HEMPLE-BEETISON.

The Wedding of Mr. Charles C. Hemple and Miss Ella A. Beetison an Event of Yesterday.

The handsome residence of Mr. and Mrs. I. Beetison one mile south of Ashland, was yesterday the scene of a pleasant gathering of friends and relatives, the occasion being the celebration of the marriage vows of Charles C. Hemple, one of Plattsmouth's estimable young men, and Miss Ella A. Beetison, the charming and accomplished daughter of the host and hostess.

Promptly at two o'clock the strains of the wedding march announced the time for the ceremony was at hand and the bride and groom, accompanied by Mr. Ben Hempel and Miss Teresa Hempel, brother and sister of the groom, entered the south parlor, in which the friends were congregated, and took their places before Rev. Denoway who performed a short but impressive ceremony with his usual good form and taste. After the bride and groom were pronounced man and wife they were greeted with the congratulations of all present.

The party was then invited to the dining room and the usual festivities and dinner were indulged in, fraught with much pleasure.

The presents were numerous, useful and handsome. The newly married pair took the evening train and passed through this city on a joyful wedding tour to Chicago and other eastern points, after which they will take up their abode in Plattsmouth with the welcome of their many friends.

ACOMING EVENT.

The B. of L. F. have a Ball on the Programme.

An event in which all the society people of Plattsmouth are interested, is set for the evening of November 23rd, which is Wednesday.

The Brotherhood of Locomotive Fireman have already won an enviable reputation for entertainments, and they have set up at the above mentioned evening for a ball at the opera house and the extensive preparations have already begun.

The ball given by this lodge of the brotherhood about a year ago, and which is so favorably remembered, will, if possible, be surpassed by the coming event, and no means will be spared to accomplish the point.

The hall will be decorated in railroad colors and the supper will be one that the daintiest epicure would hasten to partake of.

As far as preparations on the part of the boys are concerned, nothing will be spared to carry the ball through to success. Invitations will be issued to all the neighboring lodges, and the HERALD can predict nothing for the boys but a brilliant success.

DONNELLY-HERRMANN.

James H. Donnelly and Alice Herrmann Join Hands and Hearts.
(THURSDAY'S DAILY.)

One of the leading society events of the season occurred last evening. It was a quiet but none the less enjoyable wedding and was celebrated at the home of Mr. Fred Herrmann, on north Sixth street.

The contracting parties were two of Plattsmouth's brightest society stars, being Mr. James H. Donnelly and Miss Alice Herrmann. In the ceremony which occurred at 7:30, they were assisted by Mr. Chas. C. Parmele and Miss Hattie Fulmer, and Dr. T. P. Livingston and Miss Julia Herrmann, with Miss Anna Livingston as pianist. Rev. J. T. Baird, of the Presbyterian church officiated. After the ceremony the guests took carriages and were driven to the Stadleman House where an elegant and sumptuous wedding feast was spread and it was fully appreciated by all who were present.

Supper being over, the guests again returned to the scene of the wedding and spent an evening long to be remembered for its many enjoyable features.

There were present only the most intimate friends of the couple. At 12 o'clock they returned to their homes, leaving their congratulations and best wishes with the bride and groom. The presents were numerous, handsome and useful.

The "Milk-Maid Carnival."

(SATURDAY.)

The "Milk-Maid Carnival" given by the Y. L. R. A. in Fitzgerald's hall last evening was a grand success in every way. The programme opened with a song and chorus, "When Kitty Was Milking the Cow," by Miss Anna Murphy and milk maids, which was followed by a solo by Miss Etta Shepherd, entitled "Little Maid Milking Her Cow." The Glee Club then sang a piece and being encored Messrs. Whitney and Ritchie of the club responded with a duet. Miss Ella White sang a solo "Shame upon You Robin." Tillie Weekbach then sang "Kittie Clyde," in a most charming way. Mrs. D. A. Campbell and Miss Maud Barnes sang a duet entitled "Cheerfulness." They were encored and sang again, the Glee Club then gave another of their choice selections, which was very beautiful and the following young ladies were the milk maids, they carried their three legged stools and same had tin pails:

Kate Hemple, Julia Oliver, Maggie O'Rourke, Maggie Straight, Emma Johnson, Jessie Bunn, Gertie Korney, Carrie Grensel, Hattie Latham, Cora Wayman, Nettie Bullence, Laura Shipman, Hattie Shipman, Ida Foglesong, Mary Buzzell, Minnie Watters, George Oliver, Mary Hawksworth, Dora Herold, Ella White, Kate Robins, Bartha Wise, Hattie Fulmer, Grace Anderson, Anna Murphy, Olive Jones, Agatha Tucker, Ida Schlegle, Kit Hartigan, Hattie Chapman, Mammie Styles, Ella Kennedy, Stella Traver, Ida Caldwell, Frankie Styles, Maggie Oliver, Mammie McCoy, Lulu Simpson, Birdie Irish, Birdie Housworth, Annie Russel, Ollie Mathews, Lelia Thomas, Lou Richey.

PADRES.

Reta Clark, Katie Weekbach, Tony Kessler, Rosy Winterstien, Nellie Smith, Tillie Weekbach.

At the close of the march, Miss Annie Russel and the milk maids sang the "Milk Maids song."

Mr. A. D. Eigenbrodt followed with a solo of his own, composed for the occasion which was received with much applause. He was encored and sang the two last verses which were composed after his arrival at the ball.

It is so good we reproduce it here:

Short dresses are all the style to-night
And a fine display has been made;
What is more pleasing to the sight,
Than a Y. L. R. A. milk maid.
She sings down the lane in sunshine or rain,
No matter how dark, warm or cool;
She's the pride of the farm with a pail on her arm.
In her hand, a three legged stool.

They have coffee, beans and pumpkin pie,
Buttermilk, cream and cake;
Step up my friends, the price is not high
And, of the good things partake.
Oome up to the booth now don't be uncouth
And don't back and fawn be afraid;
They will do you no harm for just in from the farm
Came each neatly dressed smiling milk maid.

On behalf of the ladies I wish to say,
That although this program's condensed;
And are requested for a time to stay,
As the festivities have simply commenced.
In Fitzgerald hall, room here for all
And should you desire to promenade;
Just work up your spunk, of pie get a hunk
And catch on to some charming milk maid.

At 10 p. m. will commence the dance
To the music of the B. & M. band;
They scarcely can fall all here to entrance
For they're the finest we have in the land.
As you swing round the hall take care you don't fall.
I caution you alike ladies and gents;
I need tell you no more than, there's wax on the floor,
And look out on this side for the tents.

The march indeed was a great success
And to entertain, they surely know how;
But how long they would stay here I'll leave you to guess
Should some one drive in a real cow.
A dozen at least, would cry drive out that beast.
And now to speak plain and be frank;
Would there not be a bustle, eye even tustle
To see who would fight in the rear rank.

Miss Murphy sang well and Miss Shepherd sang sweetly;
And Professor could read with good taste;
Miss White, 'tis a fact, surpassed us completely
And the Glee Club does well where ere placed.
Sweet Kittie Clyde o'er this stage did glide
And on leaving, 'twas neatly she bowed;
With a voice sweet and clear,
Miss Russel all could hear.
Of Mrs. Campbell and sister, we are proud.

All were then invited to partake of butter, milk and pumpkin pie at 6c a piece at the rear end of the hall, and in one corner of the hall were arranged two tents decorated with corn and large display cards with the words "Cake and Coffee, 5c," and "Dutch Cheese 5c." The hall was very tastefully decorated with corn and oak leaves, and at 10 o'clock the dancing commenced and all enjoyed themselves till a late hour.

Warrick has a very nice line of birthday cards.

The Hornet's Nest Brigade Reunion.

The Des Moines papers give about one half of their space to an account of the reunion of the famous hornet's nest brigade. The affair was a grand one, long to be remembered. Our fellow townsman, Judge Samuel M. Chapman, was complimented by being selected to present on the part of the 14th regiment a fine gold headed cane to the gallant Col. Shaw. This he did in a fine speech which was fittingly responded to by Col. Shaw.

A TANK EXPLOSION.

A Hot Water Tank in the Paint Shop Explodes.

Yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock a hot water tank in the washroom of the B. & M. paint shop exploded.

The tank was small and made of sheet-iron and was carrying a pressure of about 140 pounds, and furnished water for the washroom. Immediately above the washroom is the varnish room, and a floor of heavy two-inch planks separate them. The tank was situated in the northeast corner and near the ceiling and the explosion took its course upwards, tearing the heavy floor planks away, making a hole about 6x10 feet, and passing on up, the roof over the varnish room was torn off for a space about 12x12 feet.

Everything on the floor of the varnish room over the tank was carried up through the roof and one end of the drying rack was used up. In the washroom all the glass and some of the sash in the windows was blown out, but it happened no one was in the room at the moment.

Several men were at work in the room above but none of them injured, although one of them was going directly to the corner and was within 10 feet of it when the explosion occurred. Had he been 10 seconds sooner he would probably have went up through the roof and lost his life.

The force of the explosion jarred the entire building, and the floor of the varnish room was shaken quite violently. The building was not damaged other than the tearing away of the floor and roof, and the breaking of the windows.

The employees of the paint department consider themselves very lucky and they certainly were.
