Our latest prospects it is evident that Nebraska's corn crop is going to be greater than the republican majority this fall. This is putting it strong; but the Nebraska corn crop is becoming practically unanimous.

Our Cass county patriots have returned from the Chicago convention looking somewhat jaded and weary and exhibiting to the public a satisfied air. They have seen the sacred white elephant and ought to be happy.

The exuberance of our friend Doctor Miller over democratic results thus far in the campaign and expectant democratic bliss is only equalled by the child like prattle that fills the columns of the Omaha Herald from day to day.

The religious editor of the Omaha Republican asserts that ninety five per cent. of Ingersoll's hearers are believers in his doctrines. This is a rash and reckless statement. No renowned speaker like the eloquent Ingersoll, speaking upon social, religious or political doctrines gathers an audience that believe in the tenets of our faith to any such extent as that; such audiences do not exist, and did they, they would be of necessity thoughtless if not even ignorant.

Our New and elegant hearse is always in readiness.

Remember the place, in UNION BLOCK, on Sixth Street, TWO Doors south of Cass County Bank.

Call for Republican Judicial Convention.

The republican electors of the second Judicial District of Nebraska are requested to send delegates from the several counties to meet in convention at Plattsmouth, Tuesday, August 19, 1884, at 10 o'clock a. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for District Attorney, selecting a central committee and such other business as may properly come before the convention. The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hiatt, regent of the university, giving one delegate at large, and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and the major fraction thereof:

Cass county.....	13
Lancaster county.....	13
Otoe county.....	11
Total.....	37

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention unless held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.

Plattsmouth, Neb., July 1, 1884.

J. B. STRODE, Secretary.

D. H. WHEELER, Chairman.

Republican District Convention.

The Republican Electors of the First Congressional District of Nebraska are invited to send delegates from the several counties therein, to meet in convention at Beatrice on Wednesday, August 20, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of placing in nomination a candidate for Congress, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before the convention.

The several counties are entitled to representation as follows, being based upon the vote cast for J. M. Hiatt, Regent of the University, giving one delegate at large, and one for every one hundred and fifty votes and the major fraction thereof:

Counties.....	Del. Dounties	Del.

Gage.....	1	1
Johnson.....	1	1
Lancaster.....	2	2
Nemaha.....	1	1
Otoe.....	1	1
Cass.....	1	1
Total.....	13	13

It is recommended that no proxies be admitted to the convention, except such as are held by persons residing in the counties from which the proxies are given.

C. A. HOLMES, Chairman.

Lincoln, June 26, 1884.

BUTLER is the only presidential candidate not nominated on Friday, and yet he will not be elected.

PROVIDENCE has again saved the democracy of Cass county, the Journal - Mr. Randall was not nominated.

MR. MANNING'S machine exhibited in the late convention was a perfect one; dynamite would not have shattered it.

BEN. BUTLER has yet another convention to conquer - the prohibitionists meet shortly in National convention at Pittsburg.

For the ninety-ninth time in the last few months Dr. Miller has asserted that he will not be the big boss of the democratic party in Nebraska. Vol-umes could not say more.

FROM latest prospects it is evident that Nebraska's corn crop is going to be greater than the republican majority this fall. This is putting it strong; but the Nebraska corn crop is becoming practically unanimous.

Our Cass county patriots have returned from the Chicago convention looking somewhat jaded and weary and exhibiting to the public a satisfied air. They have seen the sacred white elephant and ought to be happy.

The exuberance of our friend Doctor Miller over democratic results thus far in the campaign and expectant democratic bliss is only equalled by the child like prattle that fills the columns of the Omaha Herald from day to day.

The religious editor of the Omaha Republican asserts that ninety five per cent. of Ingersoll's hearers are believers in his doctrines. This is a rash and reckless statement. No renowned speaker like the eloquent Ingersoll, speaking upon social, religious or political doctrines gathers an audience that believe in the tenets of our faith to any such extent as that; such audiences do not exist, and did they, they would be of necessity thoughtless if not even ignorant.

MR. HENDRICKS.

Reading the speech of Thomas A. Hendricks, as reported to the country through yesterday's dispatches, upon the occasion of his return home from the Chicago convention, one is forcibly and painfully reminded of the double truth that Mr. Hendricks is not a statesman, and that, furthermore it is impossible for that gentleman ever to become a statesman.

Reading the open book of Mr. Hendricks' life as a public man, taking into consideration his aristocratic surroundings, the distinguished family to which he belongs, the favorable circumstances which have surrounded him in all of his public career, the eventful period in his country's history, of which he has been a factor, and into which the great state of Indiana introduced him with its letter of credit and endorsement, any man might well be proud of, one cannot but experience a keen disappointment that this public man should have attained no higher position among the men who did become illustrious both on account of their statesmanship and loyalty during that momentous period, in which men were taken up, measured and tried, in a retort which separated the broader, higher and nobler traits of manhood and statesmanship, from the narrow, low and more insignificant instincts of the partizan and politician.

Thomas A. Hendricks was a prominent man in Indiana fifteen or twenty years ago. When his country was in peril, and called for men of large and loyal brain, like Oliver P. Morton, Thomas A. Hendricks had a golden opportunity to exhibit those qualifications of statesmanship which alone adorn and belong to truly great men.

When Mr. Lincoln and the country were relying solely upon the stalwart fidelity of the northern states and their loyal subjects, when Indiana was invested with lodges of the Knights of the Golden Circle, and the influence of that northern and free state was paralyzed by the traitorous action of a disloyal democracy, Thomas A. Hendricks had an opportunity to step out between the treason of party and his country's flag, and lead his misguided party followers to the support of Mr. Lincoln and the Union armies; yet, not being a statesman, failing to rise above the bias and prejudice of locofocoism, Mr. Hendricks then, and ever since, has continued to exist as a narrow and unfair, partizan politician.

In his technical, pettifogging speech before the Chicago convention, as well as day before yesterday at Indianapolis, Mr. Hendricks failed to point his democratic followers to a single, in spiriting mot du quel like the politician that he is, like Brutus and Cassius when facing Caesar and Antony's legions, plunder is all Mr. Hendricks has to offer his followers in case they defeat the enemy. He suggests that these republicans should be turned out of office, because it is unsafe to leave a party in power too long, and then this candidate for vice president pathetically calls the attention of Indiana's democracy to the rumor that there is a deficiency in some department of the government which only a change of administration can fathom.

Mr. Hendrick's speech at Indianapolis is but a rehash of the dyspeptic harangues which distinguished that gentleman during the rebellion as a weak, faultfinding partizan and demagogue.

THE Republican Central Committee has called one convention to do all the work of the fall, which convention will meet the 16th of August at 11 a. m., at Louisville. This arrangement ought to be and we believe will be satisfactory to republicans generally, and to all sections of the county.

THERE is method in the madness of the excited Omaha Herald in printing the names of the nine democratic delegates in big, black letters. When Cleveland is elected you know, every one of them shall have office and sit at the head of the Nebraska table.

OUR new republican Indian agent, Judge Kinney, has not let his salvation sink into the heart of his son and heir. Dispatches from Nebraska City state that the Honorable Tiptoe Kinney ratified with the democrats with apparent greatunction.

A democratic exchange shouts that Missouri is sure for the ticket. This will be disastrous news to the republicans who have confidently counted upon Missouri under any and all circumstances going democratic for yet a hundred years.

To read Doctor Miller's Omaha Herald and enumerate his roistering roosters over the nomination of Cleveland and Hendricks one is reminded of the bird that is biggest when first hatched.

No one knows better than Doctor Miller that the Cleveland ticket needs lots of booming. When the Doctor gets through with his elevated rooster, and effervescing enthusiasm, he will find plenty to do to keep the plodding voter from inspecting Mr. Cleveland's elevated railway opinions. In the mean time the Doctor can compare Mr. Blaine's and Mr. Cleveland's war records, as the bottom has dropped out of the Mulligan circular.

Vital Questions !!!

Ask the most eminent physician

Of any school, what is the best thing in the world for quieting and allaying all irritation of the nerves, and curing all forms of nerves, complaints, giving natural, childlike refreshing sleep always?

And they will tell you unhesitatingly

"Some form of Hops !!!"

CHAPTER I.

Ask any or all of the most eminent physicians:

"What is the best and only remedy that can be relied on to cure all diseases of the kidneys and urinary organs; such as Bright's disease, diabetes, retention, or inability to retain urine, and the diseases and ailments peculiar to Women?"

"And they will tell you explicitly and emphatically "Buchu !!!"

Ask the same physicians:

"What is the most reliable and surest cure for liver diseases or dyspepsia; constipation, migration, biliousness, malaria fever, ague, &c., and they will tell you:

"Mandrake! or Dandelion! !!!"

Hence when these remedies are combined with others equally valuable, and compounded into Hop Bitters, such a wonderful and mysterious curative power is developed, which is so varied in its operations that no disease or ill health can possibly exist or resist its power and yet it is harmless for the most frail woman, weakest invalid or smallest child to use.

CHAPTER II.

"Patients

"Almost dead or nearly dying"

For years, and gave up my physicians, of Bright's and other kidney diseases liver complaints, severe coughs, called consumption, have been cured.

Women gone nearly crazy! !!!

From agony of neuralgia, nervousness, wakefulness, and various diseases peculiar to woman.

People draw out of shape from excruciating pangs of rheumatism, inflammatory and chronic or suffering from scrofula.

Erysipelas!
"Salt rheum, blood poisoning, dyspepsia indigestion" and, in fact, almost all diseases frail"
