CITY BRIEFS.

From Wednesday's Daily.
—"The Ashland Rally" is all the talk in the city today.

—A full report of the concert given last night by Miss Paul, will appear in tomorrow's issue.

—Mr. Orin Backus, brother-in-law of Mr. W. D. Jones, arrived in the city this morning from California.

—There will be a meeting of the St. Luke's Guild sewing society at the residence of Mrs. H. B. Burgess, 3rd street, tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

—Mrs. J. F. Kellogg, of Evanston, Ill., arrived in the city this morning to remain a few days as the guest of her son, Mr. A. V. Kellogg, city engineer.

—Misses Anna Breed and Lou Engel, who have been visiting relatives in this city for some time, took their departure for Hastings, their home, this morning.

—Mr. Charley Miller returned from Nehawka last evening, where he was called by the base ball club of that place to assist them in a couple of games recently.

—J. Duke Murray, General advance agent for "Milton Nobles" was in the city last night completing arrangements for the advertising of his company on Monday night next, Oct. 29, in Mr. Noble's own drama "Love and Law."

—We are sorry to learn that our new tea man has been slightly "under the weather" for the last two days. The cause we attribute to the horrible stench arising from the old sewer left open in front of his store, which he is obliged to inhale.

—Messrs. Baker, Fricke, Watt Holmes and Antill leave the city today for Hinton lake, Iowa, where they intend to hunt the feathered tribe for a few days. They have provided themselves with a Baker and it is not probable they will think of their Holmes until they succeed in filling their fricke. Antill then we do not expect to see them.

—The Young Men's Christian Association will have a formal opening of their rooms tomorrow evening Oct. 25. Mr. D. B. Smith and J. H. Waterman are a committee on programme and they tell us to come and see, then we will know what will be there. As 'tis free, and no collection taken, we will surely go. Let all turn out and show the young men we appreciate their efforts for the welfare of our young men.

—Cleone De Forest Daniels, a prominent elocutionist of Omaha, and a graduate of Margurite W. Morton from "Philadelphia school of Oratory," is at present in the city. She is ready to receive pupils and is prepared to give them a thorough course in elocution and voice culture. This rare opportunity has never been offered to the young and ambitious people of this city before, and there surely is a good opening for such a teacher. We wish Miss Daniels unlimited success here. For further particulars notice her advertisement on this page.

—Mr. C. M. Wead, who went to Omaha this morning as a committee of one from the Young Men's Republican Club to make arrangements for the transportation to Ashland Friday night, telegraphed the information this afternoon that accommodation would be furnished for the occasion provided one hundred and fifty tickets are sold. The train will leave here Friday evening at the regular time and return the same night. Already over the required number have signified their intention of attending, and it is expected that five times as many more will go. The fare has been reduced to 96 cents for the round trip, so that no one can cry on account of expense.

—The branch of the water company's located here is laboring under many disadvantages at present. Plattsmouth boasts of as fine water privileges as there are in the state of Nebraska, for which considerable credit is due the water company which located one of their branch offices here. They built here on the encouragement of the prospects of increasing population and industry; not for the money to be made at present. For some time the support afforded them by the city has not paid expenses, and the company has been obliged to draw on headquarters. At present there is another obstacle in their course. They are now compelled to make various improvements and changes in their works. As the river has dried up, the water supply which they have always used previously has been cut off, and now they are at the expense of digging wells. Besides this, the taking up and changing of the main pipe on Main street, necessitated by the grading, adds quite an additional sum to their expense bills. We trust that prosperity in the future years will amply repay them for drawbacks of the past which they have been obliged to tolerate.

From Tuesday's Daily.
—Our local contemporary informs us that the water company will dig a trench the whole distance of the water main and roll the whole line into it at the same time. They also inform us that they intend to wait and see and we believe that is about all they can do. We have learned since receiving that valuable information from the Journal, that it is the intention of the superintendents of the job to separate the joints at the distance of only a few lengths and roll pieces of the main in at a time, and we believe that is about the only way it can be done.

—Many have noticed the bridge of single planks suspended over main street about three feet high, opposite the post office. Yesterday, a lady, rather than wade through the mud to cross the street, attempted the feat of crossing the bridge. When about half way across her attention was diverted from her course. She discovered that she had made a misstep when it was too late, and in a half smothered shriek for help fell to the surging billows of muddy colored water below and was lost—for a time. To secure safety for ladies in crossing the bridge, a railing should be attached to each side.

—For the convenience the information will afford men whose business it is to attend the trains as they arrive and depart, we take upon ourselves the privilege of giving a reason for the location of a small house on the sandbar opposite the depot. Every day inquiries are made concerning it. It looks to be stationed on the sandbar, but we learned that it is built on a small boat which is to be used as a gun boat. The owner of the boat and the builder of the small cabin is named Porter. He is at present working on the sewer, while his son, a boy about 15 years of age, is making preparations for their departure by water, for St. Joe, within a few days.

—Mr. Fred Latham, ticket agent at the B. & M., met with rather a severe accident last night. He has a new coupon case in the office which is covered by a slate covering made to pull down from the top. The case is about seven or eight feet high. There is a top ornament which weighs several pounds, and which was not very securely fastened. Mr. Latham tried to pull the cover down over the case, but as it is new, he could not work it easily alone and requested a yard man who was standing near to assist him. While they were working with the slide, the heavy ornament dropped from the top, striking Mr. Latham on the head and knocking the yard man down. It cut an ugly gash on Mr. L's head, stunning him for a time, but he is able to be around today and attend to business with his head bound up.

—Mr. Mathew Gering, candidate for county attorney on the democratic ticket, made the following statement in his little speech of acceptance upon receiving the honor of the nomination conferred upon him: "Gentlemen, give me a full democratic vote, that is all I want, and I will attend to the republican votes myself." It made a few republicans who were in the house at the time and heard the bold assertion, smile. The republicans will surely take good care of their own votes every time, and if Mr. Gering intends to grab at the republican vote as a last straw before he is ready to sink, we will say that he's a goner sure. Our local contemporary snub sheet endeavors to confirm the idea of a few that he succeeded in spreading it all over his opponent in his speeches over the country last week, but we failed to hear it that way. The team of democratic orators is not complete unless our worthy friend of the Journal is on hand to assist in their grand effort, but we learn that he is afraid to venture out again because he has a horror of skunks since he droye over one during one of his exploits.

From Monday's Daily.
—Mr. John Ballenger and wife spent Sunday at Schuyler.

—Mr. Ira Ingalls, of St. Paul, is in the city visiting relatives.

—Mr. Bird Critchfield is in Weeping Water today on business.

—Mr. Fred. Murphy, of Cedar Creek, spent Sunday at his home here.

—Mr. Jim Knotts is visiting in Council Bluffs, Ia., and Beatrice, Neb., this week.

—Mrs. P. N. Wood and two children of Vicksburg, Miss., who have been visiting at the home of Rev. J. T. Baird, returned home this morning.

—Miss Elsie Mason a girl 15 years of age, was tried before Judge Russell today and sentenced to the reform school. Deputy sheriff Miller will start with her for Kearney, Neb., tomorrow morning.

—A fair sized square box was seen in the express office this morning addressed to Mr. Mathew Gering, Greenwood. It was labeled "Campaign Water." Indians would term it "fire water" probably.

—Mr. Ellis Goosby, a switchman, who was injured in the B. & M. Yards last Friday night, is improving as much as can be expected under the circumstances. It is not known yet how extensive an amputation will be necessary.

—Miss Ida Martin of Canton, Ohio, who has been visiting in the city for several weeks, returned to her home this morning. She was accompanied as far as Chicago by her friend, Miss Hattie Latham.

—Rev. P. Gorden, of Kellogg, Ia., at former pastor of the M. E. church here—twenty years ago—occupied the pulpit at the Presbyterian church last night. His old friends were glad to hear him once again.

—Miss Cleone Daniels, of Omaha, arrived in the city this morning to visit a few days with her friend, Miss Mammie Vivian. She intends to give instructions in elocution as soon as arrangements are completed. Miss Daniels is a graduate of the St. Paul art school.

—The two year old child of Ernst Sudtitz who resides in the vicinity of the ferry landing, died Sunday morning. The funeral takes place today at 2 o'clock.

—The two year old child of Mr. C. S. Forbes, was buried yesterday afternoon. Considering the extremely disagreeable state of the weather, there was a large attendance.

—The first snow of the season appeared here yesterday so heavily that all roofs were covered during the day. As the weather was the most disagreeable and the streets almost impassable, few people were seen upon the streets at any time.

—E. W. Lewis & Co., of Omaha, contractors for artificial and natural stone pavements, have contracted to build walks of artificial stone in front of the business houses of the following firms: Carruth & Son, Cass County Bank, John Blake, and H. Boech. The work will be commenced as soon as possible, and it is hoped that all business men will secure the services of the above firm, as a walk made of that material will cost little more than an ordinary plank walk.

—Miss Ida McLaughlin, a young lady about 18 years of age, who lived at her home on a farm adjoining the poor farm, west of the city, died yesterday morning about 8 o'clock. She has been sick for five weeks or more with typhoid fever, and was thought to be recovering, when she was suddenly taken worse, and died shortly afterwards. She was to be married in a short time to a young man named Harry Thomas, who lives near this city. Miss McLaughlin was highly spoken of by all who had the pleasure of her acquaintance.

—"Hollow Eve" is about at hand again and the hoodlums of this city are all excitement over its coming. We learn that the coming event is to be their loudest celebration ever held here. The hoary-headed old men armed with shot-guns loaded with peas, who are invariably on the watch for the pesky "kids," should retire for that night and allow the boys one night to hold their long talked of celebration. No doubt they will do things up in fine style, but as this is leap year, the girls consider this privilege among their many and we learn that they will come out in full blast.

—A young man stepped aside on a crossing yesterday afternoon to allow a lady to pass. The humble attitude struck by him as he did so afforded unlimited amusement to only a few spectators. In a second the young man's feet could be seen on one side of the crossing and his head on the other, and he was apparently helpless at the feet of the lady. With some difficulty he regained his former upright position and passed slowly away, bearing an expression which expressed the following strong desire: "I would like to swear." He remained in bed during the afternoon while his friends scraped off a good portion of the street. He can be seen on the streets to-day, but he walks with a firmness that conveys the idea, "I must wear spikes."

From Saturday's Daily.
—The two-year old daughter of Mr. C. S. Forbes died last night about 9 o'clock from whooping cough. The funeral will occur tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock at the residence of Mr. Forbes, corner of Rock and 11th.

—Rev. P. Gorden, pastor of the Congregational church, of Kellogg, Ia., is in the city. He will be remembered by some of the oldest settlers of this place as being the first Methodist Episcopal minister stationed here, about twenty-eight years ago. He will remain in the city over Sunday and will probably occupy a pulpit in one of the churches.

—Mr. Henry McMaken received tomb stones today for the following veterans of the late war who have passed away: Wm. Amick, Co. H, 2nd Nebraska cavalry, buried at Eight Mile Grove; P. J. Becker, Co. F, 2nd Nebraska cavalry, buried at Kenosha; Corp. Jacob Coffman, Co. L, 2nd Nebraska cavalry, buried at Elkensbury cemetery; Howard Allen, Co. A, 1st Nebraska infantry, buried at Rock Bluffs; Lieut. M. F. Haygood, Co. A, 1st infantry, buried at Kenosha; Sergt. J. S. Newland, Co. E, 32nd Ohio, buried at Plattsmouth; Henry Elster, Co. H, 20th Missouri infantry, buried at Plattsmouth; J. P. Calhoun, Co. H, 77 Pennsylvania infantry; Capt. John O'Rourke, Co. L, 1st Illinois, light artillery; Capt. W. P. Chapman, Co. E, 1st Colorado infantry, buried at Plattsmouth; J. S. Rankin, Co. G, 140 Pennsylvania infantry, buried at Eight Mile Grove; R. J. Palmer, buried at Eight Mile Grove.

Jane Coombs in Bleak House.
There will be a fine dramatic event at Waterman opera house Thursday evening Oct 25, Miss. Coombs will appear as "Lady Dedlock and Hortense," in Charles Dickens' "Bleak House." At her appearance at Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 25th, the Plain Dealer says:

Miss Coombs, as announced, assumed the dual roles of Lady Dedlock and Hortense, and how admirably she conceived, how faithful the production, only those who have seen it can testify. How singularly adapted this actress is to embody in face, form and feature, the novelist's description of his heroine. "She has a beautiful face, fine bearing and exquisite grace. Her figure is elegant and has the effect of being tall." From this what a transformation to the role of Hortense, the crafty, cunning, revengeful lady's maid. "A French woman of two and thirty from somewhere in the southern country about Marseilles—a large-eyed, brown woman with black hair, who would be handsome, but for a certain feline mouth, giving her the general air of a catshe-wolf perfectly tamed." Miss Coombs not only looked the character, but she faithfully acted them and gave expression to a multitude of emotions, intense maternal love, bitter hate, supreme contempt, following one another in quick succession.

Special scenery and elaborate stage settings, are carried by this company and Miss Coombs is surrounded by a representative American company.

Ashland Republican League.
ASHLAND, Neb., Oct. 24, 1888.
Jno. A. Davies, Pres. Young Men's Republican Club, Plattsmouth.—Dear Sir:—Your favor of 23d. inst. at hand. We are very much pleased at your acceptance of our invitation and can assure you that your actions are appreciated. Senator Manderson will speak in the evening. Please let us know as soon as possible what time your train will arrive. The Lincoln Flambeau Club will be with us. Yours truly,
G. J. RAILSBACK, Sec.

CONSUMPTION SURELY CURED.
TO THE EDITOR.—Please inform your readers that I have a positive remedy for the above named disease. By its timely use thousands of hopeless cases have been permanently cured. I shall be glad to send two bottles of my remedy FREE to any of your readers who have consumption if they will send me their express and post office address. Respectfully,
T. A. SLOCUM, M. C., 181 Pearl St., New York.

Eight Mile Grove
We had quite a snow storm on Sunday.
Corn husking is the order of the day with our farmers.

—Major A. Hall and Miss Lee Perry are attending school at the University, this fall.

—Tewalt Valley has added another improvement, by building a kitchen onto his house.

—Mr. and Mrs. Sigel Davis of Ulyses, were visiting his parents Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Davis not long since.

—R. J. Minford has his new house erected and almost completed, and it will soon be ready for occupancy.

—D. W. Cameron of southern Illinois, is engaged teaching a fall term of school at Pleasant Hill, south of here.

—Mrs. N. Slocumb and children of Otoe county were visiting with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Amick, last week.

—Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Pool of Wabash, were visiting relatives and old friends at this place during the week of the county fair.

—Mrs. J. R. Cathey has gone to Saline county, Illinois, where she will spend the winter with her mother and sisters at home.

—Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Barker returned from Buffalo county, where they have been making improvements on their farm the past month.

—Mr. and Mrs. Will Jeffers and Ernest Jeffers and his new bride, arrived here from Kansas not long since and are stopping with their sisters, at present.

—The dance given at the home of Aaron Batterson on the 10th inst., was very successful in getting a large crowd, but not so successful in procuring good music.

—Rev. E. Howers, our new minister, would have put in his first appearance at this place on Sunday, if the storm had not prevented his coming to fulfil his appointment.

—J. R. Valley is building a new house on his lot in Plattsmouth where he and his family will move the 1st of December to establish a new home and educate their children.

—The basket supper given by the young ladies at the Cottonwood school house last Wednesday evening for the benefit of the U. B. minister, was a grand success socially and very good financially, it netted them about fifteen dollars.

—J. R. Cathey after visiting three weeks with his mother and old friends in southern Ohio, returned home on the 4th inst. He says politics are warm there and he thinks Ohio is sure to send in her thirty electors for Harrison on the 6th of November.

—Mr. and Mrs. W. Jenkins returned on the 4th inst., from their visit in Scioto county, Ohio. It is twenty-five years since they emigrated to the great prairies of the west, and they found everything greatly changed there. They were perfectly delighted with their visit, but have no desire to live there again.

—T. E. Fulton, our blacksmith, made a dying visit to his parents, brothers and sister, living in Cecil county, Maryland, and returned home the 1st of this month where he found a shop full of work awaiting him. He has always been a staunch democrat but he says he will give Harrison a full support at this fall's election.
ONE OF MANY.

Rock Bluffs.
Charles Shera, who has been living at Rapid City, Dakota, for some time came home last week.

—Billy Allen has got his new house so nearly completed, that they are moving into it this week.

—Geo. Churchill and his son Frank came in from Kearney last week and are busy picking up box elder seeds.

—If we can ascertain the date that the Journal man's election bet is to be paid, we will come all the way to Plattsmouth to see that wheel barrow exhibition.

—Alexander Graves has sold out his property here, consisting of a dwelling house and about thirty acres of ground to John Churchill. We understand the consideration was a span of horses, harness, wagon and a hundred dollars in cash.

—Mrs. James Woods who has been in very poor health for some time, with consumption, died last Saturday and was buried Monday in Rock Bluffs cemetery. Mrs. Woods leaves a husband and a family of thirteen children to mourn her loss.

—Geo. Furlong who went west to Cheyenne Co. about three months ago, to see if he could improve his health, returned last week very much poorer in health than when he went away, having lost nearly thirty pounds of flesh during that time.

—Charles Tracy moved to Plattsmouth two weeks ago, and went to work in the railroad shops. Those shops are absorbers of men. Something like fifteen or twenty men and boys have gone into those shops from this precinct, during the past eighteen months.

HIGH SCHOOL NOTES

—Miss Etta Seule is teaching in 2d ward in the absence of Miss Fulmer, who has been sick.

—Miss Valley is at her post of duty and in her absence the schools lose one of its brightest teachers.

—And by the way, a new mode of punishment has been brought in use. It is peculiar, but very pleasant and still effective. Plans and specifications can be furnished by calling on form No. 6. (No patent applied for.)

—West 4th ward has the largest attendance of any of the wards and is doing good work and the board of education made no mistake when they placed Miss Holloway and Miss Biddle in charge of this school.

—Our school grounds look so much better than formerly the grass is growing nicely, but still they could be improved on by the janitor exerting himself a little and gathering up the waste paper that is thrown out the windows.

—The decrease of attendance is perceptible since the Catholic school began which illustrate one of two things their attendance is not very large or else the city is growing in population and we are inclined to think the city is growing.

Grand Republican Rally.

FREMONT, NEB., Oct. 23, '88

ED. HERALD, Plattsmouth, Dear Sir:—The Republicans of Fremont are arranging for a grand rally on the 31st of this month. During the afternoon, from 2 to 5 o'clock, there will be speaking by the best orators of Nebraska, including Senator Manderson, Gov. Thayer, Congressman Dorsey, and many others. At 5 o'clock a good, old-fashioned barbecue will be given. At night there will be an illumination of the city and a mammoth torchlight parade of the Republican clubs of the Nebraska State League. All the state officers will be present. The indications now are that it will be the grandest political demonstration ever held in the state.

—The railroads have all made a rate of one fare for the round trip from all points in Nebraska. We should be very much pleased to have you come. For the good of the cause will you kindly mention the rally in your excellent paper? Yours respectfully,

(ROSS L. HAMMOND,
Invitation Com.) S. B. COLSON,
W. H. MEAD.

A Denial.

GREENWOOD, Neb., Oct. 22, 1888.
EDITOR HERALD:—I desire to deny, most emphatically through your columns the report that I am about to remove from Cass county. The facts are these: The continued ill health of my wife renders it necessary for me to seek special medical treatment for her and to that end we shall board during the coming winter, but our home will be in Greenwood and our furniture will be stored in my own building. My residence in Greenwood is not for sale, all reports to the contrary notwithstanding.
Yours Truly,
EDWIN JEARY.

—It is useless to attempt the cure of any disorder, if the blood is allowed to remain impure. Neuralgia and rheumatism are traceable to a disordered condition of the blood, and in numberless cases have been cured by taking a few bottles of Ayer's Sarsaparilla.

County Seat Meeting.

At a meeting held in Wabash on Thursday evening, the 15th, it was ordered that a meeting of all voters without regard to party be held at that place on Friday evening next, the 27th. Everybody is cordially invited to be present that are interested in the re-location of the county seat of Cass county. The object of the meeting will be made known at that time. Come everybody. Don't forget the date. By order of Chairman.

—Invalids should remember that the causes of sick and nervous headaches may be promptly removed by taking Ayer's Pills. These pills speedily correct irregularities of the stomach, liver and bowels, and are the mildest and most reliable cathartic in use.

—The American Tea Co. makes an advertising medium of all its customers, presenting with each purchase a "present" either in choice China ware of glass ware, or some useful article. Of course you would much prefer the company would take a large space and advertise with the HERALD, but they claim their mode of giving presents suits them best. In any case the house will do a very large trade for their name is already a household word in very many states in the Union. They will furnish you hot tea, cream and sugar. You are invited.

Pop Corn.

—Farmers having large lots of Rice Pop Corn, will do well to call on C. L. Colman at Bennett and Tut's, this week.

TIM SHAKER,
