A. Salisbury, Dentist.

A big crowd and oceans of fun at Ford's skating rink last night.

The snow fall last night was 42 100 of an inch, or nearly half an inch.

The river is full of floating ice again today.

More of "the beautiful" last night, consequently more muddy mud today.

A prairie schooner headed for the west, was one of the few attractions on Main street today.

Callender's minstrel troupe passed through the city this morning. They have a coach of their own in which they travel.

The graduating exercises of the Omaha Medical College take place at Boyd's opera house next Wednesday. Plattsmouth has two candidates for diplomas, and they will do us proud.

We desire to call attention to the market reports published on the first page of the HERALD. They are received and corrected each day and are reliable.

P. E. Ruffner received a car load of Kelly bar wire the other day at Weeping Water, it was intended to have been shipped here, but through mistake went on; Ed will have it back here or another in its place in a few days.

The Journal office has a bouncer. We haven't examined yet to ascertain whether it is constructed on the principle of Puck's or not, but if it is, we've no business examining it.

Prof. Drummond will please accept thanks for the kind invitation given last night. Some day when the apparatus is to be wound up and touched off, we will take advantage of the opportunity to visit the best school in the state of Nebraska, and of which Plattsmouth is proud to boast.

Notice was today served on Ed Rosenbaum, and C. G. Herold and Jacob Valley Sr., his bondsmen, that Mrs. Pauline Dunstan had commenced proceedings against them for $500, damages she has sustained by reason of liquor sold to her husband William Dunstan. The 23 day of April is the time the music begins.

The members of the Ancient order of Hibernians of the city who participated in the celebration of St. Patrick's day at Plattsmouth returned home on Saturday evening, greatly pleased with the treatment they received from the brethren of the order in Omaha and Plattsmouth, particularly the latter, who spared no trouble or expense to make the occasion long to be remembered and for which they return their sincere thanks and hope an opportunity to return the compliment will soon occur.—C. B. Nonpareil.

Mr. James Pettie has gone to Weeping Water, where he will remain until after Friday, assisting in a musical convention that Prof. Potter, of Springfield, is conducting there this week.

P. H. Mahoney, an old time Plattsmouth boy, lately at Missouri Valley, and in future with the M. & M. at Denver, is in the city visiting old friends, and called on the HERALD.

Charlie Patterson, one of the B. & M.'s best engineers, who has been on the west end of the line for several months, is now pulling freight between this city and Lincoln, and has moved with his family here.

Capt. Marshall went to Omaha last night to listen to the lecture of Dr. Thomas. The Capt. says the lecture was a fine effort and contained some statements of stubborn facts. He was well pleased and glad he went.

CURTIS' CRIME.

His Alleged Theft of $100.

The community is startled today by the announcement that D. W. Curtis, who is well and favorably known to the people of Plattsmouth and Cass county, and who is one of the best and most popular school teachers in the county, is guilty of the theft of $100, from the trunk of Wm. Hull who lived at the same place as Curtis. Complaint was filed with the County Judge and Curtis was arrested this afternoon and as we go to press the matter is progressing in the county court. A good many stories are in circulation in the matter, and the facts in the case, remain to be yet brought out. Alex. McIntosh appears as counsel for the prosecution and Crites & Ramsey for the defense. We will not pass any hasty judgement upon the matter at this time but await further developments and give to our readers the facts as they exist, tomorrow.

Cedar Creek Letter.

CEAR CRK, March 20, 1883.
ED. HERALD:—Rev. Reed, of Falls City, but who once lived in Cass county, was in the village last week, en route to his father-in-law's, Mr. Cyrus Creamer, whom he will visit a few days.

J. G. Gore, of Iowa, has bought Chris Metzger's herd of cattle, and will ship them to Chicago next Saturday.

Jake Berge was in Cedar Creek Saturday.

W. H. B. Stout's quarries are again in operation, and four or five car-loads of stone leave this station daily.

Some one reports that about 7 acres of Wm. Guthmann's timber land has been washed away by the Platte river, and the bed of the entire river has been changed.

F. P. Traster, our retired merchant, will start for the west in a few weeks to get rich.

School closes this week with an attendance of 20 scholars.

Owing to an illness, we will bid you adieu and say, no more ANON.

G. A. R.

The attention of ex-soldiers is called to the fact that not one in ten of them who reside in the state of Nebraska, are members of the Grand Army of the Republic.

This is not as it should be, for as soon as the aims and objects of our order are known, old soldiers having honorable discharges, seek to join with us. Instances occur often where members of the same regiment meet and know each other within the post and at our camp fires, who would never have such privileges granted them had our order not existed.

I would therefore call on all in our State who are eligible for membership to at once join themselves to a post of possible. If there is no post located near you, and there are 20 ex-soldiers desiring to organize a new one, send at once the names to either E. B. Taylor, Chief Mustering officer, David City, Neb., or to F. E. Rexford, of Weeping Water, Neb., who is Mustering officer of the district you reside in, and proper papers will be forwarded at once. Let there be a hearty response to this notice all over our State. Very Respectfully,
JNO. C. BONNELL,
Dept. Commander, Dept. of Neb., G. A. R.

River Report.

As furnished officially to the War Department.
The river at noon today, stood 5 ft 5 in. above low water mark, a fall of 4 in. since noon yesterday.

A Terrible Accident.

One year ago, the Press was called upon to chronicle the death by fire of a lady living opposite Nebraska City, in Fremont county, Iowa. This morning it is our sad duty to give the horrible particulars of a second death from the same cause. Last Saturday a young son of Mr. Murray, aged twelve years, was engaged in burning corn stalks in his father's field, which is located about two miles from Percival, Iowa, and by accident his clothing caught fire. His father was about a quarter of a mile away from him, but instead of rolling on the ground, or even going toward his parent, the frightened boy ran the other way at a terrible speed, the flames gathering strength as he ran. He kept running until he dropped down—literally burned alive. He was taken home and died in a couple of hours, having suffered a thousand deaths.

The unfortunate young boy was a nephew of Mrs. Murray, Joe O'Pelt's mother-in-law. The funeral took place Monday, and was largely attended.—Neb. City Press.
