

The end of woman's peculiar troubles and ailments comes with Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures them. For all the functional derangements, painful disorders, and chronic weaknesses that afflict womankind, it's a certain remedy. It's an invigorating, restorative tonic, soothing cordial and bracing nerve—purely vegetable, non-alcoholic, and perfectly harmless.

In the cure of periodical pains, prolapsus and other displacements, bearing-down sensations, and all "female complaints" and irregularities, "Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine that's guaranteed. If it doesn't give satisfaction in every case, you have your money back. You pay only for the good you get. Can you ask more?

The easiest way is the best. Regulate the liver, stomach, and bowels with Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They cleanse and renovate the system—thoroughly and naturally. Sick Headache, Constipation, Indigestion, and Bilious Attacks, are prevented, relieved, and cured.

We have not noticed so far a single first-class democratic statesman that has given a hearty indorsement to the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson.

The democrats are trying to dodge the tariff this year but as they do not control certain circumstances, they cannot help themselves, and so will be compelled to face it and be beaten by it.

ONE of the greatest mysteries to the editor of the Herald is how in the name of reason and good judgment a soldier who belonged to the northern army can support Mr. Cleveland. It seems to be wrong. The old soldiers are doing all they can to secure simple justice at the hands of the government they saved, and, strange to say, there are some soldiers who will vote to place their greatest enemy in a position where he can have almost absolute power to defeat every measure calculated to help the soldier class. We have in this city men who are drawing pensions under the provisions of a law that Mr. Cleveland vetoed. Boys, in the name of heaven, what do you mean? You are certainly not going to strike yourselves and your comrades in the face by voting for Mr. Cleveland? It must never be forgotten that he makes the defeat of their cause a specialty; therefore to defeat him should be the special duty of every soldier during the next five months. Stop and think before you make up your mind to support your bitterest enemy.—Indianola (Ia.) Herald.

REBEL BUTTONS STILL DEMOCRATIC.

The principal object of the democratic convention in the nomination of Cleveland and Stevenson seems to have been a desire to semi-legalize the wearing of the old Confederate states buttons again in the solid south. Cleveland was opposed to the war for the suppression of the rebellion and Stevenson was a howling copperhead of full Knight of the Golden Circle rank. They were both too cowardly to go into the rebel ranks, but they lurked in the rear of the Union armies and did everything within their power to aid the Confederate cause. This well known fact resulted in their nomination in such a manner as to represent the Confederate states by their initials—C. S.—which was the brand on every button, gun, and cartridge-box worn by rebel soldiers, and on every mule and all other property belonging to the Confederacy during the rebellion. Having succeeded in their scheme, the next step will be to make the old "C. S." button the democratic badge during this year's campaign. The democrats of the north will say that the "C. S." button, to be worn on the left lapel of their coats, means Cleveland and Stevenson, but the old rebels of the south will say that it stands for Confederate states and the return of the gray to all the decks of the government. It is apparently a trifling matter, but the "C. S." button will add greatly to the popularity of the democratic candidates in the solid south.—Iowa State Register.

THE LARGEST CONVENTION.

This has been a year of great political conventions, but there is to be a religious convention to assemble in New York next week which will eclipse all of them in numbers. The republican and democratic national conventions each had more than 900 delegates. The prohibition convention at Cincinnati had more than 1,100, and the people's at Omaha will have 1,700 delegates, but this New York convention is to have more than 20,000 delegates. This is a phenomenal convention and it may be said that the movement it represents is younger than the prohibition party and not much older than the people's party.

This great gathering will be the eleventh International Christian Endeavor convention, and it will be held in Madison Square Garden July 7, 8, 9 and 10. The Christian Endeavor Society is neither partisan nor sectarian. Its aim is good work, its creed is endeavor to do right, and its membership represents all churches. It was organized eleven years ago in Maine. It has spread through every state and territory, and into every part of the country where civilization has gone.

The convention is as liberal in its government as the society. There are no contests over election as delegates. All who want to go and can go are listed as delegates.

The membership of the convention is governed by the desire to attend and the capacity of the hall. In St. Louis two years ago there were 8,000 delegates. In Minneapolis last summer there were 12,000 delegates, and the committee in New York has received applications for accommodations for more than 20,000 delegates. It will be a great convention and as simple in its machinery as it is great in numbers. There will be no committee on credentials, no contest over platform, and no division about candidates. All those things are easily settled by the one declaration, endeavor to do good.—Inter Ocean.

County Convention of W. C. T. U.

The convention of this organization was held at Weeping Water June 28-29, in the M. E. church. It was well attended and a greater interest was shown than any time since the amendment campaign. There was considerable business transacted and officers elected for the ensuing year. There were W. C. T. U. women from Wabash, Eagle, Avoca, Plattsmouth and other places from out around the county. The officers elected were: County president, Miss Olive Gass of Plattsmouth; corresponding secretary, Mrs. Dean of Eagle; recording secretary, Mrs. Tefft of Avoca; county treasurer, Mrs. Royer of Elmwood; superintendent of county fairs, Mrs. Perry Walker of Plattsmouth; superintendent of jail and prison work, Mrs. Walter Holmes of Plattsmouth; superintendent of the department for the suppression of impure literature, Mrs. C. A. Kaufman of Avoca; county superintendent of loyal temperance legion of juvenile work, Miss Alice Wilson of Plattsmouth; superintendent of mother's meetings, Mrs. A. B. Churchill of Avoca. Miss Olive Gass was also elected superintendent of the Y. W. C. T. U. in Cass county.

There were present: District President Mrs. E. M. J. Cooley of Lincoln and Mrs. Isabella Spurlock of the Mothers' Jewels Home at York, with three of her little charges. One very interesting feature of the convention was the singing of the little ones. Little Freddie, aged about five years, is the special charge of the ladies of the M. E. church at Weeping Water, they have volunteered to clothe him. All seemed so pleased to see the little one they were laboring for. They were all very bright, interesting little fellows. The next county convention will be held at Eagle and the district convention at Plattsmouth some time in August or the first week in September. After singing one verse for closing of "God be With You Till We Meet Again," the convention of 1922 adjourned and was a thing of the past. Mrs. S. A. TRAVEL, Secretary pro tem.

Financially Embarrassed

A large manufacturer, whose affairs were very much embarrassed and who was very much overworked and broken down with nervous exhaustion, went to a celebrated specialist. He was told that the only thing needed was to be relieved of care and worry, and have change of thought. This doctor was more considerate of his patient health than of his financial circumstances. He ought to have advised him to use Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, the best remedy for nervous prostration, sleeplessness, dizziness, headache, ill effects of tobacco, coffee, opium, etc. Thousands testify to it.
