A HERALD reporter had a very pleasant talk on the train yesterday, with Mr.
Wong Ar. Chong, a former Chinese importer of teas in Boston. Mr. Chong was on his way home to Boston from a visit to his old home in China, he expressed himself very freely as well as intelligently on all questions of public policy.

He said he thought the Americans did very wrong in their wholesale denunciation of Chinamen, and in closing the gates against them. He was willing to admit that the present influx of Chinamen into this country did not particularly benefit it; but he thought other laws might be enacted that would have been more consistent with our constitution and at the same time accomplish some good, while in San Francisco last week, he visited Chinatown, and condemned the filth and wretchedness of that quarter in unparing terms, yet he thought there ought to be a middle ground that would deal justly with the Chinese as well as with ourselves.

Mr. Chong, who by the way, has been in this country 22 years, and had been naturalized, speaking of his native country, said that it was too slow for him, that Japan was far ahead of China, in civilization and modern methods of doing business, they having street cars and steam railways in that country the same as here. He says that most of the shovels, hoes, and axes used in China are made in the United States, but that almost no agricultural implements are shipped there.
Mr. Chong says that his Chinese brethren did not receive him very kindly, especially after he refused to bow to their idols. He told them he didn't worship sticks of wood in his country, when they denominated him a proud protestant, which to a Chinaman he said was a very bad name.

Mr. Chong, although he said he voted the republican ticket, he found wasn't much of a business man, he considering him too extreme on the Chinese question.

As we boarded the train for Lincoln, yesterday morning we were not a little surprised to meet the great temperance advocate the Hon. John B. Finch fresh from his labors in Ohio.

Mr. Finch had a hoarse voice and was looking rather careworn from the effect of his incessant work. He informed us that he had just spent 100 days in Ohio, having spoken in 74 out of the 88 counties in that state. As he had seen so much of the state we thought his opinion on the political situation there, was entitled to more than ordinary credit. We therefore broached the subject of republican success in the coming election, when Mr. Finch without any hesitancy went over the ground as follows:

He says in the first place there are as generally known, three tickets in the field, one headed by Schumaker, of Akron, on an absolute prohibition platform, the democratic ticket with an out-and out whisky platform, and the republican ticket with a platform in favor of high license, but whose candidates say they will enforce a temperance amendment if it should be adopted.

The temperance fight, Mr. Finch says, has not been for the prohibition ticket, as many people outside of the State have been lead to believe, but for the adoption of the prohibitory, or as it has been called the 24 amendment.

As a showing of the earnestness of the movement, Mr. Finch informs us that Mr. Schumaker has expended over $17,000 for work in behalf of the prohibitory amendment, while he has not given one cent towards the securing of votes for himself. He says further that the temperance speakers have advised the people to vote the republican ticket with the amendment as the success of the amendment and the failure of the republican ticket would be an ultimate failure to the prohibitionists, consequently they must support both, which will result in the election of Foraker by at least 15,000 majority.

The Diagonal will be graded into Des-Moines this week. Seventy men with teams, who had finished the Foley contract there, passed through this city yesterday, on their way to Hastings where they say they were ordered to unload. They were not informed as to what line they were to work on, except that they were for the B & M.

They stated to a HERALD reporter that over a hundred more men would follow in a day or two. It strikes us the western part of the State will be rui at working men pretty soon, if this wholesale shipment continues.

Last Friday morning about 9 o'clock a tramp entered the house of Mrs.
Pearson living a few miles northeast of this place and stole $125 and a watch worth about $25. As soon as discovered her son George came to town and telephoned to Ashland, and also hired a team and took the constable and went to Ashland, where they caught the suspected thief, but nothing could be found on him to show that he had taken the money, and so they let him go. The next day we believe, George found $20 and the watch where the thief had crawled through the fence. We understand part of the money belonged to Andrew Rouse.—Greenwood Eagle.

PERSONALS.

Dr. J. A. Hasemeier, of Louisville, is in the city today.

S. G. Perry came in Saturday night to see how big was at home.

W. H. Baker, as is his custom stopped over Sunday in this city.

Miss Alma Peterson, of Louisville, spent Sunday in this city.

H. M. Bushnell is looking after business matters in Omaha today.

Mrs. R. B. Windham, with the little folks, went to Glenwood, today.

John A. MacMurphy took the east bound train this morning for Creston.
Charley Cummins was a west bound passenger for South Bend, this morning.

Walter Adams started this morning for the Adams cattle ranch situated near McCook.

W. L. Browne, the efficient deputy of County Clerk Jennings, Sundayed with his "best" girl out near Louisville.

Alva Drew returned home from the west last night. The report is that he has made some extensive purchases of greenbackers or not.

Miss Wheelock, who has been visiting her uncle, J. W. Barnes, for the past month, returned to her home at Albia, Iowa, this morning.

D. S. Draper, one of the democratic wheel horses in Cass county politics, went to Ashland, yesterday. We did not learn whether he interviewed any greenbackers or not.

Steve Davis and wife returned home last evening from a very pleasant trip to St. Louis. They took in the St. Louis fair, and saw a great deal of historic interest in the staid old city that has a history almost as old as the United States itself.

Isaac Nathan returned last evening from Fairmont. He says they have their store at that place in running order, that on the opening day, last Saturday, the rooms were crowded, and that trade opened out in a flattering manner.

On Wednesday eve is the Jews (Tom Kip or) (day of atonement.) It is a day devoted to prayer and fasting, it is the duty of every Israelite to confess his sins before the Lord, and to be sorry for the past deeds and to afflict his soul as it is said in Numbers, Chapter 29, "And you shall have on the 10th day of this seventh month a holy convocation and you shall afflict your souls." Still it is only a day of atonement for the sins between man and God, and if a man wronged his fellow neighbor, God will not forgive him until he satisfy his neighbor, as it is said, "On this day I will forgive you from your sins which you purify yourself of before the Lord; for this reason it is customary among the Jews to go and settle all disputes, and if not able financially, to ask forgiveness of the man before entering the synagogue on that day; it lasts for 24 hours without eating or drinking, only devoted to fasting and prayer.

AN ISRAELITE.

S. M. Wilson, the Omaha tourist, who looks after the welfare of the Christian Hour, made the HERALD a most pleasant call this afternoon. The paper which Mr. Wilson represents, is a new christian weekly recently established in Omaha under very favorable auspices; it being ably edited, and the only weekly publication of the kind in this latitude west of Chicago, not-with a complete success could be expected. Mr. Wilson will call upon our people in the interests of his paper, and we trust will meet with a goodly number of subscribers.

An Unfortunate Woman.

A woman named Mrs. Bez arrived on the Rock Island Saturday night, who tells us a story which, if true, entitles her to much consideration and sympathy.
She says she came here from Atlantic, where she has been stopping for about a month, but before that she made her home in Chariton for several months, and it was there that her husband died last summer, leaving her widow with two little children, one almost a baby. Her husband left little or no property, he being of a migratory nature, and his business being that of transferring pictures, etc. The only relatives she had whom she knew of were in California, and on communicating with them they promised her the best of her condition her uncle sent her money to come on there with and he would furnish her a home. Her cousin came from there, brought the money, and as he could not wait for her to settle up the business and get ready to start, he went back, taking the elder child with him and leaving her to follow with the other. She had $70 in bills in her pocket when she started from Atlantic, but when she reached here and was about to start uptown, she missed her roll and found that the pocket, which she had carried the money in, was empty.
She insists that two young men on the train must have been the ones that took it, for they sat right behind her in the car and she moved one to get away from them, and they moved too, and took a seat behind her. As she got off the train they were close behind her, and disappeared after she missed the money, and there are other circumstances which led her to believe they picked her pocket or robbed her of her money. Being in a strange city, and penniless, she reported to Chief Field, and he provided her a place at the Ohio house, where she could stay over Sunday with her child. Arrangements were made to send her on as far as Fremont, and there let the authorities help her further on her way.

One of the further misfortunes which renders the woman more helpless, is that one arm is paralyzed so that in she is in a pitiful condition.—Council Bluffs Bee.

To the Public.

Having closed my studio and office to proceed on a journey to Europe, and not having sufficient time to call on all my friends, I wish to speak to them through the columns of the HERALD, thanking them all for their kind patronage.

I am informed that Miss Thompson, of Kansas City, who is visiting Miss Ida Waterman, will take up a class in painting. I trust my former pupils will patronize Miss Thompson, as I am sure they will find her a skillful artist, and one that is entirely capable of teaching the most advanced members of the class.

Hoping to return after an absence of two or three months, I remain, Yours Very Truly,
ERNEST WAGNER.

State's Attorney.

There was a large audience at Tootle's Opera House last evening, to witness the presentation of Scott Marble's four-act comedy drama, "State's Attorney." John Dillon makes a good attorney, and has a good support in the person of Nellie Walters, as "Fancy Barran." The company are all good, and play their parts well. "State's Attorney" affords a rare evening's entertainment.
