Farmers should be especially careful as to whom they hire to assist in farm work. A few months ago, a stranger came along and hired to a Mr. Spearman, of Springfield, Sarpy county, he carried himself well and was soon respected and trusted by Mr. S., as well as his neighbors.

Last week Mr. Spearman missed his best team, the whole county took after the thief, the right trail was struck, and the "horse faucier" overhauled near Blair. He turned out to be none other than the hired man that Mr. Spearman supposed had left the county. He now lies in the Omaha jail awaiting the action of the Grand Jury. Mr. Spearman was fortunate in the recovery of his team, and will doubtless require some credentials before he hires another stranger.

Samuel Thomas, of Plattsmouth pre-Mrs. Mina Hopkins being the repub- cinci, the vice-President of the Nebraslican candidate for superintendent of ka State Bee Keepers' Association, the puotic schools in Pheips county, started for Denver, Saturday evening, the antimonopolists have pitted against in the interests of the association. He took with him 800 or 400 pounds dentiy the correct plan, if one party of Nebraska honey, as a sample, to show the commission men of Denver, with whom he hopes to make arrangements for a good market for Nebraska honey, the commission men at the present time selling only the California article which on account of the long haul is rather an expensive luxury, compared with the rates at which Nebraska honey can be delivered there. Mr. Thomas is evi pently the right man to talk on a honey surject, he having one of the best apia ries in the State. We learn that he has on hand at the present time over a ton and a half of honey, all of which has been made by his colonies this sum- use Marsh's Golden Blood & Liver Ton mer.
