughter. were guests last week of Mrs. H.'s parents. Ladies in search of fine dress goods goods will find the latest styles and superior text-ures at J. E. Miller's, 145 South Tenth street.

We understand that elegant music is being prepared for the University commencem exercises by Prof. Menzendarf and Miss Cochuan. The members of the Union club are still agitating the question of a new club-house, and the indications are that it will soon be nder way.

We learn that an elegant concert is to be given on Wednesday evening of next week, for the benefit of the Episcopal church, at the opera house

Miss May Moore was at home to the Capital City club on Thursday evening of last week, it being her thirteenth birthday. All report a most delightful time.

Mr. Will Pickett and his sister, Miss May, returned home Tuesday from visit to friends in Kentucky. They were accompanied by their sister, Mrs. R. G. Terrell.

Mr. L. M. Kelley, formerly chief clerk of the old Commercial hotel but now pro-prietor of a hostelry of his own in Kearney, paid Lincoln a short visit Tuesday.

The last party of the Pleasant Hour Club will be given at Masonic Temple on next Thursday. Being the last party of the season we may expect a very "swell" affair.

Rev. A. F. Sherrill of Omaha lectured at the Plymouth Congregational church Tues-the Plymouth Congregational church Tues-day evening to a large audience on "Alaska." The lecture was a very entertaining one. Mr. J. V. Putnam, Mr. Hallett's efficient watchmaker, who had been ill for several days, was compelled to seek his couch Thurs-day, having been attacked with the measles.

Mrs. W. H. McCorkle, a sister of Mrs G. M. Traver, died at her residence, corner of Tenth and South streets. Wednesday. The remains were taken to Dowagiac, Michigan, Thursday

The Odd Fellows of Crete will celebrate th 60th anniversary of the establishment of the order in America, next Thursday. Ex-Gov. Dawes and Mr. W. H. Woodward of this city will make addres

The remains of Dr. F. G. Fuller, the victir of a runaway accident last week, were laid to rest Sunday, followed by the mem-bers of the various Knights of Pythias lodges and a large concourse of friends.

The funeral of Mr. J. M. Davis took place Thursday afternoon, from the residence of his brother, Mr. J. J. Davis, 1920 F street. The Knights of Pythias, of which the deceased was a member, were present in uniform. Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Roberts entertained few friends on Thursday evening, at their home on Seventeenth and H streets. A most enjoyable evening was spent in card playing. Mrs. Roberts is an affable hostess, and all reported a delightful time We learn that one of the most elegant re ceptions ever held in the city will be given by Miss Anna W. Hawkins and pupils about the 25th of May. It is to be an invitation affair, and will undoubtedly be a swell affair. The favors will be particularly beautiful.

Dr. Frederick Tomkins, an English barrister of much note, is to deliver the address to the law class at University com exercises. He comes from London for the express purpose. While in Lincoln he will be the guest of Rev. and Mrs. W. G. Hawkins, Miss Clara Goldberg, after a very pleasant visit of four months with her sister, Mrs. D. Wise, left Saturday via the Burlington flyer, for her home in Chicago. Miss Clara has a number of warm friends in Lincoln whose best wishes accompanied her to the parental Lieut. C.L. Hodges, of Uncle Sam's naval service at Fort Snelling, was a welcome guest under the hospitable roof of Mr. H. W. Brown last Friday and Saturday. The lieutenant was in the service in the same regiment, and as the two soldiers had seen each other only once since that eventful battle; the neeting and visit was thoroughly enjoyed by both

The corner stone of the Grant Memorial hall will be laid Monday afternoon with im-The procession will pressive ceremonies. start from the corner of Ninth and P streets at two o'clock, and be composed of Company D, University cadets, members of the various G. A. R. posts, Masons, Knights of Pythias, Odd Fellows, A. O. U. W., and other civic societies, city fire department, police, and dignitaries of state, university, county and city in carriages. A new craze which is coming into vogue among the children is the collection of stamps. They are not after post-marks or cancelled postage stamps, but impressions from such rubber or metallic office stamps as may be in use. Any stamp that leaves an impression is gladly received, but should the design embrace some picture of man, beast or bird, the youngster's delight is at its height. This latest collecting fad not only amuses the kids, but gives the contributors considerable gratuitous advertising.

Kindly give him a call, get prices and partic-ulars at the St. Cloud European restaurant, 124 South Twelfth street opposite Funke's op ra house. Plano For Sale.

An upright Emerson piano in good order on monthly payments, or will exchange for a city lot. Enquire at 1819 K street.

To People Who Entertain. Society people arranging for parties, balls weddings, receptions or anything in this line, should inspect our elegant line of stationery and printed novelties used on such occasions We have just received our new fall line o elegant ball programs, invitations for weddings, parties, etc., announcements, folders, calling cards and in fact everything in this ine.

Notice to the Ladies.

We take pleasure in informing our patrons that we have just received from the importers an elegant line of heavy embroidered black kid gloves in the latest shades, tints and sizes from 4 1-2 up in button and hook. O. R. OAKLEY & Co.

Wanted.

Gentlemen and ladles to take position with reliable house. Good salary guaranteed. Promotion rapid. Address A, this office.

They know just how to please you with oysters in every style at Brown's New Vienna

Betts & Sewell keep the freshest groceries to be had in the city. Everything in the family supply line at their store, 1120 O

Lincoln Hack and Baggage Line.

Telephone No. 201, meat market, 937 O street, or No. 301 livery barn. Order slates at same places and U. P. ticket office, corner Eleventh and O streets. Hack stands, Capital hotel and meat market.

· BOHANON BROS.

McMurtry's addition on K street, below Nineteenth, is one of the sighliest in the city, as well as being right in the centre of the fastest growing portion. Call at his office be-low the Capital National Bank and secure one of thes lots

Notice of Incurporation.

Notice is hereby given that The Western Engineering Company, having its principal place of business at Lincoln has incorporated place of business at Lancoin has incorporated to do a general business in electrical engi-neering, and to that end to have power to manufacture, own, buy, sell, erect, maintain, install and operate electrical and steam plants, machinery and appliances for generating power and light and to deal therein as principals or as agents for manufacturers. To do electrical testing and expert work, own real electrical testing and expert work, own real estate or other property necessary to the con-duct of its business, to own, buy or sell pat-ents of devices useful or pertinent to electri-cal machines. The capital stock is $15,000, subject to be increased as the business may require, divided into shares of $25 fully paid. The incorporation commences the 18th day of February, 1888, to continue twenty years. The highest amount of indebtedness which the corporation may contract is $10,000, but in case of increase of capital the indebtedness may be increased in a like ratio. The affairs of the company are to be conducted by a board of three directors, consisting of a presi-dent and general manager, a vice-president, and a secretary and treasurer. Dated Februboard of three directors, consisting of a presi-dent and general manager, a vice-president, and a secretary and treasurer. Dated Febru-ary 15, 1888. THE WESTERN ENGINEERING CO. J. G. WHITE, WILLS, F. WHITE, Pres. and Gen'l Man. Sec'y and Treas.

234 South Eleventh St. Samples and Specifications without Charge.

Is now on sale for what it will bring. It comprises one of the FINEST LINES OF DRY GOODS ever brought to the city, and must be closed out at once.

5000 PAIRS of SHOES

For Ladies, Gents and Misses.

Call in and see for yourself. The goods must be sold, so come and get them.

BEE HIVE. 915 and 917 O St.

ANOTHER BIG LOT OF SILKS

Just opened to be sold at

49c. a yard. ASHBY & MILLSPAUGH.

Double Store Under Opera House.

CLOSING OUT -OUR ENTIRE LINE OF -CARPETS.-

Must be closed out at Manufacturer's Cost, as we need the room for other pur-

We have some of the latest novelties in ART GOODS. Also an elegant assort

ART DEPARTMENT.

O. R. OAKLEY & CO.

oses. GREAT BARGAINS. Come now while the stock is complete.

ment of Baskets, etc. Stamping a specialty.