Other styles 5-A Nets, price to $2.50. Wm. Ayres & Sons, Philadelphia. Sold by all.

Lookout for a republican governor of Tennessee this fall.

The anti-Lottery bill seems sure of passage in the senate. It having already passed the house.

The tony and versatile Gen. Vaughn of the Omaha Democrat, has, with considerable effort, read the Hon. J. D. Calhoun, of the Lincoln Herald, out of the party.

Mr. Wells, the alliance nominee for state treasurer, is warmly endorsing the World-Herald as the great newspaper of the west.

There seems to be no good reason to doubt that the tariff bill will be disposed of by September 15, and that Congress will adjourn by October 1.

ENGLAND is now willing to arbitrate the Bohring sea difficulty. Under the Bayard regime no thought of arbitration was tolerated by the English.

The raise in the price of corn in the First district has had more to do with Van Wyck's refusing to be a candidate than all other reasons combined.

The festive and genial Dick Barr, of Weeping Water, it is said will launch forth a red hot alliance paper on an unsuspecting public within a few days.

It is a dastardly shame if the bill compelling fair elections should fail to become a law. The democratic party grows frantic at the mention of it and have called it the force bill.

WITH the advent of fifty cent corn and wheat at one dollar per bushel the last hope of the democratic party has vanished.

The howl of the millionaire editor of the World-Herald against the Pinkertons and in favor of the K. of L. is such a rank contradiction of his real opinions, that the effort to supercede the Bee as the labor organ of Nebraska is very apparent.

WHEN Mr. Bryan utters the statement that there are democratic districts in Iowa where democrats are denied fair representation, he speaks as the demagogue and every intelligent citizen knows this to be true.

ing is indulged in to a marked extent are Ohio and Indiana, and those states are today (both) so outrageously distracted that decent democrats do not pretend to justify it and Major McKinley will be returned to congress in a district of several thousand democratic majority.

HIS RIGHT TO SPEAK.

In 1844 Senator Hoar's father, Samuel Hoar, was the commissioner sent by the legislature of Massachusetts to South Carolina to test the constitutionality of the laws of the state authorizing the imprisonment of free colored people who should enter it.

The Kansas board of agriculture estimates that under the most favorable conditions the crop of corn will not yield more than one-third of an average, or a total of seventy five million bushels, against two hundred and forty million bushels last year.

HAD State Treasurer Hill, Auditor Tom Benton, Lou Richards, Tom Majors, or Congressman Connell, dropped down on the old settlers at Union the other day and dared to advise the democratic farmers to vote for republicans and to exercise great independence in political matters, what a howl would have went up from the democratic press; yet, it is all right for a brassy politician of the democratic family to break in on such a gathering and get in his work.

The four or five months of the greatest trade activity of the year is about to open up. There are many indications that this year will be no exception, but there is one great cloud on the business horizon—the contest between the Knights of Labor and the New York Central railroad.

The annual 2 per cent increase of the population by births over deaths which prevailed between 1870 and 1880 has been maintained ever since, the country has nearly 67,000,000 inhabitants now, counting in the immigrants which have come here in the past ten years.

If the democracy of the first district for one moment believed that Mr. Bryan would refuse to enter the democratic caucus and be bound by it, if elected to congress, they would invite him to step down and off their ticket without further wear and tear to the party machinery.

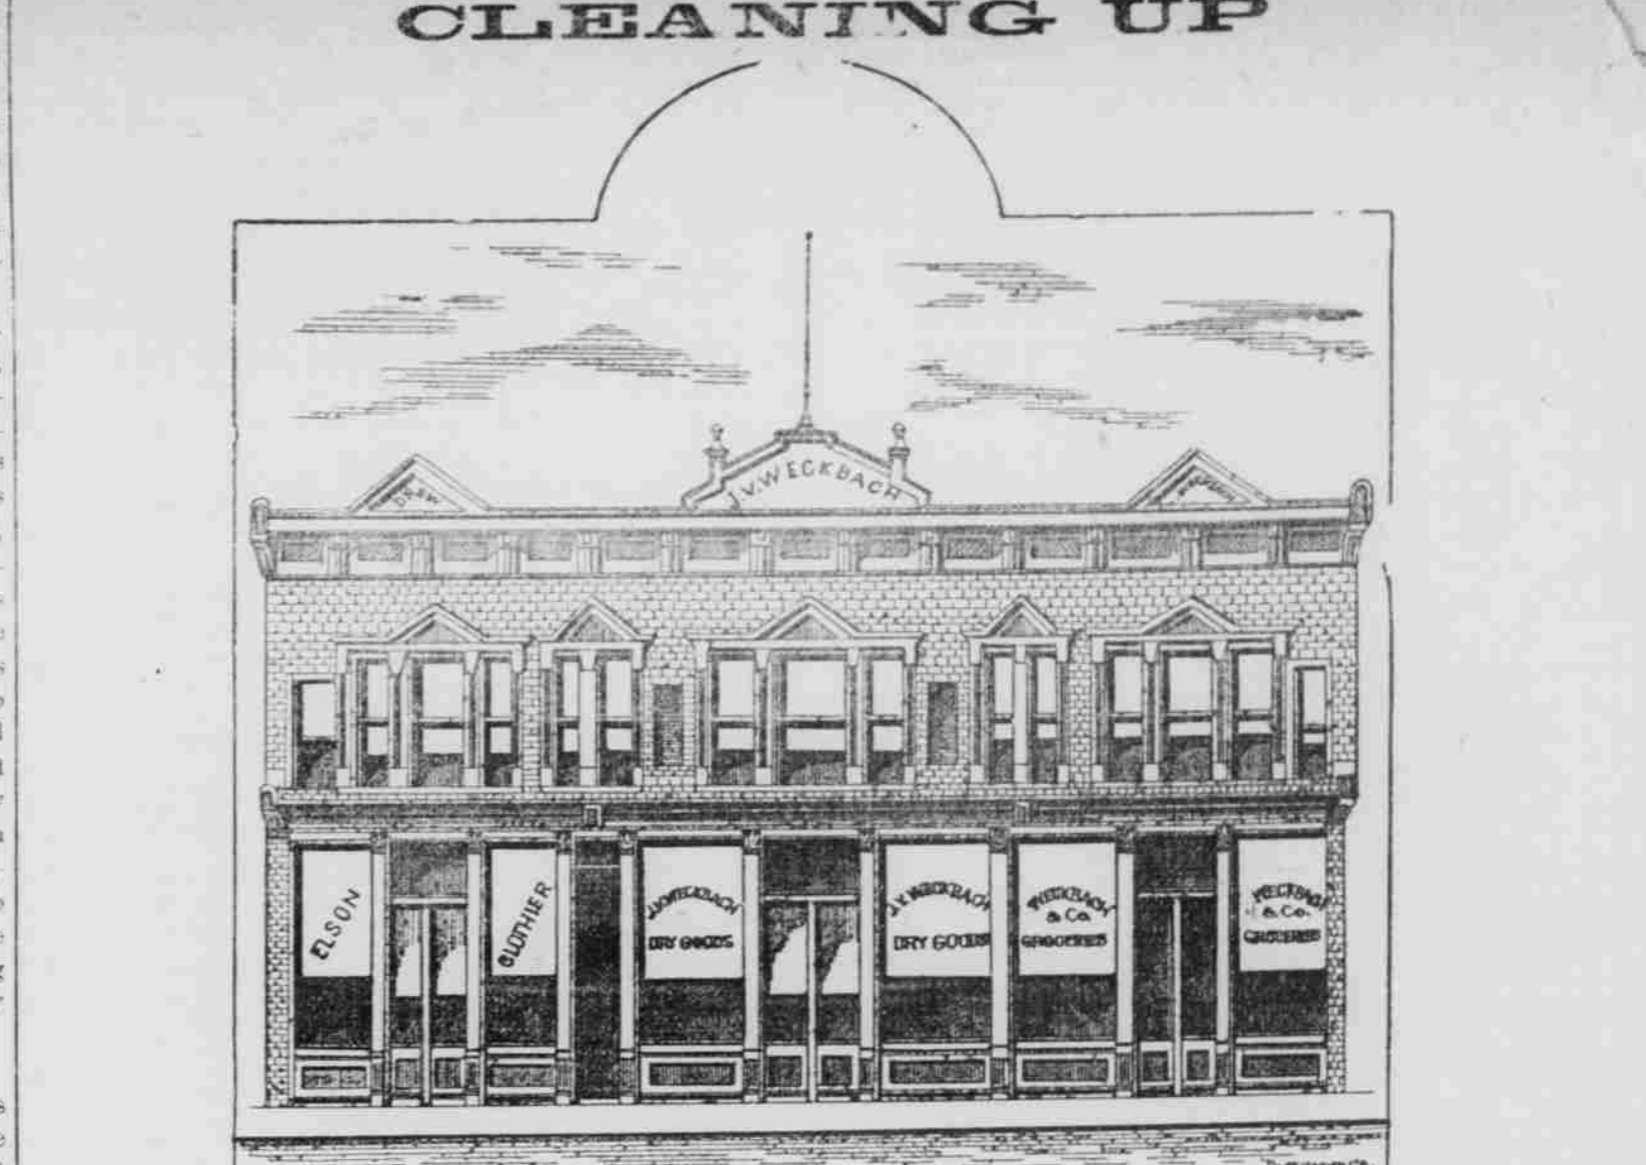

THE SETTLEMENT WITH PORTUGAL. ALTHOUGH Lord Salisbury has been singularly unfortunate in his home policy during the Parliamentary session that has just been brought to a close, yet he has been far more successful in his dealings with foreign nations.

Shire rivers, which was on the eve of precipitating a war between the two countries in the early part of last spring. Under the terms of the treaty just concluded, England retains the Shire Highlands and Mashonland; and, moreover, she receives the promise of a first option of any portion of Portuguese Africa which the Lisbon government may be anxious to dispose of in the future.

The outlook for the strike becomes more gloomy every day. A committee of twelve men are now in session at Terre Haute, Ind., that have it in their power to lose millions for every business interest in the country. Were it a strike for more pay when they were working too low, or in other words, if it were a bread and butter strike, there might be some sympathy for the strikers but when it is purely a question of whether they shall manage the New York Central railroad or the people who own it shall do it, then the solid middle class will refuse to be sacrificed without a struggle, or the expression of an opinion in opposition to so foolish and almost anarchical theory.

YOURS TRULY, J. V. WECKBACH & SON,

Old Settlers at Union. From Monday's Daily. [Special to the HERALD]

There are over twelve hundred people present. E. W. Barnum was unanimously chosen chairman. He delivered a brief address and said among other things that the people were prosperous, and were not being ground down by the government much to the disgust of "Calamity" Sherman, who appeared to be itching to console with the dear people, he may get in a line or two this afternoon.

E. C. Wiley delivered the address of welcome in a very appropriate manner. Then rose up the bland, smiling Bryan who had come all the way down to hear himself talk, and try to make an impression on the farmers. It was intended that he should eschew politics, but he slogged over a time or two and on one occasion advised the voters, regardless of party, to scratch their ticket this fall and vote only for men.

More music and then W. H. Deck, the candidate for lieutenant governor on the peoples' ticket, got up and made quite a talk. Among other things he said that he came to Nebraska 24 years ago and landed from a boat at Plattsmouth, though he had never been in the county from that day until this. Mr. Deck is a sort of an L. G. Todd sort of a talker and after cracking a few old chestnuts, the noon hour was discovered to have arrived and an old fashioned basket dinner was enjoyed by the crowd.

There will be some other speaking this afternoon, though at this hour I can not learn just who will speak. Watson and Morton failed to materialize.

Luther Benson. There is but one Luther Benson, and he will lecture on temperance at Rockwood Hall tonight. Since the death of that great orator, Jno. B. Gough, Mr. Benson has been at the head of the list of temperance orators. His manner is pleasant and his control of the audience is wonderful. At the church last night he had his audience crying one moment only to be laughing the next. Mr. Benson said nothing about the amendment last night. He appears to be for temperance in fact rather than in theory. Every man and woman in the city ought to hear him. His lectures yesterday afternoon and evening were free. To night he will charge ten cents admission in order to defray expenses. Mr. Benson is an old time neighbor of the city editor of this paper, and we speak by the card when we say you will miss a rare treat if you fail to hear the noted orator.

M. W. Avery, the Greenwood cigar maker, is in the city delivering his directories.

Castoria. "Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children." Dr. G. C. Osmond, Lowell, Mass. "Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me." H. A. Archer, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y. "Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it." UNITED HOSPITAL AND DISPENSARY, Boston, Mass. Dr. J. F. Kincheloe, Conway, Ark. ALLEN C. SMITH, Pres., The Centaur Company, 77 Murray Street, New York City.

Colored Picnic. The members of the Zion Baptist church of Omaha got up an excursion to this city yesterday which was not as well attended as they expected on account of the rain. Three coaches were well filled on their special train which arrived about ten o'clock. The whole crowd went up to Fitzgerald's Hall where they enjoyed their basket dinner and entertained the crowd with some speaking and lots of music, the singing being especially fine. It was a genteel well behaved crowd in strong contrast to the South Omaha crowd that was here two weeks ago. A. W. Parker, Rev. Richards, of Atchinson, Rev. Coleman, H. H. Dorsey, and several other prominent colored people from Omaha were present. The party seemed to have a good time and said they would come again.

The Missouri Pacific. Since our enterprising evening contemporary made the discovery that the B. & M. had leased their road to the M. P. to South Omaha we have investigated the matter and learn there is no truth whatever in the report. The contract for grading the M. P. on the north side of the Platte was let some days ago and active work was begun this morning, many teams and grading tools having been brought in within the last few days. The grading across the Platte will be used jointly by the two roads for the coming year and possibly longer. The grading from Plattsmouth to Union is well under way. Many contractors will finish by the close of next week, so that it looks as though the road would be completely graded from Plattsmouth to Union by the last of September.
