

WEDDING BELLS.

Pretty Wedding at the Home of Mrs. Peterson Last Evening.

From Thursday Daily. One of the prettiest weddings ever solemnized in Plattsmouth occurred last evening at the home of Mrs. Peterson on South Tenth street.

At 8 p. m. Waldemar Beck began to play the wedding march and in a few moments the bridal party appeared. The groom, attended by P. J. Carlson, and the bride by Mrs. Peterson, immediately took places prepared for them, and Rev. Falk, pastor of the Swedish church, performed the ceremony in a solemn, yet impressive and fitting manner.

After the ceremony had been performed the happy pair were the recipients of hearty congratulations and wishes for a long and prosperous life together, at the conclusion of which the company repaired to the dining room, where a delicious and sumptuous repast was served.

The following were among those present: Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Browne, Mrs. McBride, Nebawka; Andrew Wilson, Mr. and Mrs. Aug. Angard, Mr. and Mrs. Gust Amberg, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Bang, Mrs. A. Pearson, P. J. Carlson, Otto Oleson, C. H. Moonie, Chas. Holmstrom, Ernst Bang, Albert Pearson, Wm. Peterson, John Anderson, Waldemar Beck and the Misses Anderson.

Judge Archer's Court.

In the case of Wm. Wagner vs. Honcks, which has been under advisement for a few days, judgment was rendered in favor of defendant.

In the attachment case of Joe McVey vs. H. Cunningham a verdict was rendered in favor of plaintiff for $13. In this case McVey garnished the B. & M. R. with a view of obtaining payment from defendant for goods purchased of plaintiff.

Slept in Jail.

Wm. Longlake, a farmer residing in this vicinity, was found by Henry McGee upon the streets at 1 o'clock this morning in a beastly state of intoxication. He spent the remainder of the night in jail, and was this morning arraigned before Judge Archer, who administered the regular dose of $5 and costs. Through the influence of Geo. Weidman the $5 fine was remitted and the farmer permitted to go on his way rejoicing.

How to Prepare and Address Packages

Sent by Mail.

The season is approaching when the mails will be filled with holiday presents, and a great many are unnecessarily lost, delayed or damaged each year because of the indifferent manner in which they are prepared for mailing.

Newspaper or other thin paper should never be used for wrapping, and packages as ordinarily wrapped where purchased are not sufficiently secure for forwarding in the mails.

Use strong paper; make a solid package that will not crush easily; seal well with good twine; address legibly and correctly with ink on lower right-hand corner and very few packages will fail to reach destination in good condition.

It is always advisable to place the name and address of the sender on the upper left hand corner of all packages, etc., sent in the mails, so they may be returned in case the addressee cannot be found.

The postmaster would suggest that valuable package be registered then in case a package is lost or delayed it can be found more readily. Any lack of courtesy or attention on part of employees in the post-office, should be reported to the postmaster.

Henry Hemple, who has been sojourning in Texas, for several weeks has returned to Plattsmouth.

Burglary at Louisville

The cigar and confectionery store of Miles N. Drake, of Louisville, was burglarized at 1 o'clock this morning. Suspicion rested upon two tramps that had been seen in that section and accordingly Marshal Spencer placed them under arrest. A portion of the stolen property was found upon their persons, whereupon the younger of the bandits confessed their guilt. The amount stolen was estimated at $2645, most of which had been concealed near the M. P. railroad crossing at Louisville and was found by the authorities. The preliminary hearing of one of the younger of the parties was conducted at Louisville, resulting in binding him over to the district court. The older one waived examination. They have been committed to the county jail, awaiting the next session of the district court.

From Friday Daily.

Last Thursday there was a double accident at the quarries of Van, court & Lemist east of town. A Swede named J. Swanson was entrusted with the task of putting in and firing a blast. He accomplished both, but the wind did not blow through his whiskers when he got through. It happened about this way: After the blast was made ready and the powder carefully laid away (about two feet,) applied the match to the fuse and dropped it a moment later. The wind carried it into the powder can and away went his whiskers. One of his companions seeing the plight he was in, rushed to his aid, arriving just in time for the explosion from the blast to get in its work on him, fortunately no serious results followed, beyond the filling of his eyes with dust and small stone making some slight wounds on his face. Poor Swanson was badly burned, his face and hands and one leg being blackened and cooked. Dr. Hungate was sent for, who fixed him up as comfortable as possible, later in the day he was sent to the hospital in Omaha where he is at present. It is very evident that all the fools are not yet dead, or this accident would not have happened after the repeated warnings and accidents that the employee of these quarries have had. Those people who handle powder should certainly know that a lighted match and that substance cannot agree.—Eagle.

"Authors' Carnival."

The ladies of the Presbyterian church having in charge the "Authors' Carnival" entertainment at Rockwood hall last evening achieved a measure of success hardly anticipated by the most sanguine of its supporters.

The booths, representing respectively Lalla Rookh, Snow Cave, Hanging Garden, Dickens Party, Maud Muller and Old Curiosity Shop, were tastily and skillfully decorated, reflecting great credit upon those in charge. Care had been exercised to represent a variety of characters, and with the oddities for which Dickens' works are noted, ably represented by Prof. McClelland, as Mr. Cuttle, and Miss Myers, as Miss Peggotty, and the meekness and innocence of girlish life fully typified by Edith Gering, as Maud Muller, it was plainly evident that the two extremes were ably represented.

An excellent program, consisting of music—vocal and instrumental—tableaux, etc., was rendered, reflecting credit upon the participants. The tableaux representing Pygmalion's statue, Galatea, by Miss Bert Wise, and Jack Frost's Reception, by about a dozen young ladies, are deserving special mention. The cornet solo of Mr. Eigenbroadt was fully appreciated, as the spontaneous encore tendered him fully indicated.

After the rendition of the program, it was announced that refreshments would be served, to which a great many responded. The table decorations exhibited a taste and genius rarely excelled.

Everything passed off pleasantly, there being nothing to mar the proceedings in the least. The entertainment will be concluded this evening, when an entirely new program will be rendered.

To be Married.

We have received the intelligence that Alex Schlegel, of South Omaha, is to be married to Miss Mamie Bafford, of Ainsworth, Nebraska, the ceremony to be performed at the residence of the bride's parents at Ainsworth, Nebraska, Wednesday, December 16. Mr. Schlegel was formerly a compositor in THE HERALD office and during his residence here he acquired many friends each of whom will gladly join with THE HERALD in extending congratulations. He is now holding the responsible position of city editor of the South Omaha Daily Tribune. His parents still reside in this city.

Police Court.

Police Fry filed information against Herman Kleich, charging him with failure to close his place of business at 11 p. m., as required by the city ordinance. He pleaded guilty to the charge and deposited $5 and costs in the till.

John Patrick was fined $5 and cost on a charge of drunkenness in default of the payment of which he was committed to jail.

This young man came to Plattsmouth the fore part of this week from Germantown for the purpose of securing work in the shops. He had previously contracted the habit of over indulgence in distilled rye and having in his possession a few dollars, went on a protracted drunk from which he has just rallied.

A New Mail Car.

A new mail car finished in the latest style was sent upon the road for active service this morning. In the construction of these cars it is necessary to employ skilled mechanics, and if the B. & M. could be induced to still further equip the car manufacturing department thus bringing still a greater number of skilled and better paid mechanics into our midst the business interests and the general welfare of our city would be materially helped.

Delegates to Beet Sugar Convention.

The following delegates have been appointed by M. B. Murphy, president of the city council, to represent the city at the beet sugar convention to be held at Lincoln December 17. The list was handed in too late for publication in yesterday's issue: E. S. Gruesel, John Davies, Timothy Clark, Claus Brekenfeld, F. S. White and A. B. Knotts.

Will Enforce the Law.

Acting Chief of Police Fry, authorizes us to state that the city ordinance forbidding the running of saloons on Sunday shall be rigidly enforced hereafter. He has reasons to believe that men are admitted upon Sundays, in large numbers, and to the end that these violations may be detected he proposes to have the window blinds raised upon those days. The police spoke with an air of determination and judging from the manner in which he has performed his duty in the past there is no room to doubt that he speaks in earnest. He will receive the encouragement of all good citizens in his endeavors to enforce our laws.

Theatre-goers will have an opportunity Monday evening, December 14, of witnessing one of the neatest and best things in the way of legitimate spectacular drama that has as yet been presented in Plattsmouth. Mr. John Palmer's "Last Days of Pompeii" which will be presented at the Waterman opera house on above date, must not be confounded with Mr. Pain's spectacle of the same name, as they are entirely different. Mr. Palmer's play is a stage dramatization of Sir E. Bulwer Lytton's delightful romance, "Last Days of Pompeii", and is to be presented by a strong company of dramatic artists, with all the scenery, mechanical effects, stage effects, etc., that are needed to picture the stirring scenes of the famous story.

A Few Facts.

Read this and govern yourself accordingly: We have as pure a stock of drugs as any in Cass county. Our wall paper and paint stock is the largest in the city. We buy wall paper from the eastern factories in car load lots and feel safe in saying we sell more than any other firm in the county. You wonder why? We can answer that by saying that we buy in large quantities and sell for a very low price.

Call and see our line of drugs, paints, oils and wall paper.

Yours Respectfully, BROWN & BARRETT.

We learn from the Nebraska Press that Judge Chapman is clearing the docket at a rapid rate and indications are that he will spend Christmas at home. The taxpayers of the county doubtless are content with such information, as a prolonged term of court always entails a big expense.

Mrs. C. W. Belleville, of Knoxville, Ia., is the guest of the family of C. W. Sherman.

TIRED OF LIFE.

An Old Resident of Plattsmouth Meets a Tragic Death.

From Saturday's E. M.

Our usually quiet little city was startled this morning by the announcement that J. M. Schnellbacher had committed suicide. A HERALD reporter at once hastened to the scene, and the horrible spectacle that met our eyes proved the report only too true. The unfortunate man lay face downward in a pool of blood, all traces of life being extinct. A .38-calibre bull dog revolver, with but one empty chamber, was lying by his side. Investigation developed the fact that the ball entered immediately above the right eye and came out at the back of the head.

The tragic end which he has met is a surprise to everybody. The deceased was in Omaha yesterday and returned home on the flyer in company with H. C. McMaken and R. W. Hyers, and these gentlemen state that his actions would not indicate, in the least, that he anticipated such a rash act. He went to the house in the evening and retired as usual. It was observed by his wife that he did not appear to be resting well, and at 12 o'clock he arose and remarked that he could not sleep and must go out. She urged him to remain but it availed nothing. It is supposed that he immediately repaired to the shop and committed the deed.

There is little doubt that he was driven to the act because of financial troubles. His creditors were urging payment of longstanding debts. He was involved as follows: Cass County Bank, $700; Liederkrantz, $800; Phillip Horn, $1,000; John Coffenberg, $500; Fred Krug, $1,500; Geo. P. Horn, $400. It is also rumored that he is in debt to the I. O. O. F. lodge for the sum of $275. His liabilities will considerably more than exceed his assets. It was not thought generally that his property was encumbered, as he has apparently been doing a good business, having had in his employ in his blacksmithing and wagon making shops three men for several years. He has until recently carried insurance of several thousand dollars, but the policy expired a few months since and has not been renewed.

He was born in Hesse Darmstadt, Germany, in 1842, and emigrated to this country in 1866, arriving first at Illinois, where he resided three years. He came to Plattsmouth in 1869 and has resided here continuously since. He has been known by his neighbors as a quiet, inoffensive citizen. He was married to Amelia Lau in this city in 1882, who, with five children, the oldest of whom is eight years of age, is left to mourn his departure. This is a severe blow to his family, who have the sympathy of our citizens in the hour of their affliction.

The interment will take place Tuesday at 2 p. m. from the German Presbyterian church, Rev. Witte officiating.

The "Carnival" Closes.

The attendance at the "Author's Carnival" entertainment last evening was fully as large, and the interest manifested was equally as intense, as upon the previous evening. A new program was rendered, aside from a repitition, by request, of the tableaux "The Wise and Foolish Virgins" and "Jack Frost's Reception." By urgent request Miss May Skyles, representing the much abused "Topsy," mounted the platform and delighted the audience with a "skirt dance," and the spontaneous encore which followed was evidence that it was appreciated. After the rendition of the program, amusements were indulged in to a late hour.

The net proceeds will amount to $100, which will be judiciously expended for church purposes. The ladies having the matter in charge are to be congratulated upon the measure of success that has attended their efforts. In the event they desire to give a similar entertainment in the future, there is little doubt that they will be well patronized.

Sloan Escapes.

Arthur Sloan, who a few months since murdered the Baldwin family in Washington county broke jail at Blair at 6:20 last evening. He was accompanied and assisted by Frank Morrison an all around crook who was being held for burglary. They were discovered running toward the bluffs, south of the town by the court house janitor. The alarm was at once given and within thirty minutes scores of excited citizens had gathered at the jail and hundreds of mounted men were scouring the country. Sheriff Harriman at once offered $200 for the capture of Sloan, dead or alive and the search will be pushed vigorously. In the event he is captured there is little doubt that he will be lynched at once as the sentiment of the citizens is very bitter toward him.

Sad News.

A message was received by Mr. Pettee this morning announcing that Mr. John Murfin, whom many will remember as an old resident of this city, will be buried at Nehawka at 3 p. m. to-day. This will be sad news to his many friends in Cass county.

To Have a Public Installation.

The several orders of the A. O. U. W. composing the Trio lodge, No. 84; Germania No. 81; Platt lodge, No. 7; and Degree of Honor, are making extensive preparations for a public installation of officers and a grand social on the evening of Jan. 1st. A grand time may be expected by the members of the orders and friends.

Epworthians Meet.

The regular monthly meeting of the Epworth League was held last evening at the home of Miss Mary Davis. After the usual business had been transacted a literary program was given. A quartette composed of Robt. Brown, C. S. Polk, Mrs. Charley Johnson and Miss Blanch Kennedy rendered several songs with pleasing effect.

Morton's Resignation Accepted.

Governor Thayer accepted the resignation of J. Sterling Morton as a member of the Nebraska world's fair commission. He at once appointed Ex-mayor Sawyer of Lincoln, to fill the vacancy, and Hon. F. E. White, of this city as alternate. If Mr. Sawyer should find it impracticable to serve the duty will devolve upon Mr. White, in the event of which the matter will be attended to faithfully and well.

Elected Officers.

At a regular meeting of Trio Lodge No. 84, A. O. U. W., held in the I. O. O. F. hall last evening, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Master Workman, M. Vorndran; Foreman, Dick Hines; Overseer, A. F. Groom; Recorder, T. B. Brown; Financial, D. C. Morgan; Receiver, Geo. F. Houseworth; Guide, Wm. Jaquette; Inside Watch, Frank Jaquette; Outside Watch, C. Rydberg; Trustee, A. C. Murray.

"A Yard of Roses"

One of the popular paintings at the New York Academy of Design was a yard-long panel of Roses. A crowd was always before it. One critic exclaimed, "Such a bit of nature should belong to all the people, it is too beautiful for one man to hide away."

The Youth's Companion, of Boston, seized the idea, and spent twenty thousand dollars to reproduce the painting. The result has been a triumph of artistic delicacy and color.

The Companion makes an Autumn gift of this copy of the painting to all those who subscribe now for the first time, and request the "Yard of Roses."

Besides all new subscribers will receive The Companion free from the time the subscription is received till January First, including the Christmas and New Years Double Number, and for a year full from that date. The price of The Companion is $1.75 a year.

To Exhibit Aborigines.

Anthropologists all over the world are said to be agitated by the proposition of Professor Putnam, of Harvard, to gather at the World's fair in Chicago living representatives of every race of aborigines to be found on the American continent, in their own houses and costumes. Should the proposal be carried out, students of man from all over the world will flock to America for the occasion and seize eagerly this only opportunity ever offered. The cave dwellers, whose mode of life Walt McDougall treats with much historical correctness in fiction, will then be either demonstrated as actually existing or proved to have died out.—New York World.

In Jail for One Hour.

The shortest term of imprisonment ever given in Massachusetts was imposed on Lemuel E. Demelen a few days ago in the United States circuit court in Boston. The prisoner, charged with interfering with a United States officer in the discharge of his duty, was fined $100 and imprisoned for one hour in the county jail.—Exchange.

The yield of the orange crop in Florida this year was over 3,000,000 boxes, and an average box holds 150 oranges. About half of the crop will be sent by rail to the western states.

Fasting Fish.

It is said that a number of the larger fish never eat anything when traveling up rivers to deposit spawn, at least nothing is found in them when caught. As the period of the year is about the time of Lent, they probably have respect for the occasion.—Meehan's Monthly.

I have been a great sufferer from catarrh for over ten years; had it very bad, could hardly breathe. Some nights I could not sleep and had to walk the floor. I purchased Ely's Cream Balm and am using it freely, it is working a cure surely. I have advised several friends to use it, and with happy results in every case. It is the medicine above all other for catarrh, and it is worth its weight in gold. I thank God I have found a remedy I can use with safety and that does all that is claimed for it. It is curing my deafness.—B. W. Sperry, Hartford, Conn.
