EICKHOFF ELIGIBLE.

The Question raised as to his Citizenship Awaits Nothing.

The Will of the Electors as Evidenced by the Result at the Polls Small Personal

There appears to be a question in the minds of some as to the eligibility of L. C. Eickhoff, treasurer-elect of Cass county, to occupy the office to which he has been chosen. The parties that are pressing the matter base their claims on the presumption that he is not a citizen. The records of our district court evidently fails to reveal that naturalization papers have ever been taken out in Cass county, either by L. C. Eickhoff or his father, but it is highly probable that Frederick Eickhoff, father of L. C. Eickhoff, properly attended to the matter in Wisconsin, where he resided for several years prior to his removal to Nebraska. We do not speak authoritatively as to this, however, and as to the facts in the case the record will settle all doubts.

But, granting that Mr. Eickhoff is not a citizen or even an elector, there is no law, either constitutional or statutory, by which he may be declared disqualified. The state constitution makes special reference to the requirements for eligibility to the office of governor, lieutenant-governor or judge of supreme court but there is no allusion whatever to county officials. We have consulted several of the leading attorneys of the city and the universal opinion is that inasmuch as the constitution is silent on the matter and since no statutory law has been passed rendering it necessary for county officers to be citizens, there is no method of legal reasoning that can declare Mr. Eickhoff ineligible. The opinions of the attorneys recently given by leading attorneys of Omaha touching the question raised as to the citizenship of sheriff elect Bennett, of Douglas county, is essentially the same as those given by our attorneys upon the matter in question.

While there may be a few who would delight to see Mr. Eickhoff declared unable to qualify, thus thwarting the will of a large majority of the voters of the county, there are by far a greater number that will rejoice to know that he is eligible and that the will of the people shall prevail.

Nebraska's Winter Corn Exhibit
The Nebraska State board of Agriculture will hold its annual winter corn exhibit in Grant Memorial hall, Lincoln commencing on the third Tuesday in January, 1892. It is the aim of the board to make this the grandest corn exhibit ever held in the United States, or anywhere else, for that matter. The year 1891 has been an exceptionally favored corn season. For this, if for no other reason the best specimens known ought and can be presented; but for a greater reason the board desires this exhibit to be collected and retained intact for the World's Columbian fair at Chicago. This announcement is issued early that ample time be given for careful and thorough selections of the very best.

Hick's predictions for November: From 1st to 15th first storm period. Northwesterly gales apprehended. Perishable products should be guarded against early freezing. Crisp, bright days will follow, until cloudiness and rains, with gales and snow to the north, appear about the 9th and 10th. About the 15th, 16th and 17th expect some hard autumnal storms and changes. The period runs from 14th to 17th, central on the 15th. Watch it. Cold following, will moderate for lighter disturbances on and near the 21st, after which there will be a prompt and sharp return to cold. Storms from 25th to 27th will bring a stiff blast of winter and send the days and nights freezing into December.

Married.
Mr. William F. Ackerman was married to Miss Adeline Steinker at 2 p. m. to-day at the residence of the bride's parents, in the presence of a large number of friends and relatives.

Henry Kauble, who a few days since fell from a porch and broke his arm, is rapidly improving.

PERSONAL

Mrs. A. Haden came in this morning from Omaha for a short visit.

Mrs. Wendall, who has been visiting in Chicago for ten weeks, returned home last evening.

John Quick and family departed on No. 5 for Alliance, where they will make their future home.

J. C. Jacquette departed this morning for Omaha. He will leave there this evening for a brief trip to points in Iowa.

Mrs. Sam Hendrich and family, who have been visiting at Percyville, Ia., for some time, returned last evening.

F. M. Kauble has changed his place of residence to 436 North Sixth street. Parties wishing baggage transferred to the station will leave orders at his home.

W. T. Howard, editor of the Schuyler Sun, was elected superintendent of schools in Colfax county. Doubtless the editor will fill the position with credit to himself and satisfaction to his constituency.

The M. P. Will Build a Bridge.

Messrs Clark and Holdrege representing respectively the M. P. and the B. & M. roads, held a consultation in Omaha Monday, relative to right of the M. P. to cross the B. & M. bridge over the Platte river at this place. The matter was laid over for a week, hence no definite conclusion was reached but Mr. Clark states that in his opinion the M. P. will build a bridge of its own. He also stated that if such a decision was reached work would be commenced at once and it would be rapidly pushed to completion. The B. & M. management takes the stand that the use of their bridge was guaranteed only upon the condition that the Union Pacific management would grant them the use of their road from Gilmore to South Omaha. The U. P. is not willing to concede this and in the event that the M. P. road cannot arrange for it a new bridge will probably be built.

Too Much Liquor.

Last evening about 6 p. m. quite a crowd was attracted near the corner of Main and Seventh streets, by the cries of a woman. Upon arriving at the scene it was ascertained that Mrs. Luce had imbibed too freely of liquor and instead of appealing for deliverance from danger, as her cries would seem to indicate, she was giving vent, in a very unmistakable manner, to the legitimate consequences of over indulgence in the vile drink. To say the least it is a very unfortunate affair and cannot but serve to again furnish evidence as to the legitimate results of indulgence in strong drink. We are informed that when not under the influence of liquor, Mrs. Luce makes a very lady like appearance and gives splendid satisfaction as an employee as a domestic.

She was fined $10.00 and costs this afternoon and in default of which she was sent to jail.

District Court.

In the case Gibson vs. Carter, suit on promissory note the jury render a verdict in favor of plaintiff for the full amount of the note $400.

In the case Samson vs. Slaughter, suit for $11,553.81 on promissory note judgement was rendered in favor of plaintiff for $727.15.

In the matter of McCord Brady & Co., of Omaha, vs. Philip Krause, case of attachment, the attachment was dissolved and the case dismissed.
