THE SECOND NIGHT.

The Waterman Opera House Filled to Its Utmost.

THE BOYS MAKE GOOD SPEECHES.

Colonel S. P. Vanatta Makes the Opening Address—A Re-iteration of the Drill by Twenty Young Ladies.

By 7 o'clock last evening there was a surging crowd for several blocks from the opera house doors awaiting the time for the doors to open that they might gain admission to witness the exercises of the evening and hear the patriotic speeches of the boys who wore the blue, and of others whose sympathies were with them through the struggle which saved our country from slavery and rebellion and gave to us a free and prosperous republic. Many were disappointed not being able to gain admission to the hall, it being crowded to its utmost capacity. The hall was rapidly filled as soon as the doors were opened, and as soon as the presiding officer got the vast throng down to order he introduced Colonel S. P. Vanatta of this city, who in an eloquent address bade the old soldiers welcome to our city and homes, evincing by his feeling remarks that when speaking of the heroism and loyalty of the union soldiers he was speaking of the subject nearest his heart.

The war governor, Alvin Saunders, was then presented to the audience, and made a very interesting talk to the veterans, as did also Major Laddock of Omaha.

The glee club rendered some excellent music which was followed by the recitation of "The Veteran in Police Court" by Charles E. Burmeister of Omaha.

Colonel Ginger was then called upon for the Nebraska young ladies' drill, which was performed in a most satisfactory manner and the audience showed great appreciation of the same.

Hon. J. B. Strode of Lincoln, Colonel Colter of Topeka, Kan., and Colonel Rogers gave some war reminiscences and "cross fires" which furnished the fun of the evening. Governor Thayer made the concluding address of the evening.

Tonight occurs the distribution of the presents of the fair, and reserved seats are on sale at 10 cents at J. P. Young's store. The fair and reunion are voted a grand success.

George Pronger Insane.

The following from the Lincoln Journal will be sad news to Mr. Pronger's friends in this city, where he resided for many years.

A. D. Cline yesterday filed an affidavit of insanity with the clerk of the district court against George A. Pronger living on Eleventh street near L. Pronger. He is a carpenter by trade, sixty years of age, and has resided in the city one or two years. It said that at Plattsmouth where he formerly lived he became involved in financial troubles and lost what property he had accumulated. This so preyed upon his mind that he became unbalanced mentally and steps will be taken to have him cared for at the asylum. He is at no time violent, but persists in talking day and night. He is a married man with a family of grown up children. At present he is being looked after by a fraternal society of which he is a member in good standing at Plattsmouth. The time for his hearing has not been fixed.

THE SOLDIER'S REUNION

It Has Been a Splendid Social Success.

The second annual reunion of the First and Second Nebraska regiments, will be brought to a close with a banquet for the loyal and brave boys who bared their breasts and faced the Southern storm of shot and shell during the dark days from '61 to '64. We are glad indeed that so many have been spared, and are able to be with us today. The hearty greetings between some of the members of the regiments who had not seen each other for years, was pleasant to look upon. The work of the Grand Army fair has been most admirably conducted by Col. Ginger and his zealous lieutenants and gives promise of being as great a success financially as the reunion has been socially. The genial, warm hearted Majors, Governor Saunders Major Pearman, Governor Thayer, Col. Coulter and many others from abroad, have added much to the pleasure and good feeling among the old veterans by their presence and kindly greetings.

The following is a list of the soldiers present that were not reported the first day.

Karnes, J. P. Amick, Plattsmouth.

REUNION NOTES.

Governor Thayer and wife were the guests of Mrs. R. R. Livingston last night.

All the members present belonging to the old 1st and 2nd Nebraska called on the widow of General Livingston in a body this morning. They were pleasantly received, and in memory of the departed many kind words were spoken.

Col. Allison the scout gave a very interesting account of the Custer massacre yesterday afternoon.

Elias Sage brought down a barrel of choice apples for the old soldiers this morning, which they seemed to enjoy.

Many interesting relics are on exhibition at the fair in Rockwood Hall. We noticed a flag that was used in 1812, a badge that was presented by Gen. Grant's daughter Nellie at St. Louis to the 1st Nebraska. There were minnie balls from Shiloh and a copy of the Vicksburg Daily Citizen, printed on wall paper, the day before the city surrendered, Indian relics from the Custer battle field, a fierce looking rusty blade labeled a rebel cutlass, some queer looking Indian relics plowed up by J. W. Thomas, south of town a book whittled out of the soft stone at Chattanooga, a Confederate brass bullet picked up by L. D. Bennett at Corinth, Miss., after the battle, war pictures of J. W. McCrosky, Wm. Alexander, Edwin Bates and J. H. Leach; numerous views of Southern battle fields, a section of the old army hard tack, framed by Mr. Leach. McCrosky's portfolio carried from '61 to '64 and road canteen, the brass mounted sword of Second Lieutenant Edwin Davis of this city; Henry McMaken's cavalry sword, belt, cap and pistol carried through the war; L. C. Curtis' rifle, cartridge box, belt, cap and pouch, together with many other articles of great interest.

Among the presents not heretofore printed, we noticed two very handsome rockers, one from Geo. Ponsal and the other from Wm. Webber, also a quarter of beef from J. R. Vallery, decorated in an attractive manner.

At the reunion business meeting this morning the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: John Q. Goss, Bellevue, president; W. E. Majors, Peru, vice president; Chris Hartman, Omaha, treasurer; George V. Hall, Lincoln, secretary. It was agreed to hold the next annual reunion at Cushman Park in Lincoln, during September, '91.

Advance sale for "Lynwood" will open tomorrow morning.

An enthusiastic exchange takes occasion to remark that grammatically speaking, a kiss is a noun; technically speaking, a conjunction; and generally speaking, a first class article.

S. & C. Mayer are making the most determined effort of their lives this season in supplying everybody in what they need in clothing and furnishing goods. They bought their goods at such prices that is bound to make it a success. Call and examine their goods.

Weidman & Breckenfield received four of their celebrated round oak stoves yesterday from St. Louis. The factory was entirely out and behind with their orders so that the only chance to get any of them was to obtain them of a heavy wholesale house in St. Louis.

The grandest and most realistic military melodrama ever written will be presented by Chase & Dickinson's Gaiety Theater Co. next Monday night. Its title, "Lynwood," is taken from the name of an old, and in war times, well known Kentucky plantation within the precincts of which several of the scenes of this remarkable play are laid. Any person purchasing a reserved seat for this performance only, will be entitled to reserve one additional seat for a lady free of charge. Advance sale opens Friday morning.

Married.

NEBRASKA—At the court house November 20, at 2:30 p. m., Mr. William M. Keran and Miss Cora Bell Abbott were united in marriage, Judge Ramsey officiating.

County Court.

Citizens Bank vs Adam Kuntz and Frank E. Guthman, administrator; suit on notes; answer Dec. 1. Byron Clark for plaintiff.

John B. Cox vs Rich. Vivian; petition to revive dormant judgment. Byron Clark for plaintiff.

License to wed to Mr. Frank Micek and Miss May Bozbaba, both of Plattsmouth.

Harvey Carper vs M. D. Bailey; petition for contest of election of road supervisor in road district No. 47, Stove Creek precinct. A. L. Trimblin for contestant.

Last will and testament of W. B. Reynolds, deceased, filed for probate.

Petition of Fred Black for letters of administration in matter of estate of Geo. H. Black, deceased.

Butter And Eggs.

Farmers having good butter and eggs to dispose can get the highest market price by calling at the Palace restaurant next to Gorder's implement store in this city.

The Baptists will begin meeting Saturday evening at the home of Mr. Dan Landis, 1/2 mile north of the power house, in charge of Rev. Smothers of Iowa. The meetings will continue this week.

Withman & Fuller carry a full line of drugs and druggist sundries.

Take your prescriptions to Withman & Fuller. They dispense pure drugs.

A beautiful line of holiday goods in plush and satin just opened at Gering's. Call and inspect before the assortment is broken.

Our large line of stoves is kept full and complete all the time. No other house in this city has such an assortment as we carry.

A bright, radiant, happy home is all very nice, but the "Radiant Home," sold by Withman & Breckenfield, is far in the lead of all competitors.

Miss Grant is now prepared to give lessons on the piano. She can be found at 817 Locust street, next door to the Christian church.

Breckenfield & Weidman received another car load of their famous stove last week, and the way they are selling would indicate that the people know a good stove when they see it.

"Sixteenth century oak" is all the rage, but it isn't a marker to the popularity of the "Round Oak" heating stove, sold only by Weidman & Breckenfield. Heating qualities and economy of fuel are its predominant traits.

The ladies in Chicago are raving over the new perfumes, "Lotus Lily" and "Paradise Pink." Gering & Co., have just received an invoice of this delightful perfume which fairly intoxicates with its delicious odors. Remember Gering for anything nice in the toilet line.

Dr. Marshall's DENTIST

Will be in his office from Dec. 12 till Jan. 4, prepared to do all kinds of dental work by the very latest and most improved methods.

Ladies.

No man ever got a divorce when you used the gem cookstove and the Radiant Home and Round Oak heaters. It kept everybody cheerful and in good humor. Weidman & Breckenfield are sole agents in this city for these noted stoves.

We have a system of conducting our business, that our competitors cannot copy. We buy MORE GOODS for ONE DOLLAR, sell MORE GOODS for ONE DOLLAR than they can possibly do. If you do not believe the above assertion call and be convinced at S. & C. Mayer, the leading clothiers.

Soldiers, Attention.

We extend a cordial invitation to all soldiers whether you are our customers or not, to make our office and store rooms at corner Main and Sixth street your headquarters while in this city. If you are uncertain about hotel accommodations, have your mail addressed in our care, and it will be safely kept for you. Every convenience for writing has been placed at your disposal and any information regarding joints and times of interest etc., in our city will be cheerfully given.

An opportunity will also be afforded to examine the most complete line of furniture and stoves in the country on our sample floors.

Respectfully,

BOCK & WALKER.

The Palace Restaurant by Kimball & Beaver is one of the institutions of the town. They are feeding crowds of people every day and undoubtedly have the most attractive restaurant ever opened in this city.
