Is Life Worth Living?

That depends upon the Liver, for if the Liver is inactive the whole system is out of order—the breath is bad, digestion poor, head dull or aching, energy and hopefulness gone, the spirits are depressed, a heavy weight exists after eating, with general tenderness and the blues. The Liver is the housekeeper of the health; and a harmless, simple remedy that acts like Nature, does not constipate afterwards or require constant taking, does not interfere with business or pleasure during its use, makes Simmons Liver Regulator a medical perfection.

I have tested its virtues personally, and know that for Dyspepsia, Biliousness and Throbbing Headache, it is the best medicine the world ever saw. Have tried forty other remedies before Simmons Liver Regulator, and none of them gave more than temporary relief, but the Regulator not only relieved but cured.

THE LATEST NEWS.

MORE CHOLERA.

London, Aug. 9.—Fourteen new cases of cholera and six deaths have been reported at Malta during the last twenty-four hours.

TEXAS CAMPAIGN METHODS.

Galveston, Aug. 9.—A News special says Alexander Walker, the colored Prohibitionist speaker, who was badly beaten and mangled, after he had made a speech at Prairie Grove, near Webberville, in this county, last week, died Sunday from the effects of his injuries.

BALDWIN MAKES ANOTHER LEAP.

Rockaway Beach, N. Y., Aug. 9.—Prof. Thomas S. Baldwin, of San Francisco, this afternoon successfully repeated his feat of jumping from a balloon in mid-air to the earth by the aid of his patent parachute. At least 30,000 persons witnessed the jump. His fall is estimated at 1,100 feet, occupying one minute and twenty-four seconds, and he landed in shallow water in the Bay.

BUFFALO BILL'S RIB ROAST.

London, Aug. 9.—Buffalo Bill's rib roast dinner was a grand success and it is the talk of the town. The speeches of Mr. Chauncey M. Depew and Mr. L. Jerome were very happy, and the latter's remark that he and Mr. Depew were in London on similar errands—raising loans—convulsed the company with laughter. Simon Cameron was in almost boyish spirits and enjoyed the affair immensely.

BOUND FOR BULGARIA.

London, Aug. 9.—Prince Ferdinand left Vienna for Bulgaria by permission of the emperor Francis Joseph, and with the assurance that he would certainly receive the moral and possibly the physical support of Europe, with the exception of Russia and France and of course Turkey, and his presence at Tursoverin tomorrow will be a signal for a series of complications, even if he does not receive the support of Austria, Germany, England and Italy.

OH, FOR RAIN!

Chicago, Ill., Aug. 9.—Telegrams received this morning from central points throughout the entire 75,000 square miles of the drouth stricken Northwestern country shows that the fearful sun scorching of all vegetation continues unabated. Not a drop of rain has fallen except 8-100 of an inch at Des Moines, a bare sprinkle on the dust. Local observations in various districts give but little hope of a break within the coming twenty-four hours. A trifle cooler weather and scattered light showers are expected in some places, but the conditions are such that if the possible little moisture and coolness are at all delayed their effect will be totally lost in the seeming imminent further general rise of temperature from end to end of the drouth region.

ONE OF THE CAPTURED HORSE THIEVES PROPOSES TO GIVE THE GANG AWAY.

St. Joseph, Mo., Aug. 9.—Harrington Stone, one of the horse thieves who participated in the killing of Constable DeLong, said to the reporter that in Northwest Missouri there was a gang of horse thieves, thirty-five in number, that had successfully robbed throughout that section and southern Iowa for the past four years. Stone declares his intention of turning state evidence, and giving the entire band away. Redding, the other thief, was foolhardy enough to write a letter to Con Franklin, one of the leaders of the gang at Quitman, Mo., to-day, and asked him to mail it. That official put it in his pocket, and Franklin will be somewhat surprised to-morrow when he is awakened by a sheriff's posse. The officials say they will capture them at all hazards.

A WAR ON WHISKEY.

Cleveland, O., Aug. 9.—There is a prohibition war at Alliance, Ohio. This was one of the big towns of the State to vote for local option under the Dow law. The saloons were voted out several months ago, and the energy of the entire police force since has been inadequate to the enforcement of the ordinance. Numerous heavy fines and jail sentences have been imposed upon the saloonists, but they continued to violate the ordinance. Last week a temperance demonstration was held and the liquor dealers attempted to counteract its effect by giving away beer and whiskey in the streets to all who asked for it. Several minors were among those who drank and to-day six of the saloon keepers who gave liquor away were arrested. Upon being released four of them went to the depot and mis-taking a stranger whom they saw there for one of the detectives who assisted in the prosecution they set upon and beat him unmercifully. They were arrested.

THE STATE FAIR.

Preparations Steadily Going Forward for a Grand Fair and Exposition.

We are reminded that the annual fair and exposition of the Nebraska state board of Agriculture, held at Lincoln, commencing September 9th and continuing to the 19th, is near at hand, by the brilliant and exceedingly attractive chromo hangers found everywhere. The secretary's office shows a large increase in the applications for space, privileges, stock stalls and pens. The mail matter is immense. The work of improvements going on at the grounds show the management alive to the demands of the fair going public. The Nebraska state fair is now recognized the world over, if not heading the list in the United States, at least abreast of the oldest and best, and as the centre of the great live stock interests in the west. Herds of improved cattle, studs of all classes of horses, flocks of the best sheep, and pens of the best swine from all the great breeding grounds of the west, the best speed horses in the country, and all the implement manufacturers have already applied for and secured accommodations. All feel that to keep up with the times, sell and make purchases to advantage, they must make exhibits, and that too where they will be seen and their merits examined. The people come to see the improvements; the progressive men of the community attend, in fact, cannot afford to stay away, and the state fair is doing more good for the industrial community than any other influence. The great masses, young and old, understand this, that the Nebraska state fair is the grand gala day, and they are all going to attend.

The Lake Manawa Disaster.

There was a disastrous wreck of a steamer on Lake Manawa, Council Bluffs pleasure resort, Thursday night of last week. The season being in its height the lake was crowded with parties seeking pleasure and amusement. The beach is on the opposite side from the one nearest Council Bluffs and it is customary for visitors to drive to the shore nearest the city and take a boat to cross to the bathing beach. When the storm came up the beach was crowded with parties who were unable to find sufficient shelter in the bathing houses and restaurants, and besides were desirous of getting conveyances back to the city, which could only be found at the opposite landing. The storm lashed the usually smooth surface of the lake into such angry looking waves it was some time before a boat could be found willing to cross, finally the steamer Manawa crossed over from the landing and prepared to return, it was immediately filled with a heavy load, largely of Omaha parties. It only got out some 200 yards when the water coming over one side of the boat caused a rush for the other which over balanced it so that almost without warning it disappeared below the surface. Their cries small boats were soon on their way to the rescue. Some were found in the water swimming to shore, but the larger number were found on top the canvas cover of the boat, holding on to the smoke stack, flag staff and other projections for support. All that could be found were carried ashore, but three were missing, two were from Omaha and were Messrs. Joseph Newman and Charles W. Cartwright, the third was Charles H. Person, of Council Bluffs. Messrs. Newman and Cartwright were both young unmarried men. Mr. Newman being a son of B. Newman, an Omaha clothier, who at one time did business in Plattsmouth. Mr. Person was cashier of the Council Bluffs gas company, aged about 30, was married and had one child. He was very popular among his acquaintances. The sad affair is more keenly felt perhaps than any accident that has ever happened in the Bluffs. The lake was dragged and the three bodies found all within a short distance of the boat. It is thought they must have been seized with cramps, as Person in particular was an excellent swimmer and ordinarily could have reached shore with ease.

General Grant on the Terms at Vicksburg.

In the August Century is printed for the first time a letter by General Grant on the above topic, from which the following is an extract: General Pemberton being a northern man commanding a southern army, was not at the same liberty to surrender an army that a man of southern birth would be. In adversity or defeat he became an object of suspicion, and felt it. Bowen was a southern man all over, and knew the garrison at Vicksburg had to surrender or be captured, and knew it was best to stop further effusion of blood by surrendering. He did all he could to bring about that result.

Pemberton is mistaken in several points. It was Bowen that proposed that he and A. J. Smith should talk over the matter of surrender and submit their views. Neither Pemberton nor I objected; but we were not willing to commit ourselves to accepting such terms as they might propose. In a short time those officers returned. Bowen acted as spokesman. What he said was substantially this: The Confederate Army was to be permitted to march out with the honors of war, carrying with them their arms, colors, and field batteries. The National troops were then to march in and occupy the city, and retain the siege guns, small arms not in the hands of the men, all public property remaining. Of course, I rejected the terms at once. I did agree however, before we separated, to write Pemberton what terms I would give. The correspondence is public and speaks for itself. I held no council of war. Hostilities having ceased, officers and men soon became acquainted with the reason why. Curiosity led officers of rank—most all the general officers—to visit my headquarters with the hope of getting some news. I talked with them very freely about the meeting between General Pemberton and myself, our correspondence, etc. But in no sense was it a council of war. I was very glad to give the garrison of Vicksburg the terms I did. There was a cartel in existence at that time which required either party to exchange or parole all prisoners either at Vicksburg or at a point on the James River within ten days after capture or as soon thereafter as practicable. This would use all the transportation we had for a month. The men had behaved so well that I did not want to humiliate them. I believed that consideration for their feelings would make them less dangerous foes during the continuance of hostilities, and better citizens after the war was over.
