CHICAGO, March 27.-Sexton and Morris were the contestants in the secon I game of the Balk line tournament this afternoon. The attendance was light and the game thought to be one sided. Sexton was the favorite. Betting was 250 to 150, but it was close at times, and anybody's game till ended. Sexton in the seventh inning took a strong lead, with a run of 111 He remained in front throughout though at one time Morris came to four points from him. Morris run 89 in the twentieth inning, mainly the result of his skillful use of the cushion routes from Seccorro to Silver City. New and kiss combination. The score stood: Morris, 532, highest run, 89, average Against Wm. Pitt Kellogg and Thom- 9 28 66. Sexton 600, highest run 111,

THE CREEK WAR.

ST. Louis, March 27.-A Muskoges, I. T., special says: Gen. Porter has disbanded his forces. They have gone home with the exception of five scouts, learning that United States troops were coming to capture Spirachee and his men. At last accounts they had not yet reached his camp, fifteen miles west of the Sac and Fox agency There is no doubt that he will surren der to them without resistance, as he would have done to the Creeks had no not been afraid he would have gone Brady, second assistant postmaster gen- the way of Sleeping Rabbitt, who was killed while trying to escape. Last Wednesday a detachment of troops of the army discovered Spirachee's scouts fluencing the action of said Brady there- and gave chase, capturing one. They questioned him as to Spirachee's Another presentment against Brady whereabouts and forces, but as he and shot him dead. There are rumors of more killing on the same plan.
