Frank James' Trial in Gallatin, Mo.
Miscellaneous Notes.

St. Louis, August 24.—A Post Dispatch from Gallatin, Missouri, says the jury that is trying the case of the State vs. Frank James spent last night in charge of the sheriff. It was much discussed at the hotels and the opinion is generally expressed that a verdict of guilty is out of the question. A hang jury is probable and an acquittal possible. The solid democracy of the jury, and the youth and association of four of the number, and an ex-confederate record of six, give rise to this belief. Last night Dick Liddell and Mrs. Lide arrived. Liddell this morning showed up on the street with two navy revolvers strapped to his waist. Promptly at eight o'clock this morning the court convened, witnesses being excluded from the court room. The attendance was not as large as yesterday. A number of ladies occupied seats on the stage. Judge Goodman announced that the counsel would be allowed an hour in which to present the case to the jury. Mr. Wallace, for the state, read the indictment and then told the story of the Winston robbery and the manner of the death of MacMillan, who was shot through the head, as he looked into the door of the smoking car. The three men in the smoking car, he said, were Frank and Jesse James and Wood Hite. The two men who took possession of the engine were Dick Liddell and Clarence Hite. Mr. Wallace then went into the history of the conspiracy to rob the train at Winston, and the life of the James boys in Tennessee, the organization of the band, etc. Testimony will be introduced to show that the gang before leaving Kentucky shipped some implements of the robbery to John Ford, brother of Bob Ford. Wallace then shadowed the testimony of the state, locating the gang in Clay and Ray counties, and establishing their presence in the vicinity of Winston on the day of the robbery. The defense waived its right to the presentation of the case, and the taking of testimony commenced. The first witness was John L. Penn, of Colfax Iowa, who was in the company of McMillan at the time of his death. He related how he and other witnesses including McMillan, boarded the car at Winston, how three men came into the car with revolvers in each hand; how McMillan was killed as he passed through the window and all the circumstances of the robbery. On cross-examination he admitted that he could not identify any of these men, as they were masked.

Addis Wolcott, engineer of the train, was the second witness, and related how a couple of masked robbers jumped on the train and forced him to obey their orders at the muzzle of the revolver. Charles Murray, United States express agent on the train, related how he was forced to open the safe by two men in masks with revolvers. Two physicians then testified as to the nature of the wounds causing McMillan's death. This concluding the testimony for the State, in so far as the killing is concerned, and the court then adjourned until 1:30 p.m., when evidence will be adduced tending to connect Frank James with the killing. Governor Crittenden arrived this morning, and is an attentive auditor in court.

Kansas City, August 24.—Governor Crittenden arrived last night from Jefferson City, and left this morning for Gallatin, where he has been subpoenaed by the defense to testify at James' trial. The Governor says he cannot imagine what they expect to prove by him, except the mere fact of Frank's surrender.

The most intense excitement was caused about noon, when Judge C. Irving and an Hon. D. Davis, two gentlemen who were warned a day or two ago to be careful about giving testimony against Frank James, each received the following letter:

"St. Louis, August 23.—Hartfield Davis and Alexander Irving, Gallatin—Gents:—Your evidence against Frank James will be watched by tried and true friends of the hero. No one but the writer and one other know how near Gov. Crittenden came to biting the dust in April, 1859, on Sunday afternoon while he rode in the chair car from Jefferson City to St. Louis. The pistol was cocked twice and only policy prevented its use. Frank James has hundreds of friends that will come to his aid at the proper time. If you are wise, you will be careful.
A. H. E."

DISTINGUISHED ARRIVALS.
New York, August 24.—Lord Chief Justice Coleridge, Gilbert Coleridge, his son, Sir James Hannan, M. P., and Hon. Charles Russell, M. P., were met in the bay on the arrival of the Celesio this morning by members of the bar association, and transferred to a yacht where breakfast awaited them. After sailing up East and North rivers the party landed and were driven to the residence of Elliott J. Sheperd, where Lord Coleridge and his friends will be guests during their stay in this city. This evening a dinner will be given at Sheperd's, at which place General Hancock will be present.

THE BLUE AND THE GRAY.
Chautauqua, August 24.—Seven thousand persons assembled in the amphitheater this afternoon, to hear the singing of federal and confederate war songs and addresses by Judge Albion W. Tourgee, of New York, and Rev. Dr. Atticus P. Haggard of Georgia. Dr. Vincent asked all soldiers of either army present to gather in the rear of the platform and two hundred responded. A letter was read from Senator Colquitt, of Georgia. An original song, "Our Nation Forever," composed at the suggestion of President Lewis Miller, by Wall. ce Bruce of Poughkeepsie, was sung by the choir and congregation with fine effect. The services were the most impressive ever held at Chautauqua, and several old confederates participated. Ex-Governor Pierrepont, of West Virginia, was on the platform. Dr. Vincent reported that there were 212 students in the Chautauqua school of languages for 1888. The exercises of the day closed with a display of fireworks.

PUGILISTIC.
Atchison, Kas., August 24.—Slade, the pugilist, who arrived here yesterday with his trainer, Dick Brighton, and his manager, Price, has taken quarters at the exhibition grounds and gone into active training. It is said that Jim Mace will be here in a few days. Many rumors are current as to the place where the fight is to take place. Slade is in excellent condition. It is reported that John L. Sullivan will also arrive here in a few days, and that he intends to back Slade against Mitchell.
