PLATTSMOUTH HERALD

PUBLISHED BY
 The Plattsouth Herald Publishing Co.

C. H. Parmele received yesterday at his Cedar Creek farm, 241 head of cattle from Memphis, Tennessee. This makes 600 head he now has on his 800 pasture.

Remember hard coal is always cheaper during June and July. Get your winter supply at the Whitebreast yards in this city. 102dtf

The HERALD learns that county superintendent Alton has moved to Greenwood, where he will hereafter reside. Mr. Alton, we understand, will hold the county institute at that place sometime during the coming month.

Call for Blaine and Logan cigars wherever you deal, as they are the best nicker cigar in the market. If your dealer does not keep them induce him to get some. 92dtf

We learn that Mrs. Simpson expects her aged parents from Nebraska City to be in attendance during the celebration of her fiftieth birthday anniversary, which will take place July 24, at her well-appointed music room, on 6th street.

Call and see us.

I wish to notify the public that I am now open for business, at Joe McVey's old stand, where I have in stock a full line of Kentucky whiskeys, St. Louis beer, wines and cigars &c., as good as the best. [57dtf] H. M. BONN.

The Gallagiers were shipping a car load of their famous brooms to Chicago, yesterday, the freight on which we learn amounts to eight cents per dozen, while the freight from here to Omaha is six cents per dozen. Who is it that says competition doesn't compete?

Mr. August Bach, the Sixth street grocer is moving today into the room formerly occupied by Chambers & Son, where he will keep a first-class stock of fresh groceries. It will pay you to call and see him.

Dr. Potter, the recently elected Episcopal bishop of the diocese of Nebraska, is traveling in Europe at the present time, but we learn that he has cabled to his friends in Omaha that he will take the proffered bishopric under advisement for a few days before he can say what he will do.

Johnson & Co., of Council Bluffs have opened out a first class laundry on lower Main street, where they are prepared to do all kinds of fine work in that line. A trial of their work is requested. 101tf

A Watch Club.

Some of our fellowtownsmen are going into Carruth's watch club, which seems to be a decidedly easy way of getting a good watch, the club being organized just now will contain forty members, each of whom will pay $1 a week for forty weeks, they get a $55 watch for the $40, one member drawing a watch every Saturday night. Mr. Carruth, by making a sale of forty of these watches, which are cheap at $75 is enabled to put them at $40. For full particulars call on Frank Carruth.

One hundred and fifty tons of the best hard coal ever brought to this city, is now in stock at the Whitebreast yards. C. D. CUMMINS, Manager. 102dtf

Three Groves Letter.

Wednesday's storm did considerable damage to small grain by blowing it down where it stood stock heavy on the ground, but has nearly all straightened up again. The rain fell in torrents, and gave old Mother Earth the first good soaking this season; however there has been plenty of showers all along to insure good crops so far.

Corn looks well as a general thing, and has a good color; some of it is getting most too large to plow already. The harvesting of rye will begin this week, it seems to be very well filled, and will yield a handsome return when harvested.

Fruits of all kinds are very plentiful apple orchards are generally full. Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Young made a visit out to Nehawka Sunday.

Miss Beattie Case, from Centre Valley visited some of her folks yesterday in Rock Bluff.

A Mr. Goolsby has moved into Mr. Oldham's house on his north eighty, formerly occupied by Joe Conly.

Miss Hattie Young visited Omaha last week, she went up with her cousin Lafayette Young.

Will Gray is out to Weeping Water at work at his trade.

Robert Mickles is at work on his new brick house, Mr. Graves and son is doing the mason work.

The Sunday school at this place is dragging along slowly with James Wiley as superintendent and Mrs. Crosser, ass't.

The school at the brick, Mrs. Belle Moon, teacher, will close in two weeks more. REPORTER.
