IN AMUSEMENT LINES

NEW YORK, June 20, 1893.—(Special Courier Correspondence.)—The middle of June finds all the playhouses still open, doing a paying business. Of newness there is absolutely nothing, and nothing is in sight except the production of "The Tallman" at the Manhattan opera house, which has been postponed until Monday. "1492" at Palmer's and "The Prodigal Daughter" at the American continue to attract very large audiences and neither will be removed for some time. "The Isle of Champagne" has also been a money winner in spite of warm weather, and it looks as if Manager Geo. W. Lederer will keep the Fifth avenue open for the remainder of this month at least. Vaudeville gets livelier with the increase of summer heat, instead of succumbing to it, and that is not due to the fact that some of it is placed in the roof gardens, for the indoor variety shows are notably prosperous.
In the Exchanges and on the Rialto everything is pretty dull, and the outlook for next season, according to the "old stagers," is not very promising. The season just gone by has not been a very profitable one and the majority of the managers seem to be cramped for money.
DUNLOP.

There was a big crowd at the circus last night. The performance attracted an audience that comfortably filled the large canvas. Every available seat and every particle of standing room was utilized by the hundreds present. The performance itself went with a dash and clat that are seldom witnessed at a circus and kept the enthusiasm of those present aroused to the highest pitch throughout its length. Sells & Rentrow have fully justified the reputation that preceded them, and the immense patronage accorded their exhibition yesterday is an emphatic indorsement of its merit. Sells & Rentrow have earned a reputation in the city that cannot be gainsaid by any false statements made by others. Their shows are first-class, as is the manner in which they are conducted, and everyone that attended their exhibition yesterday left the tents well pleased with all they saw, and satisfied with the amusement they had obtained. The menagerie contains a choice collection and some fine specimens of rare beasts, and the circus performance is one of rare excellence and finished throughout. It is given in one room and gives most intense satisfaction.
The wonderful riding of Wm. Sells is alone worth a visit to the show. He is a most daring horseman and has the reputation of being the finest rider today living. Last night he rode in the costume he appeared in at a special performance of the Barnum show given before Queen Victoria in London in 1889.
His act received the unanimous approval of the crowd present who greeted him with vociferous applause.—Grand Rapids Eagle.

The circus will be in Lincoln Wednesday, June 23.

Mr. Andrus has made arrangements for a great Danish picnic at Cushman Park today, and the usual preparations for an enjoyable time have been perfected. The weekly picnics at Cushman are becoming very popular. There is always an attractive program, and mirth and good cheer are everywhere prevalent. People who go out to Cushman Park on Sunday leave dull care behind; they go in for a good time, and they have a good time. Today there will be gymnastics, etc. with tight rope walking and other like performances. There will also be music afternoon and evening, with the usual attractions, the park, boating, swimming, etc. A cordial welcome awaits the visitor at Cushman Park. Special trains leave the Burlington depot at 1:30, 2:30, 3:30, and 5:00 p. m., returning at 1:00, 3:00, 4:30, 6:00 and 8:30 p. m. The park can also be reached by street car line via the Western Normal college, where buses are in waiting.

Sailing on the Lincoln salt lake is just now the popular fad. Although the management purchased a large number of new boats this season, the demand is so heavy that there is difficulty in accommodating all applicants on pleasant afternoons. Burlington Beach is attracting crowds, and apparently everybody who visits the beach wants to go sailing. There is always a breeze on the lake; the boats are all that could be desired; so that it is not remarkable that sailing is popular. The bathing season is now on. The beach is thronged with bathers every afternoon and evening.
There was a grand ball in the pavilion Friday night, and yesterday was children's day; the children were given a free ride on the big steamer. Today, Sunday, there will be a concert afternoon and evening, and the usual big crowd is expected. The beach can be reached by street cars from the Union Pacific depot or by carryalls from the postoffice square.

Lincoln Park was visited by thousands last week. H. P. Clements, the slack wire performer, gave daily exhibitions that were largely attended. Wednesday the Ravola club gave an enjoyable picnic, and Thursday the park was given over to the Red Men's picnic. There was an unusually fine program, Friday night there was a bill by the Lansing theatre orchestra. Yesterday was Y. M. C. A. field day, the entire proceeds, as well as the proceeds of Tenth street car line, being donated to the Y. M. C. A. Today, Sunday, the Grace Shannon balloon company will fill a return engagement.
There will be a grand balloon ascension in the afternoon with a parachute descent by a lady, gentleman and dog.
There will also be a concert afternoon and evening. Tuesday the military band will give a dance in the theatre, and on Wednesday the Daughters of Veterans will hold a picnic. On Friday there will be a concert by the Fuzedo Mandolin club, Franklin Eaton director. An elaborate program has been prepared for the Fourth of July. The attendance at Lincoln park thus far this season exceeds all previous records.

Miss Olive Latta has returned from Chicago, where she was the guest of Col. and Mrs. W. F. Cody.

Miss Fannie Hawley, who has been spending the winter in Boston, returned home Friday.

TROTTING AND PACING MONARCHS.

The three pictures above show the pacing and trotting royalty of the world. Nancy Hanks, 2.04, is queen of all trotters; Mascot, 2.04, is king of pacers, and Stamboul, 2.07 1-4, is king of trotting stallions.

LINCOLN LIGHT INFANTRY.

With warm weather the attendance in drill has fallen off a little; we expected it; but when cooler weather arrives we expect a big company.

Capt. A. E. Campbell has been spending the last three weeks at the world's fair. He is expected home today.

Sargt. Geo. Covert is in Colorado enjoying the cool mountain air.

We are in hopes to go to Beatrice the 4th, but up to the present writing arrangements are not completed. Of course all the boys are anxious to go and will no doubt do themselves proud.

I understand Corporal Will McClay has resigned. I am sorry to see this as he is a good soldier, "but then—"

There is rumor of some one of the first set of fours to be married in the early fall. Now who can pick him out?

We need a big flag and if any public spirited citizen has any desire to stand in with the infantry here is the chance of a life time.

Already arrangements are being made to produce our minstrel performance early next fall, and this time greater and grander than ever, we have a member in Chicago looking up new ideas and on his return we will commence to prepare for this big event.
Many inquiries have been made and we will be on hand with a good performance.

There is some talk of having a big picnic at Lincoln park some time in July.
If we do we will want everybody and their friends to go as it will reimburse our treasury, and at present we are in need of money. Watch this column for further particulars.

Adj. Gen'l. Gage was up and looked over our arms. He was surprised to find them in such good condition and expressed a desire to have the governor see them that he may know in what condition his "fowling pieces" are kept.

"Comrade" Victor is out on a furlough, not that the doctor doesn't like to drill because as a rear rank man he is one of the best, but he is busy training Buttons for his act this fall in the minstrel performance.

"Poor Algie had a dreadful shock this morning that has prostrated him completely.

"Well, what was it?"

"His man put green soap in the bathroom that is finished in blue. Wasn't it horrible!"—Chicago Inter Ocean.

SPORTING EVENTS

The Lincoln Lacross club visited Kearney and played with the club of that town for the state championship last Monday, and was defeated after two hours and a half of very hard playing, by a score of 3 to 0. The Kearney boys are very much heavier than their Lincoln opponents, which accounts very largely for the defeat of the latter. The game was hotly contested throughout and was witnessed by about 1,000 people.
The return match will be played in Lincoln about the middle of July, and from the present outlook the chances in favor of the home team are very favorable.

The weekly sailing race occurred Friday evening 6 o'clock at Burlington beach. The wind was fair and the boats were drenched before the race was ended. The boats came in as follows: J. H.
Gleason, North and Gardner, Dr.
Bently, Prof. Bates, S. H. Morgan, J.
Baker and Mr. Lunn.

The roadster club matinee Friday was a very successful event. In the 2:30 class the first two and fourth heats were won by Superintendent, the third by Ed A., and Dick McMahon secured third position and Ed A. second; time, 1:22 1/2, 1:20 1:19 1/2 and 1:21. Grey Jack, a gelding, won in the free for all pacing race; time 1:12 1/2 and 1:11 1/2; McGinty, second, and Ousia, third. The free for all trot was won by La Gratitude in straight heats; time, 1:17 1/2, 1:19 1/2, and 1:18 1/2; Baby Bashaw, second and Eagle, third. Parthena won in the three minute trot, Shadeland Mace, second; Fitzgerald, third. The next meeting will occur July Fourth.
