The new uniforms for the police are expected tomorrow.

The base ball meeting announced for last evening didn't meet, or if they did, didn't do anything.

As a propounder of conundrums, Andy McLaughlin takes the cake—frosting and all.

There will be a G. A. R. meeting at the Court House tonight. A full attendance desired.

Another cow bell was captured today.
These cow bells will be attended to by the police just as long as they continue to be nuisances.

The match game of base ball between the Omaha "fellahs" and the Plattsmouth nine occurs at the Fair Grounds tomorrow afternoon.

The State Journal says that Hon. T.
M. Marquette leaves today for Denver to attend to a law suit for John Fitzgerald, involving something like $100,000.

Jacob R. Vallery comes in this morning and reports his son planted in April, has all come up and is growing as well as could be expected. He says it is true the corn looks a little yellow, but then he planted the yellow kind.

The case of Mrs. Dunstan vs. E. Rosenbaum for damages for selling Dunstan liquor, is being tried in the county court this afternoon. Sullivan & Wooley, attorneys for plaintiff, and Smith & Beeson and W. S. Wise attorneys for defendant.

From a private letter received from Burlington today, we learn that there is talk of a postponement of the Iowa semi-centennial celebration to be held at Burlington, beginning June 1st, on account of the sudden appearance there of small pox.

The HERALD invites attention to its system of special advertising which is already attracting much attention and gives all opportunity to advertise their "wants," "series" and "For Rent" at a figure so low that any and all can afford to place them before the public.

A hunting party were out on the Platte bottoms yesterday afternoon, and report good shooting, but only brought one little duck home, that one was probably scared to death. They shot more but couldn't find them.

There will be a special meeting of the city council tonight. The principal object of the meeting is to take action on the report of the committee on streets, alleys and bridges, in regard to improvements to be made on Fifth street, at the corner of Main.

Headings gets the editorial excursion on Friday afternoon for two hours.
Nebraska City would like to have it come down there, but as they don't stop at flag stations, the Nebraska City folks will have to be content with smelling their breath as it is wafted down the Missouri. We drink, and you smell.

Charley Black drew the attention of the passers by last evening in his efforts to fit an iron cap into the sidewalk. It wasn't the iron cap that attracted the attention, but it was to see Charley down on his knees trying to saw a hole in the sidewalk, as they don't use that kind of work, and the attitude was a strange one for him, so it was quite a curiosity after all.

John D. Simpson received a letter yesterday from friends at Red Oak, giving an account of the work of a mad dog. Seven men were bitten last Saturday by one dog. Great excitement prevails, and the mayor of Shenandoah, a city southwest of Red Oak, a few miles, has ordered all the dogs in that town chained up or shut up.
This is a dog-goned hard story, but is a fact nevertheless.

Ed Baum, of the First National bank came in from Lincoln this morning. At first he went up Saturday evening and came back Sunday evening, then he lengthened out his stay until Monday morning, a little later he pronounced it until Monday evening, but now it takes until Tuesday morning to get back. The next thing we know he'll forget to come back at all. Just what the attraction is remains a mystery to his so-llicitous friends here. He says his nose is better and he (k) n (w) s (e).

Work is progressing rapidly on the Sherwood building, which when completed will be one of the finest on Main street. The room fronting on Main street will be occupied by Mr.
Sherwood with his stock of boots and shoes. The first room fronting on Fifth street will be occupied by J. D. Simpson, with his express and insurance business; the second one by John Boone as a tinsmith and boiler, and the third by Ragsorshok Bros., with their merchant tailoring establishment. This will give Fifth street quite a boom.

"Polk" of this office has been "bail"- ing this week. To see him walking along the street, and not know what he was, you might think he was practicing for a dude, but he wasn't.
To see him sit down, the first impression would be that he had a bumble bee in his hip pocket that was getting mad, but such was not the case. To note his countenance would cause you to imagine that he had lost every friend he ever had on earth (or any place else) but he hasn't. He is afflicted. He can't sit down, he can't stand up, he can't walk, he can't keep still, he can't move around, and about the only thing he can do, under the present circumstances is to swear. If Bob Ingersoll had a boil like Polk, he'd think there was such a thing as hell, and that the boil was a little of it.

PERSONALS.

Captain Bennett went to Ashland last night to attend to a real estate business.

John W. Barnes takes a tour over the B. & M. through the southwest to be gone some weeks.

J. E. Morrison Esq. goes to La Platte today to attend legal business in that city with the euphonious name.

Dr. Thomas and wife of Weeping Water, came in this morning to pay a visit to their relatives in this city.

S. J. Byers, chief of police of Lincoln, passed through the city this morning on his way home from a visit in Indiana.

Harve Carper, of Weeping Water, the venerable hog drover of that village, went to Chicago this morning with six car loads of 1400 lb. bullocks.

A. B. Smith and Lefe Gilmore, the champion town markers of Nebraska, go to York today to make a little New York in the suburbs of that thriving city.

Mrs. Hutchinson of Ashland, sister of C. H. Parme, returned to her home this morning. Mrs. H. is in ill health and is under treatment with Dr. Livingston.

Miss Gussie Minor, sister of "Jack" came down with him from Omaha this morning, making her first visit to Plattsmouth, and will return this evening.

Joe Ford with his company of roof artists got to Glenwood this morning to counteract the influence of the elements on the roofs of that antiquated village. Give the people a coat as well Joe.

Hon. John C. Watson, of Nebraska City, passed through the city last night on his way to Omaha to attend United States court. John looks well and feels happy although he still holds the fort of bachelorhood.

Jimmy Donnelly came from Cromwell last night, where the Cromwellites prorogued his session of parliament feeling he would appoint himself dictator for life over the goods and fortunes of one of their fair daughters.

Miss Clacinda Thompson, who has been visiting friends and relatives in the city, for the past two or three weeks, returned to her home in Malvern, Ia., this morning.

Loran Davis takes the advice of the "late lamented" and goes west to the Republican Valley to grow up with the buffalo grass of Furnas county.

James Pettee, the music dispenser of Plattsmouth, shouldered his harp of Zion and will hang it on the willow trees of Burlington, until his spoilings will call for mirth when he will make them happy by disposing of several Mason & Hamlin organs.

Mrs. John Tewksberry, of Weeping Water, formerly of Plattsmouth, is in the city visiting old time friends and acquaintances. She says she has a warm place in her heart for Plattsmouth, and that twelve months shall not pass without a visit from her.

The delegation to Omaha this morning was composed of Miss Lizzie Schidknecht, Miss Brantner, Miss Henrahan, Mrs. Dr. Livingston, Mrs. Fred Latham, Mrs. Morgan Waybright and Mrs. Moscoe. They will make a raid on the spring Lon-net factory and other mantan makers establishments to the great satisfaction of their Hubbys and Papis.

SOUTH BEND LETTER.

SOUTH BEND, NEB., May 21, 1883

Our Justice's court kept busy these days; three suits on the 15th, and one on the 16th on which a change of venue had been taken from Louisville. H. W. Zink, the new fledged lawyer of Louisville, appeared for the plaintiff.

Lewis Calkins, was visiting friends and relatives in the Bend Saturday and Sunday.

T. P. McCartney has returned from his land exploring trip. We are sorry to learn that he will leave us for Antelope county, where he has taken a timber claim.

The grain merchants are doing a lively business at present.

The G. A. R. were out on the streets Friday night with rifle and drum. It sounded like old war times. The boys have caught the spirit of patriotism and organized a juvenile militia company. Lewis Sawyer, their captain, commands like an old veteran.

Maggie Streight and Laura McFarland visited Plattsmouth Saturday.

We are sorry to learn that Mr.
Brownell, the new superintendent of the state factory, is sick.

Mr. Lazebny is busily engaged in roof painting.

Streight has put a set of French burs in his elevator to grind feed.

The average daily attendance at school for last month was 45.

We now have preaching every Sabbath. Elder Root preached yesterday at 11 a. m. and Robinson in the evening. Platt, of Lincoln, preaches next Sunday evening.

License Notice.

Notice is hereby given that I have filed my application with the city clerk for a permit to sell spirituous and vinous liquors for medicinal purposes as required by law, and that the same is under application for a druggist's permit from May 1st 1883.

WILL J. WARRICK.

The Excursionists.

About forty of the business men and citizens of Plattsmouth left for the editorial excursion which arrives in Plattsmouth Thursday morning. Mr.
Caruth, president of the board of trade was elected chairman and Mayor Smith secretary. Mayor Smith stated the object of the excursion, after which an executive committee was chosen consisting of Geo S Smith, S M Chapman, C W Sherman, D H Wheeler, F E White, F Caruth, J A Connor, S P Vanatta, J V Weckbach to prepare a programme.
The committee held a constitution and reported the following committees:

A committee consisting of Dr. Livingston, A W McLaughlin, S M Chapman, D H Wheeler, F E White, J C Morrison, J A Connor J E Morrison, C W Sherman, F Caruth and J A MacMur-phy, to go over to Pacific Junction, meet the committee held a constitution and
reported the following committees:

A reception committee was chosen consisting of Mayor Smith, A N Sullivan, Prof Drummond, U V Mathews, S P Vanatta, H M Bushnell, R B Windham, Jos. Newell, J W Jennings, J M Patterson, J W Johnson, C H Parmer, M B Murphy, J W Marshall, J M Waterman, M A Hartigan, J B Strode, E H Woolley, B Elson, S D Mayer, G Dovey, Wm Herold, W H Baker, John R Cox, F Hermann, W H Cushing, A W McLaughlin, A W White, John Black, F S White, M Schnellbacher, G W Clutter, A W Crites, D A Campbell, Allen Beeson, Alex McIntosh, J D Simpson, L D Bennett, J H Fairfield, Henry M Bone and John Wayman.

A committee on carriages and conveyances consisting of W D Jones, C M Holmes, Ambrose Patterson, J W Shannon and J A MacMurphy.

Committee on music—F Gorder, P B Murphy, D E Smith, M O'Connor and J F Johnson.

Committee on decoration—P B Murphy, G Ballard and J Lohme. On Monday the decoration was also constituted a finance committee.

The programme is to have the band in uniform at the depot on the arrival of the train to furnish some of their excellent music. The mayor will make an address welcoming the visitors to our city and tendering them the freedom of the same. After which the visitors will be shown the principal points of interest in and around the town. This mayor will confer with the superintendent of the B. & M. regarding the backing of the train down to the shops instead of trying to get there with carriages. The meeting adjourned until Wednesday evening at 7:30 to report progress.

Through Cars to San Francisco.

The Pullman party, including George M Pullman, whose arrival on Sunday was noted yesterday, left on the Denver train last night, it being held for over an hour to allow the business on hand to be completed. They go from here to Denver, and thence to San Francisco, from where they expect to return in about two weeks.

As intimated in the Bee, the visit west concerns some very important business, including contracts about to be concluded with the Union, Central and Southern Pacific roads.

Being questioned as to the result of his visit here and conference with President Dillon and other U. P. officials, Mr. Pullman said to a Bee reporter that at this stage of the negotiations he could not make public what he had said, but would probably be able to do so on his return.

It is thought, however, that among the objects sought to be accomplished is the running of the Pullman sleepers through from Omaha to San Francisco without change. Heretofore the Central Pacific has run its own sleepers, but if they conclude a contract with the Pullman company, the transfer at Ogden will be done away with and the cars leaving this point will make the long run of over 2,000 miles from Ogden City to San Francisco without the passengers having to bother with a transfer half way out—Omaha Bee.
