ELMWOOD ITEMS.

FROM THE ECHO.

The Elmwood creamery will be ready for business by the first of next week.

J. D. Fentiman had a valuable mule killed this week by a rattlesnake bite.

C. D. Clapp is building an addition 14x16 to his house just east of the track occupied by Henry Striplin.

R. N. Robotam, agent for Adams & Gilberts, tells us that he paid out $15,396.69 for hogs and grain during the month of April. This much money paid out by one firm in 26 days goes to show that Elmwood gets a share of the produce of the farm at least.

Mrs. Louisa Mathews, living near town, received a U. S. draft yesterday to the amount of $1,283 as pension money for disabilities rendered her husband in the late war. Mr. Mathews has been dead a number of years and the money was needed.

Dopp sold eighteen head of fat cattle Saturday to John Hastie that not only took the cake, the bakery, but the baker's wife as well. It pays to care for and feed well your stock if one is to judge from the price paid Mr Dopp for his steers. The eighteen head brought $1,728, or an average of just $96 per head.

The children of J. A. and Caroline Current honored their father and mother with a grand reunion banquet on their fortieth wedding anniversary, Friday evening, May 8th. The whole program, which was elaborate, was arranged entirely unbeknown to the father and mother and the surprise to them was complete. A sumptuous repast was served and a good old family reunion was had. The children presented their parents with a handsome set of dishes of 125 pieces.

Resolutions of Respect.

Since the death of one of our most esteemed members, we, the Alumni Association, have adopted the following resolutions:

WHEREAS, Our Heavenly Father hath deemed it best to take from our midst our beloved sister and classmate, Mrs. Olive Holmes,

Resolved, That we, the Alumni Association, feeling the loss of her cheerful spirit in our society, most fervently unite in extending our sympathy to the bereaved husband, parents and members of the family, and trust that He who has taken her to His heavenly home will comfort those who mourn her loss.

Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the husband and parents of the deceased, and published in the city papers.

Mangled in a Runaway.

Mrs. Jesse Davis and a married daughter with a little child were driving in a road cart Wednesday afternoon, at Weeping Water where they reside when the horse ran away, throwing the ladies out. The daughter was badly cut about the head and body. Mrs. Davis' foot caught in the slot bed of the cart, and she was dragged for a quarter of a mile, when the horse was caught. A saw had to be used to extricate her from the perilous position. One ear was torn entirely off, and her head, arms and body are frightfully bruised. The doctors think it is very doubtful if she recovers. The child remained in the cart and was slightly injured.

A Denver & Rio Grande special and Central Pacific coach went east on the flyer last evening.

UNION ITEMS.

FROM THE LEDGER.

Chas. Swan went to Omaha last Tuesday evening with 42 head of cattle, for which we understand he received 5.35.

Mr. H. L. Wilson, who had the contract for putting in the railroad water supplies at this place was in the city yesterday. He is now engaged at putting in a well for the company at La Platte.

Hon. Allen Beeson of Plattsmouth the leading member of the Cass County Bar, was here on legal business Tuesday, accompanied by his son Charlie. This was Mr. Beeson's first visit to Union, and he was agreeably surprised to find here a village so large and flourishing as this.

Thursday morning John Chalfant drove to town, Mrs. Winfield Swan and Mollie or Maggie Eikenbary occupying the seat with him. The team became somewhat gay near the lower crossing of main street and as the buggy was turning over the ladies avoided serious injuries by jumping and falling to the ground. Luckily no one was injured, and but slight damage was done to the carriage.

Judge Archer's Court.

J. C. McIntire was arrested and fined $5 and costs Friday evening for disturbing the peace by getting drunk and running his horse through the streets. The gentleman tried the cow boy but it was not just in harmony with the judges sense of propriety.

James B. Cassidy vs. Soenichsens & Schirk, suit on account Hearing set for May 20th.

County Court.

Christ Wohlfarth vs. Mrs. John L. Minor. Continued on application of defendant until May 25, 10 a. m.

License to wed issued to Mr. William J. Crosser and Miss Fannie Nichols both of Murray.

Up to May 16.—1891, Judge Ramsey has issued 248 marriage licenses and united in matrimony 52 couples since he assumed the duties of county judge. Who says marriage is a failure when 496 persons took their chances from one official in about 16 months?

Mrs. Kildow, who has lived for some time on Mrs. O'Roukes place south of town, was the unfortunate victim of a fire last week, which consumed the residence together with all its contents. The house caught fire in the afternoon while the folks were out in the field at work and burned up every vestige of clothing and furniture in and about the house before Mrs. Kildow could get to it. There was no insurance, which is specially unfortunate for Mrs. Kildow as she is very poor and has nothing to start with. H. C. McMacken gave the family $5 which if emulated by others would soon place them where they could again be self-supporting.

John Green, one of Greenwood's most enterprising merchants is the city to-day.

J. M. Beardsley, Frank Hubbard, Allen Coleman and A. J. Doran of Weeping Water are in town to-day.

A. L. Timblin, one of Weeping Water's rising young attorneys, is in the city to-day and made THE HERALD a pleasant call.

Peter Neider, the man who was killed Saturday, was buried in the pootterfield to-day by the coroner. The sheriff received a telegram from the postmaster at Stuart, Holt county, saying Neider's family was too poor to send for him; to give him decent burial here.

Henry Lehahoff and wife and Louie Eickhoff are in the city to-day from Louisville.

Christ Metzger of Cedar Creek is looking after business matters at the county seat to-day.

Commissioners Trietsch and Loder came in on the Schuyler to look after court house business.

The HERALD was kindly favored this morning with a sample of the silver ore from John Shafers mine near Custer City. The sample we have, seems to be nearly pure silver and lead, and would indicate from what we have heard about the mine that there are indeed millions in it. The farther they get into the mine the richer it seems to be. John is evidently on the highway for a millionaire and we are glad of it.

The Missouri Pacific.

A HERALD representative was kindly treated to a ride Saturday afternoon by Joe Lloyd behind one of his thoroughbred horses that was certainly enjoyed.

We noticed with pleasure the wonderful growth of vegetation and the most promising outlook for fruit we have ever seen.

We took a look at Charley Jeans' French roses in full bloom, and finally arrived at the M. P. track near the Sam Barker farm, five miles from town.

An army of men were at work rapidly pushing the road to completion. More than a hundred men were following up the tracklayers, surfacing and building fence, so that when the rails are all down the road will be ready for traffic. The switches are being put in at Murray to-day. The tracklayers are now at work in Plattsmouth precinct, near Sile Long's place, less than four miles from town.

With continued favorable weather, it now looks like they might reach this city by Friday. The iron works for the viaduct across Locust street in this city will be brought from Union and put in place as soon as the track reaches that point.

$8.55 Was the Cost.

P. Johnson is the name of the callow youth from Cedar Creek, that tarried too long at the wine cup Saturday which resulted in his appearance before Judge Archer yesterday and paying $8.55 to recompence the offended dignity which the great state of Nebraska had suffered at his hands. He journeyed back to Cedar Creek richer in wisdom but poorer in purse and fully impressed with the power and majesty of the law.

Lawn Tennis Club.

It may not be generally known, but it is a fact, nevertheless, that Plattsmouth has a first class lawn tennis club. The officers are Prof. McClelland, president; Miss Alberta Hyers, secretary, and Miss Amelia Vallery, treasurer.

The members are Prof. McClelland, Will Streight, D. C. McEntee, Fred Carruth, A. E. Barrett, J. A. Davies, and the Misses Hyers, McClelland, Aldora Clark, Carrie Greusel, Amelia and Margaret Vallery. We are told they start out with money in the treasury and under most favorable auspices.

Before Judge Archer.

W. A. Taylor vs. The Plattsmouth Canning Co., Wm. Webber and J. A. Connor. Judgment for plaintiff for $98.

Gustave Pitts vs. same defendants. Judgment for plaintiff for $24.61.

It rained in Omaha this morning at 8 o'clock a refreshing little shower. Plattsmouth was not in it.

County Court.

Clark & Barr vs. N. Russell and Geo Conklin. Suit on account of legal service. Hearing May 29, and at 10 a. m.

Petition of Samuel Stradly to probate will of Elisha Stradly and for the appointment of A. C. Loder as executor.

License to wed issued to Mr. Wm. S. Mooney and Miss Lizzie Collins.

Yant Brothers vs. Bickert et al. Continued by Stipulation until May 25, 10 a. m.

Last will and testament of Pauline Dethuean filed for probate.

Last will and testament of George W. Jenks filed for probate.

Cornyne Stone & Co, vs Reed Brother company. Suit on account Settled and dismissed.

Bond of Ambrose Mathews executor, last will and testament of U. V. Matthews deceased, approved and H. M. Gault and Robert Donnelly appointed appraisers of said estate

Chatburn Elected.

Telegram to the Lincoln Journal from Wymore announces the fact that George Chatburn has been unanimously elected superintendent of the Wymore schools, a promotion well deserved and one that his many friends in this city will be glad to hear of.

Fred Gordor.

Received a car load of cultivators Saturday in addition to his already large stock. He will sell both here and at Weeping Water at a special discount for the next twenty days. Farmers can save money by seeing him.

A. R. Smith, Geo. McDermid and D. W. Foster, all representative business men of Union, drove up to this city to-day. They will make but few more overland trips, as we shall ere long have regular trains in operation over the M. P. from that city.

George Young, one of the most enterprising farmers of Cass county, residing near the beautiful little city of Nehawka, is in the county seat today. George knows a good market when he sees it, and is consequently delivering grain to our dealers here to-day.

Orla Armfield was for a long time the accommodating clerk for Will J. Warrack in this city. He resigned his position and began the study of law at his old home at Elwood, Ind. Speaking of him the "Elwood Leader" says: "Our young friend Orla A. Armfield, who has been reading law for the past year went to Anderson last week and passed a successful examination, and was admitted to practice at the bar. The Leader offers congratulations.

To Whom It May

CONCERN!

This is to notify you that S. & C. Mayer are the Leading Clothiers of Plattsmouth. They will give you $1.00 worth of Clothing for $1.00 worth of silver. Their goods are honest and reliable, and they will be pleased to show our through their new Spring Stock of Clothing and gents Furnishings.

S. & C. MAYER

THE KING OF CLOTHIERS.

A terrible hail storm in Texas Sunday is said to have damaged the crops to the amount of over $100,000.

Three car loads of pleasure boats passed through the city yesterday for Cushman Park. The little steamer "Hope" was a rare beauty as graceful as a swan.

Frank Davis is getting the shoe emporium fixed up in elegant style in the west half of Phil Young's Store. Call in and see him and buy one of those new cigars of Young.

Will A. Holmes and Jas S. Mathews and wife wish to thank the many kind friends for sympathy and assistance during the illness and interment of their darling Ollie.

A new time card went into effect on the B. & M. Sunday. The only change here in the time of arrival or departure of trains is on the K. C., which goes to Omaha now at 5:05, passing the flyer here, instead of 5:25 as formerly.

George Turner, who used to live in this city, and was employed by the B. & M. at the depot has patented a "storage receptacle" for cars which promises to bring him a fortune. He has already been offered $25,000 for his patent, but he is convinced that it is worth more money. We are glad to note his good fortune and will give a full account of his new appliance at an early day. He is at present living at South Omaha in the employ of the stock yards railway company.

The M. P. water tank is being erected at La Platte a few rods north of the B. & M. depot. They will use city water here, hence no tank or well will be necessary.

Wm. Kell residing north of Weeping Water brought in six wolf scalps today and Mr. Jamison living down towards Avoca brought in 23 he brought in 15 last year. At $3 apiece, raising wolves beats raising corn, as neither drouth, chintz bugs or hail affects them.

L. E. Kearns is a man of cultivated tastes and his particular weakness is violin music. Since he has been sleeping at the depot, the boys say he lays awake five or six hours every night reveling in the rich mellifluous notes that fall from a violin, in the hands of an artist, in the person of Mr. Ote Dovey who is a night man, and these quiet times, he absorbs the long evening hours and rests his tired mind with choice selections from Ole Bull and other greatmasters.

A Strike.

The dago surfacing gang on the M. P. is reported in town this afternoon, have struck because two or three of their men were discharged.

PRUNINE.

The greatest of all remedies for children. Cures indigestion constipation Feverishness and loss of sleep. Sold by Gering & Co.
