Mrs. John M. Stewart and children, who have been visiting in California during the summer, returned Friday. They were accompanied by Mr. Stewart, who met them in Denver.

Handsome engraved wedding notes have been issued for the ceremony of Mr. Joseph Hazlett Bigger and Miss Carola Hill, which takes place at the residence of Hon. J. E. Hill, October 13th.

Mrs. Perkins of Des Moines, Ia., formerly of this city, has been visiting her sister, Mrs. Hookshouser, and friends the past week. She returned to her home Wednesday with her husband, who met her here Sunday.

A Chautauqua circle will be organized at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Fifer, 719 North Thirteenth street, Tuesday evening. All persons interested will be welcome, and those not being able to attend the meeting will kindly send their names to Mr. E. Hardy, so that they may be enrolled.

The Congregational club held their first meeting of the season Tuesday evening at the First Congregational church. Supper was served in the first part of the evening after which Professors Brunner, Taylor, Caldwell and Miss Sarah Harris, gave interesting talks about their trips this summer.

Quite a sprinkling of Lincoln's fair daughters will be missed in social circles this winter, many of them being out of the city at the various temples of learning. Following is a few of them: Misses Mae Burr, Rachel Brock, Edna Polk, Marie Marshall, Lucy Griffith, Grace Burr, Helen Burr, Ona Imhoff, Grace Oakley and Clara Buckstaff.

Chancellor and Mrs. James H. Canfield tendered a reception to the faculty of the university Friday evening in honor of the new members of the faculty. Professor and Mrs. Adams, Misses Wilder, Conklin, Jones, Barbour, Freeman and Mr. Peterson. A dainty lunch was served during the evening. A large number of the faculty were present and an enjoyable evening was spent by all.

Mr. Will Meyers, the efficient teller at the German National bank, leaves tomorrow for his annual visit to Quincy, St. Louis and other eastern cities. It is not safe to wager any large amount on Mr. Meyers' returning with a bride this time, since he has disappointed us on several similar occasions heretofore. It is however but justice to the young man to add that if Mrs. Meyers accompanies him homeward, she will be duly welcomed here.

Now for the social swim. October is here and the fun will soon commence. Within another month cold weather will be with us, winter's merriment will be commenced and the cry of "on with the dance, let joy be unconfined," will soon be in order. Several prominent debutants will shine forth in society and many new faces both in male and female form will be added to the charmed circle. Several clubs are now in the preliminary stages of organization and, all in all, the coming season promises to be most lively and enjoyable.

The Entre Nous card club and friends gave a very enjoyable outing at Lincoln park last Friday afternoon and evening. The ladies of the party were out to the park early in the afternoon and the gentlemen followed in time for supper. This is the last of a series of picnics that this club has given during the summer. The list of those present comprised Messrs. and Mesdames Ed Sizer, Chas. Hoxie, Traphagen, R. D. Stearns, J. J. Gilliam, Dr. Houtz, J. E. Riggs, F. A. Brown, C. H. Rudge, Mrs. Scofield, Mrs. Mauritian, Mrs. Tom Usher.

Tuesday evening, at the residence of Mr. G. L. Macfarlane, 1321 P street, a progressive high five party was given in honor of Miss Brown of Peoria, Illinois. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Halderman, the Misses Campbell, Geary, Hawksworth, Marks, Hattie Stewart, Grace Westerman and Sadie Lloyd; Messrs. George Woodard, Ole Rector, Warren, White, M. Christopher, Overstreet, Grubbs and Dr. Edwards. The winners of prizes were: Mr. Halderman, gentleman's royal prize; Miss Geary, ladies' royal prize; Mr. Warren, gent's booby prize; Miss Hawksworth, ladies' booby prize. It was a delightful affair in which host, hostess and guests shared the pleasures.

It is with no little amount of pleasure that the COURIER calls the attention of its readers today to a most interesting new department which appears in this issue for the first time. "Art Topics" will hereafter be a regular feature, and we extend the use of its space to each and every one interested in the great and growing field of art. Lincoln has steadily climbed upward in this beautiful accomplishment until today it has a very large circle of admirers and students. But a few years ago we were comparatively without lovers of art, but as the city grows, so also does the desire for knowledge in all things that tend to elevate humanity. The COURIER recognizes in this city a vast field for work in this line and if it can be of any service in advancing the cause it will be only too happy to extend a helping hand. The department will be under the supervision of "Miss Nancy," a person thoroughly capable to conduct the work. Contributions, news notes or anything pertaining to the advancement of art will be thankfully received and duly noticed. Address all contributions to "Miss Nancy," care of this office.

Omaha's Leading Hotel.
The Paxton hotel, for eight years under the management of Kitchen Bros., has again passed into their hands and is now being conducted in the same excellent manner that gave the house its renowned reputation years ago. Mr. Ralph Kitchen, who is well known in Lincoln and throughout the state, having formerly had the management of the Capital hotel in this city, has the management of the Paxton. Lincolinites and Nebraskans in general will find the Paxton fully in keeping with the leading hotels of the country and a most excellent place to stop at while in Omaha.

K C Baking Powder, 25 ounces for 25 cents. Absolutely Pure. Have you tried it?

Hotelling, the O street grocer, having bought the stock of groceries formerly owned by H. H. Lohm at 1837 O street, says he is going to treat his trade as he always has—right, but the people must not expect silver dollars for 90c nor twenty pounds of granulated sugar for $1, as he has no cheap stuff to work off with such deals. Store is at 1837 O, in charge of Floyd Hotelling.

A very enjoyable opera party was given at the Lansing theatre one evening last week, composed of Misses Marguerite English, Grace Perkins, Cora Talbot, Effie Steen, chaperoned by Mrs. Frank Perkins of Des Moines.

The COURIER has just received too late for the press this week, a long but interesting letter from "Chicago" in which that pleasing writer reviews one of Mr. Charles Frohman's latest plays, "The Councillor's Wife" in a gossip and most congenial manner. It will find space in our next issue.

A very pleasant informal outing was given at Burlington, beach last Saturday evening in honor of Miss Ida Gunderson of Chicago. Dancing was indulged in until a late hour. Those present were: Misses Ida Gunderson of Chicago, Nora Steen of Wahoo, Effie Steen, Grace and Gertrude Atkins, Lillie Hoover, Mame Mullen, Lena Lau, May Clark of Omaha, Grace Perkins, Cora Talbot, Marguerite English, Messrs. Johnson, Waite, Howey, Weckback, Walsh, Painter, Comstock, Meadows of Chicago, Yates, Woods, France and Chas. Mullen. The party was chaperoned by Mrs. Frank Perkins of Des Moines.

On Saturday morning when the anxiously looked for mail carrier comes around and leaves in the hands of the subscribers, the CAPITAL CITY COURIER, the first thing that is done is to unfold the ostentatious but dignified sheet to the eighth page, and look over the doings of the dear people for the past week. When it is found that there are but very few events chronicled, he wonders what is the matter that there is not more news in this part of the paper. But please remember that in such weather as we are now enduring, that there are actually no events to disclose. No one wants to give a party in this hot, dry, dusty weather, even if anyone has ambition enough to attend a party. He would prefer to stay at home wielding a palm-leaf, and wishing as Hamlet, that this "too, too solid flesh might melt."

None of the card or dancing clubs have re-organized for the winter. The season for outings, picnics and summer enjoyments is over. Just this week the Burlington Beach closed a successful and prosperous season, and are now beginning many improvements and advancements to be in readiness for the next summer. This month may be said to be the connecting link between the summer gaieties and the winter festivities, the calm before the storm. If we can bribe any of our subscribers, sub rosa, of course, to give a party just now, we shall promise to write it up, and describe your costume in good shape.

The following has been sent to the COURIER for publication: "Lincoln is a city of schools and education and the people are interested in improvement, as shown by the rapid increase of Chautauqua work. A few years ago Chautauqua work made a small beginning, starting with one circle and few members. Year by year the list of membership has increased and interest deepened until now there are over a hundred and fifty members and six circles. The Hall in the Grove is a circle composed of Chautauqua graduates. They are making a special study of American history. The officers are: Mrs. P. M. Davis, president; Mrs. A. S. Metcalf, secretary. The Capital City circle is the largest of the regular circles, having held meetings for two years. Officers are: Mr. C. W. Starling, president; Miss Amber Richards, secretary. Columbian circle is the name of the new circle that was organized in South Lincoln last Wednesday with about twenty members. Officers are: Mr. W. C. Hungtington, president; Mr. V. W. Wilcox, secretary. The Lowell circle is a small circle organized last year. It furnished a toast master for the Union banquet. Mr. W. E. Hardy is president, and Miss Hattie Curtis secretary. The East Lincoln circle was organized last year. They met last evening to reorganize, with favorable prospects for another successful year. The Lookforward circle at the state penitentiary was organized three years ago, and is led by Chautauquians of the city. A movement has been set on foot to organize a circle in which Rev. O. W. Fifer is the leader. W. E. Hardy, the state secretary, will gladly furnish information in regard to the work."

Death of Mrs. Vanderberg.
Monday at the home of her son, Henry C., in the Kennard block, 324 South Twelfth street, Mrs. Josephine Vanderberg, at the age of 56 years and 10 months breathed her last, cancer being the cause of her death. She leaves a son, an only child to mourn her loss. The service was performed according to the rites of the Catholic church and the body laid to rest in the Catholic cemetery. Mrs. Vanderberg had been a resident of Lincoln for nearly a year, most of which time she was an invalid and suffered much. She had the constant care and loving kindness of a devoted son, who tenderly nursed her until the angel of death relieved her from further pain and trouble. The young man has the sympathy of many friends in this, the hour of sad affliction and trial.
