

SCROFULOUS BABY

Our Family Physician Recommends Cuticura Remedies, and Says They Cured Our Child.

Father Went 25 Miles to Get Cuticura, and Feels Thankful and Wants Others to Do as He Did.

My child broke out with scrofula when two months old, and we tried everything that the doctor could do. It took out his hair and broke out on his limbs and nose. It was then CUTICURA REMEDIES were recommended by our doctor who attended him, and is now sitting here. The doctor said CUTICURA REMEDIES cured my child, and recommends them for all diseases of the skin and blood. It did not take but one set of CUTICURA REMEDIES, I went twenty-five miles to get them. My child is well and has a fine head of hair as can be seen, for which I feel thankful to you, for my wife is in bad health. I have recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES to others. Print this if you think it will cause any person to do as I did.

D. F. PENSON, Langley, Pike Co., Ark.

I am the doctor that recommended CUTICURA REMEDIES to D. F. Penson. I have known them to cure several bad cases of skin and blood disease, and I say they are good.

MISS MARY E. BROOKS, M. D.

HAS HE SKIPPED?

C. M. Wickersham has as yet failed to put in an appearance.

Three weeks ago today H. M. Gault took charge of the jewelry store run by C. M. Wickersham, in the name of his wife, S. L. Wickersham. Since then Mr. Wickersham has been going to settle up and remove the stock to Blair. He left his wife a week ago last Friday to come here and settle up the business, but he failed to put in appearance, however, until last Monday morning a week ago today—he arrived on the K. C., came up as far as Richey street and turned south going towards the shops. But nothing was seen of him during the day. That night he was seen going to his home, but since then he has failed to show up or even send a word to let his friends know his whereabouts. His wife telephoned from Blair last Tuesday but he could not be found. The door to his house was found open last Tuesday and the chief of police was notified and he went up to the house and found a basket of jewelry which he brought down town. While up there he found that two bedroom doors were locked and it was thought that he might be in one of the rooms. His brother-in-law, came down the next day and the doors were opened, but he was not found. At the request of his brother-in-law nothing was said in any of the city papers but THE HERALD has waited over a week for him to put in appearance and explain where he has been, as his wife does not know anything about where he is. THE HERALD like most of his friends believed last week that he would show up and make things all right, but we have now come to the conclusion that he has skipped. It is reported that he was keeping company with a young lady in Omaha. He drew the warrant from the county in pay for the court house clock and has failed as yet to pay for it.

Saturday there was a representative from an eastern jewelry firm here looking for him, claiming that they had let him have some jewelry as samples; that he had sold it and had failed to re-imburse the house.

A letter received yesterday from his father-in-law, says that he thinks he has committed suicide, but that is all both. Just imagine a man of C. M. Wickersham's disposition, with something over a $1,000 in his pocket, committing suicide.

THE HERALD has given Mr. Wickersham plenty of time to show up and make things right but does not think he has met with foul play. The only thing he has done is to skip the country, and he will not show up again very soon either.

Besides leaving several eastern firms "holding the sack," there are a number of merchants in Plattsmouth in the same fix. If Mr. Wickersham had come around last week THE HERALD would have had nothing to say, but as it is it is only a painful duty we have to perform.

Mr. Gault has informed Mr. Wickersham's father-in-law that it matters are not settled by Wednesday, he will foreclose the mortgage on the stock.

CASS COUNTY FAIR.

The Cass County Agricultural Society Meet and Adopt a Premium List.

The Cass County Agricultural Society met Saturday afternoon in the council chamber for the first time since the new officers were elected. President Windham called the meeting to order and Secretary Miller read the minutes of the last meeting which were approved.

The committee appointed to revise the premium list reported that their work had been completed and the list as revised was accepted.

The most noteworthy change was made in the classes relating to swine and the speed department. Instead of three lots the swine department now has four. All the different classes that have only been granted one premium will this year receive first and second premiums.

In the speed department which comes under the head of class 18, and which last year only included seven races, will this year include ten, with the purse in each race raised which will bring some very good horses here this year. Following is the speed program as adopted:

SECOND DAY.

Class 18—Lot 1; 2:55 trot, best three in five, purse $100; first premium, $50, second, $30; third, $20. Four to enter three to start. Mile heat.

Lot 2—Three minute race. Purse $50; first, $25; second, $15; third, $10. Cass county green rooster race, for horses that have never trotted outside of Cass county, and have never won first or second money in any race; horses to be owned six months in the county before the fair. Best three in five; four to enter three to start.

Lot 3—Bicycle race; purse $30; first $15; second, $10; third, $5. Best two in three; four to enter, and three to start.

THIRD DAY.

Lot 3—Purse $100; first, $50; second $30; third, $30. Pacing or trotting confined to horses in Cass county. Horses must be owned six months in the county, prior to the race. Four to enter and three to start. Best three in five; mile heat.

Lot 5—Purse $75; first, $35; second, $25; third, $15. One-half mile running race. Four to enter and three to start. Best two in three.

Lot 6—Purse $150; first $75; second $50; third, $25. Trotting race; mile heats. Best three in five; four to enter and three to start.

FOURTH DAY.

Lot 7—Purse $200; first $100; second, $60; third, $40. Free-for-all trot. Best three in five; four to enter and three to start.

Lot 8—Purse $100; first $50; second $30; third, $20. Free-for-all running race; mile heats. Best two in three; four to enter and three to start.

Lot 9—Purse $150; first, $75; second, $50; third, $25. Best three in five; four to enter and three to start. Mile heats.

Lot 10—Purse $40; first, $15; second $10; third, $6, fourth $6. Bicycle race; five to enter and four to start. One-half mile heats.

Farewell Party.

A farewell party was given Saturday evening at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Patterson in honor of Mr. A. V. Burke, who will leave Plattsmouth for Illinois. A number of friends were invited and a very pleasant time had. Refreshments were served and the party departed at a late hour for their respective homes. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Will Schmidtman, Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Barker, Maggie and George Oliver, Nettie Balance, Frankie Stiles, Nannie Moore, Mae Patterson, Mamie Stiles, Edith Patterson, Will Stadelmann, Ed. Schullhoff, Al Perrine, A. V. Burke, Chas. Sherman, Fred Overlander, and Print Latham.

Thursday occurred the arrest and preliminary trial of Peter Coon on the charge of permitting diseased hogs to run at large. Attorney Halderman appeared for the defendant and Woolley of Lincoln for A. E. Hess, the prosecuting witness. Evidence was produced that a number of Mr. Coon's swine had died and some were at large part of the time. The defense practically offered no rebuttal evidence, whereupon the justice placed Coon under bond to appear at the district court.—Eaglet.

Isreal Juvenile took out his first papers to-day.

PENILESS PIONEERS OF PLATTE.

Possess Thousands of Acres and Dollars To-day—Prospects of Tobacco Farming.

The following is clipped from the Omaha Bee dated at Columbus, Nebraska, and shows very plainly that the farmers out there are not all paupers, as the Independent agitators would have the people believe:

Your correspondent has made inquiries of a number of farmers in Platte county, and the results of the investigation proves that farming is a paying business in this portion of Nebraska, at least. There are very large numbers of tillers of the soil here who came years ago without property or money, their sole possessions consisting of helpless families and large appetites. Many of these men can now be pointed out who are worth over $100,000, and none can be found who has not succeeded gaining a competence; it would be strange were it otherwise when we consider the fact that during the past twenty-five years there has been but one partial failure of crops, caused by dry weather, and that was in 1890. It is true that small areas have occasionally suffered by hail storms, and during the early days the grasshopper visitations were sources of annoyance and loss; but the loss caused by the grasshopper has been greatly by the exaggerated, owing to the fact this locality was then mainly planted to wheat and oats and but little corn was raised. The grasshopper always came too late to seriously damage the wheat and oat crop, and had to be content with destroying the corn.

Patrick Murray came to Platte county 35 years ago with comparative nothing. Not having sufficient means to enable him to commence farming, he went to work for the government, putting up hay. While thus engaged his brother was killed by the Indians and his wife, who died recently, was severely hurt by an arrow. Mr. Murray now owns 3,000 acres of land, which cost him all the way from $150 to $50 an acre. He owns numerous business buildings and residences in Columbus and is now worth $100,000. He is about to retire from farming and intends to pass the balance of his days in comfort.

Mr. C. H. Sheldon is one of our foremost citizens and president of the commercial bank as well as an extensive farmer. He does not hesitate to say that farming pays in this locality. He came here the 1st of May 1883. He paid from $7.20 to $10 per acre for 1,400 acres of land which could now be sold for $30. He farms 980 acres of this, using the balance for pasture. Corn, wheat, oats and rye and tame grass are the crops he raises. Mr. Sheldon says that he owes his success in farming to raising grain and feeding it. From what inquiries he has made he is satisfied that tobacco growing can be made a decided success in this valley.

Coming to Nebraska,

It will be clearly seen by perusing the following article that Iowa is emigrating to Nebraska by train loads at a time. The following is from the Monitor, published at Manning Iowa: "Last Tuesday night two special trains started over the Northwestern—one from Gray and one from Manning—for Nebraska, loaded with the effects and belongings of a number of persons who will hereafter try and make a living in our sister state. Among those from Manning and vicinity we note the following, who are all among our friends: J. M. Nettleton shipped one car load; H. C. Hays, one car; U. Lenhart, one car; A. Lenhart, one J. A. Swearingen, one car; Carl and James Steffen, two cars; S. Grant, three cars; all going to Coleridge; E. W. Ferguson's one car, and I. O. Bingham one car to Hartington; Hago Grundmeier for Henry Rohr, one car to Bloomfield; C. O. Johnson one car to Wakefield. H. A. Emes also shipped the same day one car to Iantha, Mo. The Gray train consisted of nineteen cars. Each train carried a passenger coach for the accommodation of the emigrants. The Monitor hopes that all of these parties will abundantly prosper, but they may expect to do some pioneering on their new farms."

There are two things that have kept the employes and patrons of the B. & M. speculating for a number of years. One is as to when Frank Hall, the genial white elephant conductor on the flyer, is going to get married. There is a suspicion, several years old, still undeveloped, that there is a party in Hastings who knows something about it. The other source of speculation is as to when Tom Ryan the affable conductor on the Nebraska City run, will quit railroading. He is almost a charter member, having been with the B. & M. for 21 years—the oldest man on the line.—Lincoln Journal.

John Clarence of Union is in the city today.

County Judge Ramsey is confined to the house today on account of sickness.

Lawson Sheldon, one of Cass county's pioneers, was in the city over night.

L. J. Griffith of Nehawka, was in the city last night, returning home this morning.

C. W. Sherman, editor of the Journal, expects to start to night for a two weeks visit in the east.

C. C. Hadsell, formerly of the Weeping Water Eagle, is now connected with the News in the capacity of foreman.

Harry Wilcockson, brother-in-law of C. M. Wickerson, the ex-jeweler, is in the city today trying fix up Wickerson's business affairs.

Al Mathews was up before Judge Archer this morning charged with being drunk. The Judge fined him five dollars and costs.

Hon. J. W. Love, of Fremont formerly connected with the Plattsmouth schools, but now Consul General to San Salvador was in the city last night. Mrs. Love and children expect to leave in a short time for Europe they intend to be gone three or four years.
