THE CYCLONE.

The Almost Complete Destruction of Rochester Minnesota.

The Southern Scourge.

Miscellaneous News.

"Rochester, Minn., August 22.—To Governor Hubbard, St. Paul: Rochester is in ruins. Twenty-four persons are killed and over forty seriously injured. One-third of the city is laid waste. We need immediate help. (Signed) S. WHITTEN, Mayor.

In less than three minutes $5,000 were raised and sent to the sufferers. Telegrams were sent to all the cities in the states, calling on them for aid; details to follow.

Minneapolis, Minn., August 22.—Tuesday evening at 11 o'clock Rochester was one of the most beautiful cities in the west. Ten minutes later its beauty had disappeared, and in parts of the city ruin and desolation reigned. A terrible cyclone had visited the city leaving destruction and death in its track. Just one month ago a fearful cyclone passed six miles north. Now it passed through. The day had been beautiful and warm until evening, when clouds began to gather and the atmosphere was oppressive heavy and hot. About four o'clock it seemed as though it had begun to clear up, but soon a heavy black cloud came from the northwest and rain fell heavily. Directly after six immediately the clouds assumed a greenish appearance that is forerunner of this terrible visitant, accompanied by a rumbling noise. In a short time the wind rose, increasing in velocity until the full force of the cyclone was upon us. What was once a well populated portion of the city was a scene of ruin, to describe which is impossible. It must be seen for a mind to grasp the terrible destruction. The cyclone possessed the same peculiarities which marked the one on July 21. The main course through the lower part of the town, but its force was felt in all parts of the city. Its freaks were simply wonderful. It demolished well built structures on Broadway, doing no harm to adjacent buildings beyond overturning of chimneys and stripping coverings from roofs. One great beauty of the city was its many trees that lined its streets. Of these hundreds were either torn down or broken off, and many streets were rendered impassable by their being filled with trunks or limbs. Some were stripped bare, even the bark being stripped off, and it will be years before Rochester can recover its loss. That portion of the city north of the railroad, called lower town, received the most damage. There is not a house uninjured and not to exceed twenty are left standing. In some parts it looks as if a distance as though there never had been a building in that portion of the city, while in other sections are remains of houses to show the terrible destructive force of the wind. As soon as the cyclone had passed and people in more favored portions of city began to learn of the damage, they went at once to the lower town to render what assistance they could, many working all night digging the dead from the debris. The wounded were conveyed to Back's hotel and the Winous house, Dr. Sawyer's office and private residences. While a knowledge of the destruction had been feared, no idea of it could be obtained until next morning, when its horrors were appearing to behold. Commencing at the J. E. Cook house, on the St. Paul road, which was entirely demolished, the cyclone next took Leander's residence, barn and outbuildings, leaving a large stone flag, in a swept through the lower town. From the appearance of the ground it seems as though a terrific flood had swept over this section. In many places where there had been a residence, scarcely a board was left on the premises. The grass is filled with dirt and as if a muddy stream had been poured over it. Early Wednesday morning an organized movement was made to care for the wounded. A committee was appointed and an appeal issued to larger cities for aid. The total losses foot up about $400,000; ten business blocks were unroofed, 251 houses with contents were demolished, 200 houses damaged, and the court house and round house unroofed. J. M. Cole, a prominent business man owning four mills, was picked up and hurried to the ground barking every bone. Mr. McQuittan, Mrs. Steele, Mrs. Zurruth and August Zo rath, Mrs. Osborn, and aunt, Mrs. Fred Clough, Mrs. Wetherbee, Mr. Helzell, William Higgins, Mrs. Quick and child and Miss McCormick were all killed. Eight bodies were taken into the country by friends before their names were known, and four others are still unclaimed, making in all twenty-six killed and fifty-one are wounded sufficient to be under the physician's care. Many of the wounded are children, who are severely bruised and otherwise injured.

PAPER MILL DESTROYED.
Chester, Pa., August 22.—The large paper mill of J. Howard Lewis, in Springfield township, was burned this morning. While burning, the boiler in the mill exploded, killing one man, John Morrissey, and seriously injuring two or three others, including Lewis, the proprietor. Loss about $80,000, which is nearly covered by insurance.

OIL WORKS BURNED.
New York, August 22.—A fire broke out shortly after 11 this morning in the Empire oil works, Long Island City, where over 1,000 men and boys are employed, and the wildest excitement prevailed among them. The flames spread rapidly and the shop was soon a seething mass of flames. The local fire department was unable to cope with fire, and engines from Brooklyn were sent to their relief. Despite their joint efforts the fire communicated to one of the largest agitators in the yard, containing 50,000 barrels of oil, and the extensive hard oil works adjoining are now threatened. The damage already done is estimated at 500,000. Four workmen were seriously injured.

YELLOW JACK.
Pensacola, August 22.—The board of health announces that two new cases of yellow fever were discovered today in a house on Halifax wharf. An order from Surgeon General Hamilton to search all houses in the city revealed these two cases hidden. A guard has been placed around the building, which will be burned as soon as the sick men are removed to quarantine. The men are sailors who had stolen from their ship and hidden in the house until the ship had left. Dr. Owens is reported as taken with the black vomiting. One new case at the navy yard today.

FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE.

Persecuting the Jews.

The European Outlook, Etc.

AMERICAN JEWS.

The Times' correspondent at St. Petersburg, in a dispatch referring to the expulsion from St. Petersburg of American Jews, in accordance with the law forbidding Jews, to live in that city, says, "It is not likely that Russian officials have been over strict in such cases, in view of the repeated protests by the British and American governments, in regard to the treatment of the Jews. A Jew who was expelled declined to ask the perfect, as a favor, to allow him to remain until he had transacted his business, as he could not demand such treatment as a right."

The correspondent adds that as the Jewish difficulty is more an economical than a religious one, there is little prospect of the removal of the prohibition against Jews living in St. Petersburg and Moscow. The thousands who live in both places either belong to the privileged classes, or skillfully evade compliance with the law.

A correspondent of the Times at Barcelona, says that after a careful inquiry, it has been found that the people of Barcelona had no sympathy with the recent rising.

A FRENCH CAPTURE.

London, August 22.—A dispatch to the Times from Hong Kong today, says that Hsifong, Tongkin, has been taken by the French. They also captured 150 cannon and 50,000 Anamite cash. The Anamites fled into the interior.

LET "EM" BURN.

Berlin, August 22.—The North German Gazette, Bismarck's organ, replying to the attacks of the French journals on Germany, and their cry for revenge, declares that France alone threatens the peace of Europe. He says that such a state of affairs cannot continue without serious danger, and that the passions fomented by agitation may burst the bonds of peace.

CHOLERA.

Alexandria, August 22.—Thirty-seven deaths from cholera occurred here yesterday. One of the victims was a British soldier.

CONSPIRATORS ARRESTED.

Dublin, August 22.—Dr. Connelly and Patrick Connelly have been arrested at Bruff, county Limerick, on the evidence of an informer, charged with being connected with a murder conspiracy. Documents were found on the prisoners showing the conspiracy in which they were engaged, was aimed at the lives of Clifford Lloyd and others.

RATHER SHAKY.

Naples, August 22.—Mount Vesuvius is in a state of remarkable activity. The continuous trembling of the soil has resulted in considerable injury to the building and to the railway running up the mountain.
