

Illinois Senatorship. From Thursday's Daily. The Illinois senatorial contest still remains an unsolved problem. What the final outcome will be is a matter of doubt, but from the late conferences held by the republicans and the "big three," General Palmer has polled the highest vote he can ever get in that legislature and consequently will not be elected senator. The three mutual benefit men are holding out with the hope that the republicans may take up Streeter, who has declared himself in accord with the republicans on the tariff and other national issues. If Streeter is not agreed upon, then it looks as if a new man may be taken up as a compromise candidate between the republicans and the mutual benefit men.

Royal Arcanum Notice. Cass Council No. 1021, Royal Arcanum, meets this evening at 8 o'clock in the K. of P. Hall. All members are requested to be present.

Golden Gate Concert. The Golden Gate Concert which has been in preparation for some time by the South Park Sabbath School, and which occurs at the Tabernacle next Sunday evening promises to be a rare treat, and will doubtless be well attended. Those desiring the management of the Sunday school and concert both are sparing no pains to make the evening's entertainment worthy of the presence of all who desire to attend. There will be no admission charged, but a collection will be taken for the church building fund.

The Building Season. One of the leading contractors and owners of the city says there will be more substantial building done in this city the coming season than in any previous year, that is, in the way of dwelling houses. He says the people talk about building without an "if" this time and that their plans are for larger and more substantial buildings than heretofore. It won't be a mushroom boom, but a general "breaking out" of the building fever. "It's sure to come," said he, and those who can not keep up with the procession will have to drop into the rear.

After due consideration, and a thorough examination of the plans and specifications submitted by the architects for the court house, the commissioners made the following resolution: RESOLVED: That the plans and specifications submitted by Wm. Gray, of Lincoln, Nebraska, be accepted upon the following conditions:— That the plans, specifications and details shall be so changed as to meet the approval of the board of commissioners, on the filing of a good and sufficient bond to be approved by the said board for the faithful performance of his work. Provided, however, that if the parties herein mentioned cannot agree in the completion of the plans, specifications, contract, bond, etc., the board reserves the right to reject the said bid without expense to the county.

V. et P. N's. The V. et P. N's gave a dancing party at Rockwood Hall last evening in honor of the O. D. C. There was a large attendance. The Siltzman orchestra furnished the music. The grand march occurred at about 9 o'clock with over thirty couples of the young people participating. Everything was complete in every way to make it a grand social success. Besides dancing there were other amusements in the way of games till the hour arrived for refreshments when they were served in royal style. The Oxford's are especially partial in their praise of the "swell" supper which all allow was a complete success. The honor of getting up and so successfully conducting this social event belongs to the following young ladies, with possibly a few names omitted, whom we were unable to recognize: Misses Rose McCauley, Nettie Ballance, Frankie Skiles, Mamie Stiles, Delia Tarsch, Bertha Nitka, Alice Eikenbary, Maud Vivian, Smith, Lucy Simpson, Edith Patterson, Ida Beck, Lizzie Miller, Dora Fricke, Maggie Oliver, Georgia Oliver, Fannie McDougal, Nannie Moore, Maggie Wright, Tressie Hemple, Kate Hemple, Bertha Wise, and Miss Streeter.

Recognized Boyd. A hot time and a great deal of skirmishing occurred in the House yesterday. Gale (Ind.) offered a resolution inviting Gov. Boyd to appear before the house and senate in joint convention February 6th at 11 o'clock a. m. and deliver any message he might have to communicate. The resolution was ruled out of order which was the signal for almost all kinds of tactics by the independents to keep out of recognizing Boyd as governor, but all in vain and the resolution was adopted upon a vote of 55 to 40. It is thought by many that this practically disposes of the contest.

WANTED.—A traveling man to represent a newspaper in Nebraska. Address HERALD office.

THE NEW COURT HOUSE.

It Will be an Elegant Fire-Proof Stone Structure.

THE PLAN HAS BEEN ADOPTED.

Wm. Gray, Architect of Lincoln Furnishes the Plan.

The examination of the several plans and specifications which were submitted to the commissioners for the court house, were concluded yesterday afternoon, and the one submitted by Wm. Gray, architect of Lincoln, Nebraska, was accepted. His plan was complete in showing every detail of the entire structure, and showed much the best arrangement of the several offices, court rooms, vaults, private rooms, etc., of any other plan submitted. The work on his drawings shows that he is a practical and skillful workman, and we feel confident that when completed Cass county will have a structure which will be a great credit to the entire county. The contract and specifications will be completed, and bond entered into, in a few days, when the work will be pushed along as fast as the weather will permit. The dimensions of the structure will be 89 feet on Main by 102 feet on Fourth street, with broad entrances from both streets. The basement will be 10 feet high, with floor about a level with the curbstone of the street. The first floor will be fifteen feet high and the court room 18 feet, making the three divisions of basement, first floor and court room 43 feet high. The height from base to statue will be 139 feet. The entire outside walls will be of Warrensburgh stone, with slate roofing and copper and stone cornice. All corridors will have tile floors, and all office floor will be maple. Best American plate glass, in fact every article entering into the structure will be first class. In the basement will be located the steam heating apparatus, for heating the building throughout, the offices for county superintendent and county surveyor with two vaults. On the first floor will be located the offices of county clerk, commissioners, recorder, treasurer, county judge and county attorney, with five vaults. The court room floor will contain the offices of sheriff and clerk of court, with two vaults, and two court rooms, jury room and private rooms. There will be private rooms for all officers. The court room will be 40x50 and the equity court room on the same floor. This will make a court house that all citizens of the county may well feel proud of, and the commissioners are to be congratulated upon the exercise of sound judgment in the adoption of a plan for a stone fire proof building in which to store safely the county's records.

Litchfield, Sherman Co., Neb. Mr. A. Todd, Plattsmouth.

Dear Sir: Those goods you shipped here, sent by Mrs. M. M. Richardson of your city, reached here Friday, Jan. 30, O. K. We were very glad to get them as there is great destitution in our midst. There seems to be a lack in bed clothes, such as quilts and comforters, but food and fuel is most needed just now, and also feed for stock and seed to sow in the spring. While we thank you for what you have already sent us, we hope you can send still more, as we are dependent on those who were more fortunate. There is at present a cold wave passing over us, and should it continue there will be much suffering among the poor. Now we pray that God will bless you and put within your power the means to help us immediately, and if you can influence any of your sister cities to help us, please do so. Hoping to hear from you again, we remain Yours as ever, C. J. Wilson, Sec'y Relief Corps.

February 3, 1891.

Died. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hassemeir of the Fourth ward, mourn the loss of their infant son, which died at 3:15 this morning. Funeral will occur at three o'clock tomorrow afternoon at Louisville, where the remains will be conveyed this evening on No. 9 at 6:15.

Wm. Neville and W. D. Jones returned last evening from a fruitless search for Mr. Neville's stolen mules. They got no trace of the animals beyond Paul, the mail station on the M. P., this side of Nebraska City. Mr. Neville has notified the officers of Kansas City and other points, so that the thieves may yet drop into the hands of the officers.

One of the probable new enterprises for the coming season is an extensive brick factory. Omaha parties have been viewing the O'Neill addition for that purpose, and pronounce the location and clay suitable for the business, and it opened up will give employment to a considerable number of laborers.

A fellow from Iowa, giving his name as Hunter, got hilarious last evening and thought he owned the town, but Jonnie Fitzpatrick corralled him and this morning he settled with the police judge by paying a fine, and returned to prohibition Iowa.

Joe Bigford, a former Nebraskan, returned to his old home "back in Maine" several months ago and was seen this morning at the depot by his old neighbor, Moses Hiatt, en route to Beaver City. Joe gave emphasis to the fact that Nebraska is the best state on earth and way ahead of old Maine.

The statement that E. B. Gull, superintendent and general superintendent, E. E. Calvert and a retired man from the B. & M. service seems to have been untrue. Railroad officials who are in a position to know deny that there has been any such action on the part of the company, nor is any expected.

Wrong Again.

From Friday's Daily. Now comes F. R. Gullman, Bill Jones and twenty others, not members of the Salvation Army and offer to donate to Cass county a whole lot if they will locate the new court house on part of it. This is the Wheeler lot adjoining the present court house, after due consideration the gift was accepted. Now comes F. H. Stinker and 500 others asking for it somewhere else. This is the beginning of a circus and menagerie that will occupy the attention of the public until the courts compel the commissioners to call another election on behalf of the dear people on the outside. There is no war in Nebraska now, it has been transferred to the state of Cass on the Missouri river.—Weeping Water Eagle.

Wrong again Brother Reed, all differences as to the location of the new court house have been amicably settled and the site that for thirty years has been used for county offices will continue to be used for that purpose. There is no friction here at all, on the contrary everything is peace and harmony.

Died. At 6 o'clock this morning of consumption, Mrs. Anna Johnson, aged 40 years, wife of Richard Johnson, in the west part of town near Maiden Lane. Funeral from residence at 11 o'clock Saturday, conducted by Rev. J. K. Reid. Deceased leaves husband to mourn her loss.

Teacher's Association.

The sixth annual meeting of the South-Eastern Nebraska Teacher's Association will be held at Penn, April 2 and 3, 1891. The executive committee, consisting of F. D. McClusky, of Lincoln; Wm. McClary, Nebraska City and George E. Chatburn, of Humboldt, are out in a circular announcing the meeting, and any one desiring information relative thereto can obtain it by addressing any member of the committee. Papers will be read and discussed which will be of interest to all engaged in school work. The following are some of the topics which will be taken up at the meeting for discussion: The District School—(a) Grading, (b) Its relation to the high school; The Kindergarten in Public Schools; The Training of the Hand; and discussion of methods of teaching primary reading. Other subjects will be added. The committee are also endeavoring to secure Supt. J. M. Greenwood, of Kansas City, to deliver an address.

County superintendents are requested to act as chairman from their respective counties and to ask that teachers be allowed to close their schools during the time of the association. The railroads will make the usual reduction in fare to teachers or others in attendance. W. E. Taylor, Penn, will answer all communications relative to hotel accommodations.

C. W. Sherman is in the capital today to hear Governor Boyd's inaugural address.

Attorney J. H. Haldeman of Weeping Water came in last evening on legal business.

Wm Ludwig in the third ward is, the HERALD is sorry to report, quite sick with something like la grippe.

T. H. Knotts, of the Iowa Printing Company, of Des Moines, is visiting his brother, A. B. Knotts, of the HERALD.

Dr. Yoder, the new medical examiner of the Burlington Voluntary Relief Association, will occupy rooms between the telegraph office and the car checker's office in the depot building.

The Lancaster county District Court docket for the February term contains 51 divorce cases. It might be said that Lancaster is the banner county of the state for severing the Gordian knot.

The raging, ranting Race of the Eagle is out again this week abusing Plattsmouth people indiscriminately. He can't even make a friendly local mention of a religious gathering in this city without pouring forth his gall before closing the paragraph. We presume he is doing the bidding of his masters, so let him go in and earn his price.

H. C. McMaken & Son are working about forty men on the river and in the ice houses, and report that they are getting about all their houses in the city full. They also have quite a force at work at Milford where they have a lease of one-half mile on the Blue. The ice out there is about fifteen inches thick, while here it is only about eight.

Birthday Party. Yesterday R. Petersen, of the enterprising grocery firm of Petersen & Larson, reached his 47th milestone in life. The occasion was honored by about forty of the Old Fellows and Rebecca's gathering at his residence on Chicago avenue last evening and participating in a general social time. Refreshments were served, and as it to impress Rasmus with the fact that he is marching toward old age, though young now, he was presented with a fine rocker on which to recline when those days shall roll round. The occasion was one long to be remembered by all participants on account of the manner in which they were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Petersen.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Vanant, Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Twiss, Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Anderson, Dr. A. Shipman, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Larson, Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Asgaard, Mr. and Mrs. I. Pentleman, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kroschier, Mr. and Mrs. F. Boyd, Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Bates, Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Karnes, Mr. and Mrs. A. Stutz, Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Peterson, Mr. and Mrs. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. John Cory, Mr. and Mrs. A. Hunger, Miss L. Weiss, Miss Hattie Shepherd, Miss B. Ter, Misses Kroschier, Miss Cuhu, Mr. A. Moody, Mr. G. H. Jex.

Petit Jurors.

- Following is the list of petit jurors drawn to say by Sheriff Tighe and Clerk Snowwater for the March term of the District Court: Henry Boeck—Plattsmouth. N. J. Galkins—Center Precinct. S. C. Gray—Salt Creek. James O'Leary—Mt. Pleasant. Clark Newton—Center. C. F. Nairn—Liberty. W. A. Atchison—Stove Creek. T. M. Balknap—Greenwood. L. Russell—Salt Creek. J. M. Meisinger—Eight Mile Grove. S. C. Patterson—South Bend. C. E. Wescott—Platts. City. Ed Dorr—Stove Creek. C. O. Cole—Plattsmouth. Sam'l Cashner—Greenwood. Fred Schroeder—Eight Mile Grove. J. N. Summers—Plattsmouth. Jno. Brother Keithly of the Weeping Water Republican seems very much perturbed, so much so that there doesn't seem to be exact harmony existing between some of his paragraphs this week when he attempts to rival Trace in his abuse of Plattsmouth people. He says in one paragraph "the Louisvillites are taking on a sort of carnine hue over the action of the county commissioners. They can sympathize with others when it comes home to them." In another paragraph in the same column he wants litigation. Now how is the Courier Journal to interpret the Republican, it taunts the Louisville people in one breath and urges them to get into court in the next.

Constable S. D. McNurlin, of Weeping Water came in last evening bringing in an insane man by the name of John Dalton, who was adjudged a fit subject for the asylum by the commissioners of insanity. Dalton's home is 7 miles west of Weeping Water, and has up to this time resided with his parents, he being a single man, but lately he has become desperate having threatened the lives of the old people several times, and there seemed to be danger of his actually murdering them. He is a young man about twenty-five years old and has been slowly losing his mind for some time.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Karnes, upon invitation of the Rebeccas, I. O. O. F., of Hastings, went out to that city Monday evening, returning yesterday, Mr. Karnes while there put on what is known in I. O. O. F. circles as the beautiful work of the Daughters' of Rebecca, and the greatest satisfaction with the work was expressed by all interested. Mr. Karnes is quite an artist and his book of diagrams illustrative of the work is a model of neatness and shows much skill in that kind of work. Mr. and Mrs. Karnes had a most enjoyable time while in the city of Hastings.

Henry Pfeiffer, merchant of Pacific Junction, and Frank Fowler, a farmer in that vicinity, came over today to manifest their interest in their friend, James McKinzy, the barber of that village, who is lying out a fine and cost bill in jail for being drunk and disorderly Monday night at the show. When they found that one more day in the bastille would square the account with the state they concluded to settle that way.

The honesty of the western drought sufferers was shown yesterday by the return to Rev. M. F. Carey, of Nebraska City $8 found in the pocket of an old coat which had been sent west among a lot of other clothing a few weeks ago.
